(1)	Alerted, constructive values (8+ HCP).
(2)	Agreed break in tempo (BIT).

The Facts: The director was called after the play of the hand. The BIT was agreed.

The Ruling: It was judged that the 5♣ call was demonstrably suggested by a combination of the Alert and the BIT over a less successful logical alternative (LA) of Pass. Therefore in accordance with laws 16A2 and 12C2, the table result was adjusted to 4♦ double by North making four, N/S +710.

The Appeal: The appeal was filed after N/S had left the playing area. Since the BIT was not disputed and the table director's decision was ultimately upheld, N/S were never contacted.

East was the only player who attended the hearing. He said West's 3♣ bid confirmed some constructive values (8+ HCP), since they play lebensohl. West later told the table director that she intentionally bid 3♣ because of the sixth club and the diamond void. East confirmed a substantial BIT before doubling 4♦. He said West had to pull the double because: 1) she had zero defense; 2) she knew East had a club fit from the 3NT bid and 3) at IMPs safety matters and East had not doubled 3♦. East confirmed that he disagreed with West's 3♣ bid, but she never forgot conventional agreements.

The Decision: The panel was undecided whether to accept East's statement about West's ability to remember conventional agreements. Since resolving this issue could be critical to the resolution of the case, the panel decided to poll peers of West (3100 masterpoints) about what call to make over 4♦ doubled, giving some players the lebensohl information but not others.

The peers who were simply told that they had bid 3♣ all passed 4♦ doubled, since they hadn't promised any values. Of the four peers who were told that they had made a value showing 3♣ bid, two passed and two bid 5♣.

This response to the poll established that a pass of 4♦ doubled was a LA even with the understanding that 3♣ had shown values. Since the UI from the BIT demonstrably suggested pulling the double and pass was determined to be a LA, the panel upheld the table director's decision to adjust the result to 4♦ doubled making four, N/S +710.

The panel decided the appeal had merit.

The Panel: Gary Zeiger (Reviewer), Candy Kushner and Peter Marcus

Players Consulted: Eight peers of West.
