Wei-Sender dominant in Wagar KO final

They won the NABC Fast Open Pairs:
Chris Willenken and Aaron Silverstein.

Willenken, Silverstein win NABC Fast Open

Chris Willenken and Aaron Silverstein topped the field in the inaugural NABC Fast Open Pairs. The duo had a huge game in the first final session (67.5%) to carry them to the win. They scored 972.59 matchpoints (including carryover, 650 average).

Willenken, 24, is an options trader, while Silverstein, 33, is a full-time player. Both live in New York City. They have been playing together seriously for more than a year.

This is the first NABC win for both Willenken and Silverstein. The NABC Fast Open Pairs is a four-session contest, with a two-session qualifier and a two-session final. The contest required that the participants play two-board rounds in 11 minutes. If a table exceeded its allotted time, penalties were assessed. The director would inquire whether one or both pairs were responsible for the delay and assign slow-play penalties accordingly. Sixty-four pairs played in the final.

In second was the Las Vegas-based pair of Paul and Linda Lewis, who scored 963.00 matchpoints.

Fifth graders take on I/N field

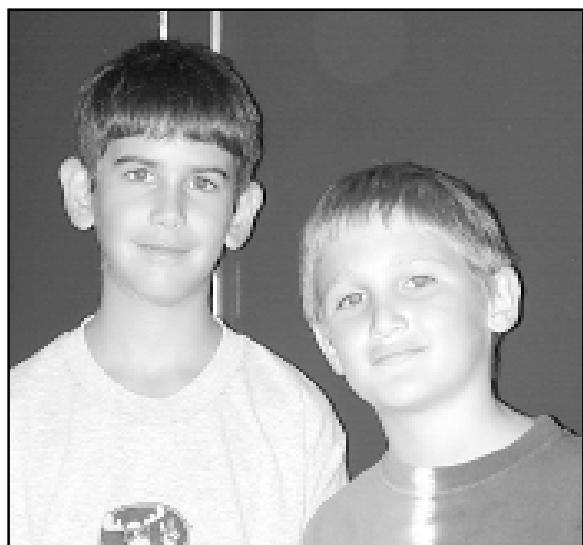

If you take a look around the Intermediate/Newcomer game here in Anaheim, you can't help but notice a certain pair that'swell, a bit different. Jeremy Koegel and Evan Willenson of Los Angeles are a pair of 10-year-olds who are taking on their older opponents and having a good time in the process.

Koegel, who was taught the game by his uncle Bob Bell of Washington D.C., and Willenson, who picked up the game from his grandmother, Jenella McCance of Whittier CA, will be fifth graders this year at Wonderland Avenue Elementary School. Koegel has formed a club at their school where he and several friends play.

"I've played in several other games before the Nationals," said Koegel, the "veteran" member of the pair.

"This is my first tournament," said

Kathie Wei-Sender's team put on a convincing show in the final of the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams, defeating the (np) Bob Hamman squad, 169-125.

Wei-Sender, playing with teammates Juanita Chambers, Jill Levin, Betty Ann Kennedy, Janice Seamon-Molson and Tobi Sokolow, led throughout the 64-board match. The Hamman team, which will represent the U.S. in Maastricht at the world championships by virtue of winning the U.S. women's team trial earlier this year, included Petra Hamman, Joan Jack-

Welland, Meltzer, Jacobs, Robinson going strong

Two American teams will face two multi-national teams in today's Spingold Knockout Teams semifinals. The team captained by Roy Welland, which features two Swedes and a Canadian, will oppose the only remaining team captained by a woman – the Rose Meltzer sextet. In the other match, the George Jacobs squad, with four Italians on board, will take on the all-American Steve Robinson team.

Meltzer (Peter Weichsel, Alan Sontag, Chip Martel, Lew Stansby, Kyle Larsen) made a fantastic comeback to fight their way into the semifinal. They trailed the team captained by Rita Shugart (Andrew Robson, Tony Forrester, Geir Helgemo), 119-104, with two boards to go. On the next-to-last deal, Meltzer got to five clubs,

IMP Pair winners: Aschley Bach and Stephen Burgess

"Down Under" duo wins IMP Pairs

Stephen Burgess and Aschley Bach won the NABC IMP Pairs by the narrow margin of 1.92 IMPs. Burgess, of Australia, and Bach, of New Zealand, finished the contest with a score of plus 118.94 IMPs, to narrowly edge out the runner-up pair of Steve Beatty, of Destrehan LA, and George Steiner, of Seattle WA.

Burgess has represented both New Zealand and Australia in international play. He has lived in Australia for the past 20 years, and will represent "Oz" at the Olympiad in Maastricht playing with fellow Australian international Paul Marston.

Bach, of Auckland, New Zealand, is breaking into the international scene, having recently won the Butler Pair Trials in Australia.

The IMP Pairs was the first NABC victory for both players.

The contest is a four-session event (two qualifying and two final sessions). 156 players qualified for the final.

Guess I should'a stayed in bed

By Barry Rigal

Sometimes it is not worth getting out of bed, as Carolyn Steiner and Marinesa Letizia discovered. Down 38 IMPs at the half in their Wagar Women's Knockout match, Steiner picked up:

♠ 7 5 3
♥ 9 4
♦ 8 6 5 2
♣ K Q 7 3

She passed in second seat at unfavorable vulnerability. She heard a Multi 2♦ on her left, pass from partner, 2♠ (heart fit) on her right, and 2NT on her left, showing hearts. Partner doubled to show an unbalanced good hand, and righty jumped to 4♥, passed back to partner. Letizia doubled again to show an even better hand. This was the auction so far:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	2♦	Pass
2♠	Pass	2NT	Dbl
4♥	Pass	Pass	Dbl
Pass	?

Steiner decided to try for a minor suit game with 4NT, and Letizia jumped to 6♦, which made Steiner put down her dummy rather apologetically. Not to worry – Marinesa had her covered with a 23 count and all the aces. This way the full story:

♠ 7 5 3
♦ 8 6 5 2
♣ K Q 7 3

♠ A K Q 2
♦ A
♥ A Q 10 4 2
♣ A 9 4

Alas, the diamonds were 3-1 with both honors offside. That was one down – especially galling when her teammates had escaped for minus 300 with the East-West cards!

Thank you!

A thousand thank yous to the wonderful man who found my diamond bracelet at the Marriott and turned it in at the Hospitality Desk. Please stop by the Hospitality Desk at the Hilton today so I can say thank you in person.

Creating a defensive entry

Steve Castellino, of Fremont CA, found a neat play on defense on this deal from the first final session of the Red Ribbon Pairs. Castellino was playing with partner Karen Manfield.

Castellino led the ♠8: 9, 2 10. Declarer played the ♣4 to dummy's queen and when that held, he ran the ♦9 to North's jack. Castellino persisted with a spade: 7, 3, queen. Declarer now played a heart, and inserted dummy's jack when North played low. The ♦6 was then passed to North's king.

Castellino knew his partner needed two entries to establish and run the spades. The ♦A was one entry but how to get him in a second time? Castellino then hit on the idea that partner might hold the ♥10, so he exited with the ♥Q. Declarer won the king and played a club to the 9 and North's 10. Castellino now underled the ♥A. South won and played a spade. Eventually regained the lead with the ♦A to defeat the contract one trick. Plus 50 was a great score.

Goodwill Message

Have you said "thank you" to a caddy during this NABC? The caddies pick up slips each round during pair games and move boards during team games -- despite players' best efforts to hide the slips and the boards. A word of thanks will brighten their day -- and yours too.

High-level Grosvenor

You've heard of the Grosvenor Coup. It happens when a player takes an action that gives the opposition an extra trick, but with a catch. The play making the extra trick possible looks so absurd that the player refuses to take that line. Instead he does what looks sensible and ends up with the same tricks he originally had. Usually everyone gets a good laugh because the player was fooled by a Grosvenor.

There's no question about it – Dave Treadwell has been around in bridge. But he got caught on this deal during a Spingold match.

(1) Invitational with six hearts.

Treadwell rose with dummy's ace on the club opening lead and pulled four rounds of trumps. When he led a spade, West went up with the ace and led another club, ruffed. Treadwell led a spade to the king and gave up a spade to West's queen. He ruffed the club return with his last trump.

Treadwell cashed his good spade and West threw the good ♣J! The ♣J! That clarified the picture – if West had the ♦A she would have kept the ♣J and scored the last two tricks. So it was clear to Treadwell that she did not have the ♦A – she was holding onto the doubleton ♦Q. So Treadwell led a diamond to the jack and was astounded when East produced the queen – down one.

"Is it a violation of Zero Tolerance for your partner to fall off his chair laughing at you?" Dave wants to know. Michael Huston, his partner, thought it was the most hilarious incident in his life.

Lazard anecdotes

Earlier this week we printed an amazing hand bid and played by new Hall-of-Famer Sidney Lazard. Here are two more spectacular instances:

Lazard once was declarer on all 26 hands in a session. He wishes he hadn't been the declarer on the last hand when he saved at 7♠ against 7♥ – the grand slam in hearts would have gone down one and Lazard would have won the event.

Another time he bought the contract and the opening lead was made. Even before the dummy was spread, Lazard said, "Making on a trump squeeze." And of course he was right!

(1) Bailey weak-two bid.

(2) Constructive values.

Notice that I had stayed out of the laydown contract of 3NT to play 4♣. A trump lead will beat me off the top but since East's bid guaranteed one of the top three heart honors, West felt safe leading the ♥K. Seeing the dummy, he switched to a spade, trying to stop heart ruffs. I won and exited the ♦Q. East did best by returning the ♦Q (any other return allows me to make five). Now I had a problem --- after losing two hearts I still had a diamond and a heart loser. Having read about all sorts of squeezes that rely on running all the trumps I figured running a few rounds might be useful. So I cashed four more spades to come to this position:

♦ J 9 5

♣ A K

♦ K 10 6 3

♣ Q

♥ 10 7

♦ Q 8 7

♥ J 9

Here, I missed a neat line. If I had cashed the last spade, West would pitch a club, and I would also pitch one from dummy. Now East feels the squeeze. East can't pitch a heart, so he must pitch a diamond and I could have then played ♦A and another diamond. If West ducks, East will win and I'll score two hearts tricks, but if he takes the king he becomes the stepping-stone to the dummy for the last two tricks.

Defenses to 1NT

At this NABC, in General Convention Chart events, the Board of Directors has voted to allow constructive defenses to 1NT openings, even when those defenses do not contain a known suit.

Since these are Mid-Chart conventions, it is the responsibility of the pair playing these methods to pre-alert the opponents and to provide a suggested defense.

In order to help players counter these methods successfully, the tournament is making available copies of an article on the subject, written by Mariana Letizia, that appeared previously in the ACBL Bridge Bulletin. Look for "Counter-Defense to Interference vs. 1NT Opener" in the rooms where General Convention Chart events are played.

Panel Show

Tonight Ken Monzingo will host a panel show of national champions who will go over the hand records and show you why your score was not so good. (Must have been your partner's fault!). The panel show will be in the California Pavilion, second floor, Hilton Hotel. Pick up a free ice cream bar there and join Gene Simpson, Haig Tchamitch and other celebrities.

Missing cell phone

Ken Monzingo reported that he has lost a cell phone in a leather case. Monzingo is offering a reward for the phone's return. If anyone has found this item, please return it to the Press Bulletin office.

After Game Refreshments

Ice cream bars will be served in the Hilton Hotel, second floor, tonight after the evening session. The refreshments will be served at the three different stations there.

Hospitality bags

Players interested in obtaining extra Hospitality bags may purchase them for $3, two for $5, at the Hilton Hospitality Desk, 2nd floor, from noon to 1 p.m. or 6 to 7 p.m.

(1) Break in tempo

The Facts: 2♠ doubled made two, plus 470 for E/W. The opening lead was a small diamond. The Director was called after the 2♠ bid and before South doubled. N/S alleged there had been a break in tempo by East over 1NT; E/W did not notice one. The Director ruled that passing 1NT was a logical alternative for West. Balancing was made more attractive by the break in tempo. The contract was changed to 1NT down one, plus 50 for E/W.

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling. East said that he paused for perhaps 10 seconds to consider his action over 1NT. West said that he did not notice any break in tempo and that he thought his action was justified, both vulnerable at matchpoints. North and South both stated that they noticed an unmistakable break in tempo.

The Committee Decision: The Committee judged that a hesitation had likely occurred, based on the statements of three of the four players. The Committee believed that pass was a logical alternative to double since in theory East could have held a 4-4-2-3 five count and the break in tempo demonstrably suggested action on West's part. Whether the break in tempo was based on extra high cards or extra distribution, West's double was more attractive with that knowledge. The Committee therefore canceled West's double and reverted the contract to 1NT. In 1NT with the likely spade lead, the play was projected as follows: spade ducked to West's king, low diamond to North's 10, ♠9 ducked all around, club to the king, ♠Q to the ace, spade cashed, club finesse, ♣A. Different variations were possible but seven tricks seemed both probable and likely. The Committee considered whether N/S's defense to 2♠ doubled had been egregious, in which case N/S would have failed to take advantage of the opportunity for a better score than was available in 1NT. This was not judged to be the case since the ♣K shift at trick three, although a favorite to succeed, was not clear. The contract was changed to 1NT made one, plus 90 for N/S.

(1) Alerted; explained as "could be short" before South doubled

The Facts: 1NT made one, plus 90 for E/W. The Director was called at the end of play. South had not been told that E/W open 1♣ with any strong notrump hand. South stated he might have bid 1NT rather than double had he received a proper explanation of the 1♣ bid. The Director ruled that there had been no damage and allowed the result to stand.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling. Only South attended the hearing. South stated that upon receiving the explanation "could be short" he assumed that it was the normal 4-4-3-2 distribution. Had he known that it could have been a strong notrump, possibly with longer diamonds, he would have overcalled 1NT, leading to the possible N/S results of 2♥ down one or E/W contracts of 2♠ or 2NT down one. South said that beating the opponents to 1NT at neither vulnerable would have been clear if he knew East could have had a strong notrump.

The Committee Decision: The Committee believed that South had not done enough to explore the implications of East's explanation. For example, when asked what E/W's notrump range was, South said he did not know at the time but now knew it to be, "11 to 14, or maybe 10 to 12." Because knowledge of E/W's notrump range was critical to South's decision, failure to inform himself of that fact was in no small way responsible for South's dilemma. Also, relying on the opponents to have specifically a 4-4-3-2 weak notrump in the finals of the Life Master Pairs was an inference that South took at his own risk. Finally, it was possible that South would have been worse off had he overcalled 1NT since E/W scores of plus 100 (2♥ doubled) or plus 110 (in 3♦ after doubling North's transfer response) were reasonably likely. The Committee allowed the table result to stand since South had not sufficiently demonstrated damage solely from the opponents' actions. E/W were assessed a five matchpoint procedural penalty for failure to disclose their agreement adequately.

East doubled North's Michael cuebid in anticipation of penalizing South's major suit preference. Sincoff, South, rescued her partner by running to 2♦, which West doubled.

Now it was Portnoy's turn to come to the rescue – she redoubled to "force" Sincoff to rescue herself into a major. Sincoff, however, had the last rescue – she passed!

West cashed the three high clubs and switched to a spade. East won and continued with a spade, promoting West's ♦8 for the defenders' fifth and final trick. The result, plus 760, was instrumental in the Sincoff team's advance to the next round.

Bridge can be fun – it can be funny, too

At a tournament that was being directed by Harry Goldwater, Charles Goren came to him and said, "We're defending the Men's Pairs. Where's Table 1 going to be?"

Goldwater told him, "Look over the room. Pick your spot and plug in your lamp and you'll have plenty of room for kibitzers."

"But Harry, the spot I want is in the middle of the room."

Goldwater showed Goren the rule book and said, "You show me where it says that Table 1 has to be in a corner."

Goren told Goldwater how much he appreciated the special consideration.

Goldwater's priceless reply: "Charley, if it wasn't for you, I'd have to work for a living."

A Goldwater quickie:

A player asks, "Director, do you have an aspirin?"

Harry: "Sorry, I gave the last one to your partner."

A priest once asked Director Burt Garrell, "Burt, what do you think of my chances of winning this event?"

Quick as a wink, Burt came back with, "Father, you don't have a prayer!"

* * *

First player: "What did you do on Board 5?"

Second player: "We played it in one club."

First player: "Really? How did the auction go?"

In the early days of bidding boxes, they were used only at tables where there were hearing-impaired players. A man sat down, and an opponent asked if was familiar with their use. "Of course I am," he said. For his first bid he picked up the box, held it to his mouth and said, "One spade."

There is a hand that can be constructed to prove, incontestably, any harebrained theory in bridge.

Mea culpa, mea maxima culpa

by Barry Rigal

So many sins, so little time to confess them. Oh well, it's supposed to ease the mind, so here goes.

A cowardly act with the East cards no doubt, but your hand looks wasted on offense. Partner leads the ♠K, and you discourage with the 8. Declarer wins and leads a heart to the ace, partner pitching a low club. Then comes a second heart on which partner pitches the ♣9. What now?

I have to confess I missed the point altogether here. Partner's lowish club spots must suggest suit preference for diamonds, and so since you may need to lead diamonds through twice, start now.

Vulture attacks Bull in domestic violence outbreak

After going 2-0 in her initial Wagar Women's Knockout semifinal, the Vulture publicly challenged the Bull to a prognosticating contest. A wily veteran, the Bull responded by going a politically correct 1-3 in the Spingold while the insouciant Vulture completed a 3-0 sweep of the Women's Knockout. Congratulations to Wei-Sender-Kennedy, Chambers-Levin, and Seamon-Molson-Sokolow as the Hyphenates take home the Wagar Trophy for the year 2000. Meanwhile the runner-up Hamman team, Hamman-Sutherlin, Klar-Jackson, and Quinn-Breed skip the Masters Mixed and are off to represent the ACBL in the Women's World Team Olympiad in Maastricht. The Bull and the Vulture join together in congratulating the Wei-Sender squad and wishing the Texas ladies success in the pursuit of their WBF Maastricht Gold.

Original #17, now #1 Welland vs. #4 Jacobs

The Bull was not only wrong about Welland being out of gas, but also wrong about how to spell Lindkvist. It was an off day for "the Horse", the Bull, and the Swedish spell checker as the surprising Welland-Jacobus, Fredin-Lindkvist, and Moss-Gitelman blew out a 79-IMP third quarter against Schwartz-Cas

♠K Q 2 ♦Q 10 9 3 2 ♣4 ♣A 10 6 4.

He heard three passes, and after thinking a while, decided to open 1♦. Willenson responded 1♣, which became the final contract. As Koegel placed his hand on the table, he remarked, "I'm not sure whether I should have opened this hand, but it seemed right."

The Wei-Sender squad won the first quarter 56–39, and then opened up a huge lead in the second set to lead at the half 112–56.

Hamman couldn't make a dent in Wei-Sender's lead as they continued to trail by almost 50 IMPs at the end of three quarters of play. The Hamman team won the last quarter as well, but it wasn't enough as Wei-Sender cruised to a 44-IMP victory.
