Carmichael, Wooldridge win IMP Pairs

Tom Carmichael and Joel Wooldridge, scheduled to represent the U.S. in the World Junior Bridge Championship beginning Monday, came from behind on the last round to win the IMP Pairs by 13.3 IMPs.

The youngsters -- Wooldridge is 18, Carmichael 23 -- were trailing Robb and Linda Gordon by 4.6 IMPs with a round to go. The Gordons, winners of the inaugural IMP Pairs in 1987, had a bad last round, opening the door for the Juniors, who had taken a 37-IMP lead into the final session.

In second place were Dick Bruno and Kenji Miyakuni of Chicago.

Carmichael and Wooldridge leave Sunday for Hamilton ON and world championship play.

Wooldridge will enter the State University of New York at Buffalo in the fall to study chemical engineering. Carmichael just graduated from the New Jersey Institute of Technology with a degree in computer science. "Now I'm looking for a job," he said.

The jubilant youngsters were over-

Meyers team triumphs in Women's KO

The team captained by Jill Meyers led from the beginning to win the Women's Knockout Teams, 189-129, in a matchup of players bound for the 1997 Venice Cup in Tunisia this fall.

The winners are Meyers, Randi Montin, Tobi Sokolow, Mildred Breed, Renee Mancuso and Shawn Quinn. Meyers, Montin, Sokolow and Breed are members of U.S. team #1 representing the U.S. in Venice Cup competition in Hammamet, Tunisia.

Quinn won her third straight Women's KO, all with different teams.

The runners-up are Kathie Wei-Sender, Juanita Chambers, Lynn Deas, Beth Palmer and Stasha Cohen. All but Cohen are members of U.S. team #2 in the Venice Cup.

Meyers will be trying for her second Venice Cup. She was a member of the winning team in 1993. Montin, Breed and Sokolow have international experience, however.

On the Wei-Sender squad, Deas has three Venice Cups and a Women's Team Olympiad to go with second in the World Women's Pairs; Wei-Sender has won the World Women's Pairs, the Women's Olympiad Teams and the Venice Cup; Palmer has won the Venice Cup twice and was second in the World Women's Pairs; Chambers can count the Venice Cup, Women's Olympiad Teams and World Mixed Pairs as her world championships.

In the Women's KO, Meyers and company jumped out to a 58-45 lead after 16 boards and increased the margin to 105-71 at the half. The Wei-Sender squad made a small gain in the third quarter before succumbing, 50-21, in the last set.

In yesterday's article on the Women's KO, it was erroneously reported that Meyers was trying for her first win in the event. She won in 1989, as did Montin, who also won in 1982.

It was also erroneously reported that Deas had never won the event. She won in 1985.

Co-chairs' goal: fun for players

Judy Gucker and Gloria Kriegshauser, co-chairs of the 1997 Summer NABC, have a simple philosophy when it comes to tournament management -- recruit good volunteers, tell them what to do and then let them do it.

That formula has worked to perfection in Albuquerque, where attendance is far in excess of expectations and players are having lots of fun.

"The volunteers at this tournament are the same ones who work our regionals and the world bridge tournament," Kriegshauser said. "They know their jobs. You say, 'Will you do it?' they say yes and you forget it. Our volunteers are marvelous, just marvelous."

Gucker, originally scheduled to chair the tournament with someone else, agreed.

Nickell-Baze, Shugart-Cayne in Spingold semis

Teams captained by Nick Nickell, Rita Shugart, Jimmy Cayne and Grant Baze will square off today in the semifinal round of the Spingold Knockout Teams.

The matchups are Nickell-Baze and Shugart-Cayne.

The Nickell and Shugart teams earned the right to play today with fourthquarter surges that broke open close

The Nickell squad was leading only 103-101 entering the final quarter against the Glenn Eisenstein team but won the last set, 46-10. The Nickell team is shooting for a fifth straight Spingold.

11,300 tables?

We'll be close to 11,000 tables by the end of today's sessions. Even though attendance is likely to drop off tomorrow, chances are excellent that we'll have an 11,300-table tournament. The original estimate was in the 9,600 range -- and we've already gone by that. The total to date is 9,754.5. Albuquerque 1982 was 8217 at this point. We'll pass Albuquerque 1982 this morning -the total then was 9,776.

New Jersey - Delaware in GNT-B Final

Steve Albin, Elaine Pittius, Julia Ehlers and Michael McNamara, all of New Jersey and representing District 3, will face off against a Delaware team from District 4 in today's 64-board Grand National Teams B final. Playing for Delaware will Harold Jordan, Sigrid Kristjandottir, Andy Kaufman and Greg Burch.

ALBIN survived two close matches yesterday, defeating District 23, 90-72, in the quarterfinal and District 22 in the semifinal, 78-73.

JORDAN had an easy quarterfinal, topping District 22, 85-37. The semifinal was closer, with District 15 the victim, 73-60.

Minnesota - Florida in GNT-C Final

District 14 from Minnesota scored resounding victories over District 13 in the quarterfinals and District 12 in the semis to move into today's 64-board final of Grand National Teams C. On the team are Tim Barrett, Joe Grue, Joe Barrett, Chengwei Lee and Tom Monikowski.

They will face Curtis Ryder, Atul Rai, Dennis Affholter and Jonathan Davidson of Florida. Florida won two squeakers -- 59-57 over District 8 in the quarterfinal and 76-72 against District 6 in the semis.

I am enjoying the Daily Bulletins on the Internet.

Regarding Thursday's Grosvenor Coup article -- the name of the play actually is the Grosvenor Gambit from the wonderfully entertaining article written by Fred Tumer and published in Bridge World June, 1973. Fred is an accomplished lexicologist, and I believe it is proper to retain the term he coined for the play.

The story is pure fancy, but it is written so convincingly that there are those, both in and out of the bridge world, who have accepted it as fact. The last paragraph details Grosvenor's demise: "Three days after the tournament Grosvenor's body was found on the beach at Key Largo. The dealing fingers of the right hand had been broken, and there were cruel bruises about his head and shoulders. In spite of the note found in his room at the Golden Whelk Motel and the coroner's subsequent ruling of suicide, there are those who still question the circumstances of Grosvenor's death."

Fred sent a copy of the article to a colleague who, among his accomplishments, was a member of The American Board of Nuclear Medicine. He received the following reply:

"I am enthralled by your letter relative to the Grosvenor Gambit. I confess I know so little about bridge that I hope sometime you will explain to me why it so infuriated some of the people who had it pulled on them. I certainly can't see how that could justify murdering a man!

"Neither can I understand with what you tell me about the findings on this man's corpse that the coroner could find it as a case of suicide! It shows that coroners are frail and probably susceptible to pressure and other unfortunate attributes of the human special."

Fred, not wishing to embarrass his friend, never told him the truth.

One more Ron story

Many years ago in Memphis, at the M.A. Lightman Bridge Club, a team game was scheduled. A young player by the name of Rex Germany gathered a group to play. Total masterpoints for the team: approximately four.

On one round, Germany and his partner sat down to play against Sue Emery, then a member of the ACBL Bridge Bulletin staff, and a man Germany didn't know.

When the round was over, Germany turned to the man and said, "I sure like the way you play the cards."

"Allow me to introduce myself," said the stranger.
"I'm Ron Andersen."

Said Germany: "I'm sure glad you didn't tell me that before we started playing."

As it happened, the novices won the match, and this was during the era of rating point slips.

Said Germany afterwards, "This is one green slip that won't be turned in."

Correction

In yesterday's article about the slam in which a revoke occurred, we said that the revoker could have saved the hand by letting the revoke be established.

However, Tournament Director Charles MacCracken pointed out the error of our way. "Look at Law 62A," he said.

We did. It says, "A player must correct his revoke if he becomes aware of the irregularity before it becomes established." So the defender had no choice -once he realized he had failed to follow suit, he had to make the correction.

Witnesses sought

There was an accident involving one of the doors of the Convention Center Tuesday at approximately 3:50 p.m. Anyone who may have witnessed the accident is asked to telephone Room 109 at the Plaza Inn -- 243-5693.

A great unblock

Wayne Stuart found a superb unblock on Board 12 to defeat a contract in the second qualifying session of the IMP Pairs.

Wafik Abdou's double of 2♥ sent the message to Stuart that it was safe to lead a heart. So Stuart led the ♥7. Declarer discarded a diamond from dummy and won the queen with the king. He immediately cashed his four clubs, and Stuart discarded the ♠6 (discouraging) and the ♥8 (!), not the deuce! Declarer ordinarily might have led the ♠A and another, but he didn't want to let South in. So he finessed the queen into Stuart's king

From the way things were going, Stuart was quite sure declarer did NOT have the ◆K, so he shifted to a diamond. Declarer finessed into Abdou's king. Abdou led the ♥6, and declarer was finished. If he covered, Stuart would run the suit. When he actually played low, Stuart was able to follow with the deuce, leaving the lead in Abdou's hand for another heart lead through the jack.

That sent the contract down two tricks. Most declarers were making the notrump game, so Stuart and Abdou picked up 11 IMPs, a big gain in an IMP pairs.

Escalating partnership

Theodore Bloomfield of Warrenton OR was taking the up escalator at 10 minutes to one, looking for a partner. By the time he got off the escalator, he had a partner -- William Jenkins of Amarillo TX, who also was on the up escalator looking for a partner. The partnership worked. They had a 65% game for a section top.

As they were looking at the scores, someone behind them said, "We got a 63% game and we only had a section second. What do you have to do to get a section first?"

Bloomfield turned around and said, "Find a partner on the escalator."

(1) Break in tempo

The Facts: 5 ♠ made six, plus 480 for E/W. Before the opening lead, North volunteered that 3. promised four-card support. West stated he would have bid 6. had he known his side could not have two possible club losers. The Director ruled that there had been misinformation (Law 21) and changed the contract to 6♠ made six, plus 980 for E/W.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling. South and West appeared before the Committee. North arrived just before deliberations began. Over 5♠ East hesitated approximately 10-15 seconds before passing. Before the opening lead North informed the table (inappropriately, and was informed of proper procedure later by the Director) that her 3. bid should have been Alerted as showing four or more clubs.

The Director was called. Since East had already passed, the auction could not be backed up to allow West to change his 5♠ bid. West was taken away from the table by the Director and stated that he would have bid 6♠ had he known that North's 3♣ bid showed four or more clubs (thus placing East with at most one club). The Director was not informed of East's hesitation, and consequently ruled that the contract be changed to 6. made six, plus 980 for E/W.

The Committee Decision: During the appeal the Committee learned of East's hesitation. They believed that the unauthorized information from it could have made West's statement, that he would have bid 6 \( \bar{\phi} \), significantly easier. When contacted, the Director at the table confirmed that she had not been given this information and would likely have ruled differently had she been so informed.

The Committee did not believe that a 64 bid by West was likely given the unauthorized information from East, and also the fact that N/S had bid, vulnerable, to 5 and on that basis were known to be likely to hold at least nine cards in the suit. Therefore, the contract was changed to 5 made six, plus 480 for E/W.

The Facts: 2♠ went down four, plus 200 for E/W. East failed to Alert West's redouble. E/W stated they were playing support doubles and redoubles. West's redouble showed three-card spade support. South stated he thought the redouble showed a big hand and his partner's 2 bid was to play. The Director ruled that the table result would stand for N/S because South should have realized his partner's 2 hbid was a cuebid and could not be to play. The Director adjusted the E/ W score to Average Minus (minus 3 IMPs) for failure to Alert the redouble.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling. E/ W did not appeal the Director's score adjustment. South stated that he would have bid if the redouble had been Alerted. South did not ask about the meaning of West's redouble before he passed. The Committee determined that N/S were also playing support doubles and redoubles.

The Committee Decision: The Committee decided, in view of N/S's own agreement to play this same convention, that South was not damaged by East's failure to Alert the redouble. South had an obligation to "protect" himself before he passed. North obviously intended his 2 hid to show hearts and an invitational hand. Finally, the Committee believed that South, an experienced player with more than 3,000 masterpoints, should have known that his partner's 2 h bid was forcing. The Committee allowed the table result 2 down four, minus 200 for to stand for N/S. The Committee allowed the E/W score of Average Minus (minus 3 IMPs) to stand. The Committee unanimously agreed that the appeal was substantially without merit and retained the $50 deposit.

(1) Constructive raise with three trumps.

All Pass

Meckstroth allowed that he might have made a game try with his hand, but his decision to pass worked out well -- on this occasion, anyway.

When the auction heated up and one of the opponents sent back 4♥ doubled, Meckstroth was taking no chances. If the opponents were right, Meckstroth was looking at a huge minus. In fact, North-South were cold for 11 tricks, so Meckstroth and Rodwell would have suffered minus 1480.

Thankful for the warning, Meckstroth pulled to 4, which was duly doubled.

North led the AA, and the defenders could have collected plus 200 with a diamond switch, but North played a heart instead. Meckstroth was now cold for his contract, but he had to play carefully. He had originally planned to cash the A Q, pull trumps, ending in dummy, and throw a losing diamond on the *K.

When he played the A and South followed with the jack, which looked a lot like a singleton, Meckstroth revised his plan. He ruffed a heart with the ♠K -- the key play -- and finessed the ▲10 to pick up trumps. He ran trumps, but the opponents defended accurately to hold him to four. Plus 790 was a 12-IMP gain. At the other table, Nickell and Richard Freeman defended a spade partial, holding declarer to nine tricks.

New Life Masters

TANIA MOALEM of Hillsborough CA became a Life Master by advancing to the semifinals of one of the knockout team events. Her partner was Bill Carlson of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

NORMA JOHNSTON of Albuquerque made the grade by advancing to a knockout teams semifinal -that gave her all the gold she needed. But it wasn't easy -- the quarterfinal match ended in a tie. They played a four-board playoff, and Norma's team won by a single IMP! She was partnered by her husband Jim, and their teammates were Jim Hull and Joe Crumbley of Albuquerque.

Red Ribbon Pairs Bean Trophy the prize

Play begins today in the Red Ribbon Pairs, an ACBL event with national rating held during the Summer NABC. Pre-qualification is required.

Players earn qualification by placing first or second overall in regionally rated events of at least Flight B status. Neither member of a qualifying pair may hold more than 1500 masterpoints at the time of qualification.

The four-session event began in 1986 and winners have their names inscribed on the Percy X. Bean Trophy.

Bean trophy

The trophy was designated by the ACBL Board of Directors in 1996 to honor Bean, ACBL president in 1972 and chairman of the Board in 1973.

Bean (1916-1992) represented District 19 on the Board from 1964 until 1988 and served as president of the ACBL Charity Foundation from 1974 until 1981. He was a member of the National Goodwill Committee and the National Board of Governors and general chairman of arrangements for the World Team Olympiad in Seattle in 1984.

Bean and his wife Anne were named ACBL Honorary Members for 1992, the first time that honor was bestowed on a husband-wife combination.

Bean was the editor of Mad, Mad World of Bridge, a publication that strongly championed players of less than expert class (see page 9).

Be sure to pick up your special prize for your section top. The Awards Desk, adjacent to the Registration Desk, is open for an hour prior to each afternoon and evening session.

Smoking rules

If you wish to smoke, there is only one area inside the Albuquerque Convention Center that you may do so -- in the Northwest Exhibit Hall on the ground level. Otherwise you must go outside the Convention Center to smoke. By city ordinance, smoking is not allowed in any other part of the Convention Center.

Father-son winners

A father-son combination had a section top in the first session of the 299er Swiss Teams, then followed it up with a tie for first in the evening. It was the first time that Dick Minzner and his son Max had played as a partnership. Max started the tournament with 20 masterpoints and Dad had two. Their teammates were Dave Williams and Norman Bay. Max is a law student and his teammates are all lawyers.

Shugart and company were trailing, 104-100, whelmed by well-wishers offering congratulations, and against the #2 seed, led by Steve Robinson, but blasted their way to a 163-126 win.

Baze's team survived the closest match of the day, 114-111, against the Mike Moss squad. Moss jumped out to a 43-6 first-quarter lead but could not hold off the Baze sextet, who rallied for an 84-64 lead after three quarters. A fourth-quarter comeback by Moss fell short.

Cayne's #3 seed was ahead all the way against the Jeff Wolfson squad. Wolfson and company mounted a mild rally in the fourth quarter, but still fell well short at 138-104.

These are the semifinalists by seeding position:

- 1. Nickell, Richard Freeman, Jeff Meckstroth, Eric Rodwell, Bob Hamman, Bobby Wolff.
- 2. Shugart, Andrew Robson, Zia Mahmood, Michael Rosenberg, Tony Forrester, Geir Helgemo.
- 3. Cayne, Chuck Burger, Alan Sontag, Mark Feldman, Mike Passell, Michael Seamon.
- 4. Baze, Tipton Golias, Cezary Balicki, Adam Zmudzinski, Merek Szymanowski, Marcin Lesniewski.

Wooldridge's proud parents, Powhatan and Jill, were among those offering hugs.

Said Wooldridge rhetorically, "Is this a confidence builder? We can play IMPs!"

He was referring to the World Junior Championship, a team event.

Seven years ago, Wooldridge made headlines in the ACBL Bridge Bulletin by winning a regional Mixed Pairs at the age of 10. He was playing with his mother in a tough field. He went on to become the ACBL's youngest Life Master that year.

Wooldridge and Carmichael represented the U.S. at the World Junior Championships in Bali, Indonesia, two years ago. The two have been partners about five

"It's fun playing with someone younger than I am who is as good or better," said Carmichael.

The Juniors were eighth in the field after two qualifying sessions. They scored 102 IMPs in the first final session.

Going 100% in Spingold is true Hog Heaven

Must be something about the quality of the corn up here. Haven't mis-picked a match this year (no one should be judged on picking fillies, they're so unpredictable). Now we get to the semifinals.

#1 Nickell vs #4 Baze

Very difficult. Grant, Tipton and their Poles have now won two matches by just 2 IMPs. That is a sign from a place even higher than where I am now that Baze is indeed a team of destiny. Rule #2 is never go against a team of destiny. Unfortunately this conflicts with our rule #1 which is NEVER NEVER EVER pick against Nickell in a Spingold. Well, rules being rules I have to consult with my old pal Mr. S. who says that

#2 Shugart vs #3 Cayne

Hog Heaven is noticably interfering with my female prognostications. Maybe I should pick against Rita, just because it is better for me to have an all-male final, which I would be 100% certain to pick accurately. However, I found a better way. I called the airport, and Rita has her plane ready to depart Saturday night, while the Cayne jet isn't scheduled to leave until Sunday night. That is enough for me. I like the CAYNE team in a thriller

Do not miss the Vugraph presentation on Sunday. My appearance is sure to be the talk of the tournament. Hope the atmospherics hold out.

"Albuquerque is very blessed with excellent volunteers."

Gucker praised Kriegshauser for her help in planning the NABC. "I don't know what I would have done without Gloria," Gucker said. "We work well together."

Said Kriegshauser: "We don't have any ego problems."

Kriegshauser said planning for the NABC didn't stretch over a long period. "We aren't the panic type of tournament chairs. We've been there before."

She also praised ACBL's meeting planner, Nancy Foy, and her assistant Jeff Johnston. "Hiring those two non-bridge players was one of the smartest things the ACBL has ever done," Kriegshauser said.

Kriegshauser has been involved in tournament management for about 10 years, Gucker since 1992.

They both said that running the Summer NABC has been "a piece of cake," particularly in comparison to the ordeal of managing the World Bridge Championships in 1994. There were language problems with players and officials from 38 different countries -- and, said Kriegshauser and Gucker, the World Bridge Federation simply isn't as good at running tournaments as the ACBL.

"The ACBL has done a magnificent job," said

The co-chairs praised all the volunteers, but had special words for Marilyn Anderson, NABC Intermediate/Novice chairman.

"She is responsible for the table count we've had in the I/N games," said Gucker. "Marilyn was teaching a bridge course at the University of New Mexico. She really got the players out. She held their hands and got them going."

"Marilyn is really gung ho," said Kriegshauser.

Both said they aren't surprised at the attendance, which will easily top 11,000 tables, but they said table count is not their primary barometer for a successful tournament.

Said Gucker: "The way I decide if we've had a good tournament is if the players have fun. If they're happy, I'm happy, and if the table count is up that's kind of lagniappe."

Parking

Parking at the Convention Center is available only on the east side. Come in on Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue and move into the left-hand lane. This takes you over the ramp and into the parking area. Cost is $2.00 each time you enter.

Runners-up in the IMP Pairs: Dick Bruno and Kenji Miyakuni.

Master Mixed Teams go for Chicago Trophy

The Master Mixed Teams is contested for the Chicago Trophy, formerly awarded for the Reisinger Boarda-Match Teams.

Restricted to players who have won at least 100 masterpoints, the Master Mixed Teams is played as a four-session Board-a-Match event with two qualifying rounds and two final rounds. In 1969 this event was played in three sessions.

Bean: Mad, Mad World of Bridge

Players in the Red Ribbon Pairs will compete for the Percy X. Bean Trophy, which honors the 1972 ACBL president and longtime champion of less-than-expert players.

Bean (1916-1992) represented District 19 on the Board of Directors from 1964 until 1988 and served as president of the ACBL Charity Foundation from 1974 until 1981. He was a member of the National Goodwill Committee and the National Board of Governors and general chairman of arrangements for the World Team Olympiad in Seattle in 1984.

Bean and his wife Anne were named ACBL Honorary Members for 1992, the first time that honor was bestowed on a husband-wife combination.

Bean was the editor of Mad, Mad World of Bridge, a publication that strongly championed players of less than expert class.

Here's a sample:

A couple was playing and having a bad night. By the time they got to the last table, Charlotte had taken about all the lessons she could stand and when Bob started in again, she rushed away from the table in

Bob and his two opponents sat for a while in silence and then Bob said, "Sorry, fellows, but the state my wife is in, she may not return at all. Just to get this last board over, why don't we leave my wife's cards in the board and I'll bid both of our hands. Charlotte's hand will remain concealed until the bidding is over."

The opponents, men with wives of their own, shrugged and agreed. Bob opened the bidding with one heart. LHO passed and Bob, bidding Charlotte's unseen hand, raised himself to two hearts.

RHO passed and Bob bid three hearts. LHO again passed and Bob went into a trance. After considerable trancing, he came to and in a firm tone he bid four hearts.

This ended the bidding and after the opening lead, Charlotte's unseen hand was spread as the dummy. Bob was lucky and he did have a chance of bringing home the contract.

Play progressed to the last three cards. The lead was in dummy, three tricks had been lost and the next play was crucial. Bob studied a moment then led, finessed and lost for down one.

About this time Charlotte had regained her composure in the ladies' room and decided she would finish the tournament if it killed her.

She returned to the table at the same moment Bob had to make the critical play. When it failed, he looked up at her accusingly and said, "You just couldn't pass three hearts, could you?"

Our good friend Bob had the good fortune to play an event with his good friend Lew Mathe. Bob wasn't awestruck or anything but playing with such an international star gave Bob a case of nervous prostration.

After flubbing six or seven hands, and suffering the tortures of the damned, Bob misplayed still another. He looked up at his partner and groaned, "Oh God."

Lew, with just a note of pity in his voice, replied, "You can call me Lew."

Bobby Wolff and I are compiling a glossary of what we call 'ACBL Board Daffynitions.' I think they apply to all deliberative bodies. Here are a few samples:

Looking into Six-year study minimum
Careful consideration Not to exceed 60 seconds

My friend, The Wilmette Whizzer, worked at the hospitality desk and reports that one day a lady called to ask if she could kibitz her nephew and niece who were playing in the mixed teams.

The Whizzer advised the lady that the mixed teams was over and maybe she meant the Swiss teams, which was then being played.

"Oh, no!" came the reply. "Not a chance -- they're Americans."

Now let me get to the reason why I publish the MMWOB anyway. It is to remind you that in the mad, mad world of Bridge the secret life of Walter Mitty springs to reality and the George Plimptons quarterback the Lions much oftener than you realize.

At the Coronado Fall Nationals, the Hong

Kong flu bug bit a lot of people and I was pressed into service as a substitute.

I played one session of the Life Master Men's Pairs as a fill-in with the great Edgar Kaplan as my partner. The only thing I remember for sure is that after one hand Edgar leaned across the table and very graciously said, "P.X., I cost us two tricks in the defense."

Guess how many times I could have done the same but then he is E. Kaplan and I am P.X. Bean -- it wouldn't sound the same!

The next day I filled in for one session of the Life Master Women's Pairs. Without doubt, this is the toughest event I ever played in my long, but as yet undistinguished, career.

Never again -- I would rather swim in a tank full of pirhanas than to be stuck in a room full of women who were whiling away an afternoon at the bridge table.

My next big moment came when I was asked to substitute in a session of the Open Pairs with Easley Blackwood. He didn't insist on my playing his convention and I accorded him the same courtesy.

The net result was a sparkling 149 (which is still 25 points better than my lifetime average).

Bean earned this salute in 1988 from Edgar Kaplan, editor/publisher of The Bridge World:

For Percy -- An Appreciation A filthy declarer is Bean His judgment in bidding's obscene. Yet

Of Kumquats named Sadie And little old ladies,

His defense is ferocious and keen.

Bridge Baron wins computer contest

Bridge Baron 7, the computer bridge program developed by Tom Throop, defeated Q-Plus Bridge, 66-44, in the final competition of the Baron Barclay World Bridge Computer Challenge.

The match was the final event in the week-long competition showcasing various computer bridge programs. The computer fair was organized by Al Levy, representing District 24, on the ACBL Board of Directors.

Bridge Baron, first marketed in 1985, was tied with the German-produced Q-Plus after 21 of the 24 boards in the match. On the final three boards, however, Bridge Baron scored swings of 6, 12 and 4 IMPs to seal the victory.

Q-Plus had scored highest overall in a two-session IMP Pairs game earlier in the week
