4 NABC champions to be crowned today

A total of 430 pairs entered four North American events yesterday. All four events will hold their two final sessions today.

Open Pairs II

Jill Meyers of Santa Monica CA and Randi Montin of Napa CA have a slim lead -- 18 points -- over James Griffin of Austin TX and Sim Therrell of Wylie TX. The Californians scored 1260.10 to 1242.18 for the Texans. Top on a board was 38.

Curtis Cheek of Huntsville AL and Michael Schreiber of Los Angeles are third with 1202.43. These were the only three pairs to top 1200 in yesterday's qualifying sessions.

Women's Pairs

Suzi Burger of West Bloomfield MI and Barbara Sion of Las Vegas, who won the Life Master Women's Pairs at the Fall NABC in San Francisco, hold the lead in the spring event.

Nell Cahn of Shreveport LA and Becky Rogers of Dallas, fresh from their second-place finish in the Silver Ribbon Pairs earlier this week, are second.

Top of a board was 51. Burger-Sion lead with 1585 followed by 1569 for Cahn-Rogers.

NAOP - B

Fred Dischman of Kansas City MO and Jerry Mandelkehr of Shawnee Mission KS are the leaders in the North American Open Pairs, Flight B. The District 15 pair scored 776.36.

Second are Marshall Kerlin of Americus GA and Denny Cahan of Duluth GA with 771.32. They represent District 7.

Non-Life Master Pairs

Stephen Tu of Santa Clara and James of Darcy Kirkland WA are leading the Non-Life Master Pairs with a total of 803.50 -- the only pair to top 800.

Second are Jason Meyer of Silver Spring MD and James Geist of Laurel MD, representatives of District 6, with a total of 796.86.

Ask the expert

World champions and other bridge superstars are volunteering their time to raise funds for the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation of America. You'll recall from Tuesday's Daily Bulletin that Lynn Deas is suffering from this muscle disorder disease.

The "Ask the Expert" desk will be open on the lobby level of the Hyatt (adjacent to the Restaurant Reservation Desk outside the Regency Ballroom) from 11 a.m. to noon, an hour after the afternoon session and an hour before the evening session and an hour after the evening session. For a donation to the Foundation, you will get advice from bridge superstars.

Come by and get input on a difficult auction, on bridge theory, on a tough play situation -- or just meet an expert from our roster of world and national champions who have graciously donated their time.

To volunteer as an expert, contact Juanita Chambers, Room 843. To make a cash donation or to get information, contact Shannon Lipscomb, also Room 843. More than $600 was donated yesterday.

Here is the schedule of experts as presently set up:

Today before the afternoon session: Mark Lair and Stasha Cohen.

Today after the afternoon session: Ron Andersen, John Mohan and Björn Fallenius.

Today before the evening session: Geoff Hampson and Eric Greco.

Today after the evening session: Mark Itabashi, Bill Miller of Dear Billy fame, Sue Picus and Barry Rigal.

Cayne vs. Schwartz in Vanderbilt final

Richard Schwartz and his team, apparently tired of matches that went to the wire, jumped out to a 45-IMP lead after one quarter and poured on the IMPs until their opponents withdrew after three quarters in yesterday's Vanderbilt semifinal.

The other semifinal match -- Zia vs. Jimmy Cayne -- was close only in the first quarter when Zia led 28-27. That was the only lead for Zia, the defending Vanderbilt champion, in the match.

After that, it was all CAYNE: the team led at the half 85-41, extended their lead to 131-61 after three quarters and won 168-109.

Both teams had exploded in the fourth quarter of their Thursday matches but Zia never got on track yesterday.

Canadian teams earn world title shots

Teams from Canada won their respective heats in tri-country trials in Mexico City in early March to lock up berths in the Bermuda Bowl and Venice Cup scheduled for Hammermet, Tunisia, Oct. 18-Nov. 1.

Earning a berth in the Bermuda Bowl was a Toronto-based squad: Nader Hanna, Willowdale ON; Michael Roche, Don Mills ON; Jim Green, Toronto; Paul Thurston, St. Catharines ON; Rick Delogu, Waterloo ON, and Doug Fraser, Mount Royal PQ. This team prevailed in a three-way playoff with teams from Mexico and Bermuda.

The Canadian women's team played a head-to-head match against Mexico for the berth in the Venice Cup -- Bermuda did not send a women's team. The Canadians came from behind to earn the trip to Tunisia. The squad is the same one that represented Canada in the World Women's Team Olympiad in Rhodes, Greece, last year -- Dianna Gordon, Toronto; Sharyn Reus, St. Laurent PQ; Beverly Kraft, Westmount PQ; Francine Cimon, Barbara Saltsman and Rhoda Habert, Montreal. George Holland is non-playing captain.

OKbridge helps Malcolm deal with arthritis

It's tough to go to the club and play for several hours when you're being assailed by pain. That's the problem Malcolm Rosenblatt of London, England, faced until OKbridge came along.

"I have hemophilia which in turn has made me very arthritic," said Malcolm. "And the pain from the arthritis sometimes is unbearable."

OKbridge let Malcolm play bridge from his home, and this was great. He got to know a lot of players around the world by playing on the computer.

At some point he decided he wanted to make a trip to the United States with his doctor, Richard Mason, also of London. Because of the intravenous fluid he has to take on a regular basis, there is practically no place to put a needle, so he needs a doctor to help him. It helps that they both enjoy a good game of bridge. They decided to head for Las Vegas, the glitz capital of the United States.

But then one day Malcolm was talking to Shareen Mohandes, a British bridge magazine editor who has taken many excellent photographs for The Bridge Bulletin.

"If you're going to the United States, why don't you go to Dallas?" suggested Shareen. "Both you and the doc love to play bridge. You'll have a really good time if you go to one of those

Reading the Silver Ribbon cards

Chuck Said and John Russell captured the Silver Ribbon Pairs by a slender 1.45-point margin and have already made a date to defend their title next year.

When final results were tabulated and Said-Russell were the victors, Russell said, "You want to play again next year?"

"You're on," replied Said.

The pair was playing together for only the fourth time: last year's Silver Ribbon Pairs, a two-day practice session at the Louisville regional and the Silver Ribbon Pairs here.

Said was impressed with his partner's card-reading ability on this deal from the second final session:

"When East didn't reopen with a double, John immediately placed him with heart length," said Chuck.

The opening lead was the ♦8, a difficult card to read -- and East didn't. Russell covered with dummy's 9 and East won the ace.

He shifted to the ♣K and a low club to the queen and ace. Now West shifted to the ♠2 and Russell won dummy's ace. He led the ♥9, ducked all around.

Next he cashed the ♦K and ruffed a diamond. He led the ♥K, as West showed out, and East won the ace. He led the ♦J and Russell ruffed.

East had already shown up with 13 high-card points -- the ♥A-J, the ♦A-J and the ♣K. Reasoning that East would have opened 1NT if he also held the ♪Q, Russell led a low spade and finessed dummy's jack. He cashed the ♪A at trick 11 and was in dummy at trick 12 -- with his ♥Q-10 poised over East's ♥J-5. Plus 140 was worth 35.5 on a 38 top.

Said-Russell right-sided a slam for all the matchpoints in the first qualifying session:

(1) By agreement, shows a good hand and good clubs.

"John made the winning call when he opened one diamond," said Said. "If he opens one club, I bid diamonds and a heart lead through John's hand beats the slam."

When Russell bid out his pattern, Said was able to place the contract in 6♦ and the heart tenace was protected on opening lead. Russell won the opening spade lead with dummy's ace, pulled trumps and knocked out the ♣A, claiming 12 tricks and plus 920.

Double, double -- toil and trouble

By Barry Rigal

You don't often get to head the qualifiers of a national event after one session -- and you don't get there without a little luck.

Steve Grant and Kitty Munson were leading after one session of the Mixed Pairs and were in third place after the second. On Board 11 they had an aggressive auction to a very delicate spot.

On the lead of the ♥Q Steve ducked, then won the heart return to run the spades. This was the ending:

♣ A K		♣ J 9 5
♠ --		♠ --

♣ Q 7		♣ 10 8 2

When Steve led the last trump, East kept his clubs, allowing South and West to throw a club. But the top clubs simply squeezed West in the red suits and the slam came home.

However, there was no defense in the ending. Since had East thrown a club, that suit would run for three tricks. The necessary defense was for West to bare his ♦K to keep three clubs and a heart in the five-card ending. When the last trump is led, East throws a club and dummy gets squeezed before West.

Finding the queens

Mike Levine of Boca Raton FL was faced with the problem of finding the minor suit queens on this deal from the Senior Knockout Teams.

West cashed two top spades and the ♣A, then switched back to spades. Levine pitched a club on the third spade and drew three rounds of trumps as East discarded a club. Levine was positive that East had the ♣Q because West had cashed the ace, but the ♦Q was a problem.

He took the ♣K and ruffed a club, leaving this position:

When Levine now cashed the last trump, East was forced to part with a diamond to keep the ♣J covered. West parted with a spade, but Levine had all the information he needed. East had two diamonds left, so it was clear that West had started with the queen doubleton. He took his top diamonds, and down came the queen.

So be careful where you smoke, watch your language, don't obstruct the caddy's path, put your tickets in an accessible place -- and don't call for a caddy unless you mean it. Otherwise we can't guarantee that you won't get a CADDY CITATION!

Mixed Pairs winners add winkle to play

A winkle is defined as "a secondary squeeze that forces the opponents to choose between a throw-in and an unblock, each of which costs a trick."

Wafik Abdou, who won the Mixed Pairs with Phyllis Quinn, found a winkle in the second final session.

Dlr: South ♠ Q 10 7 3 2
Vul: Both ♥ 6

♠ 9 5
♥ Q 8 3 2
♦ 10 7
♣ K 10 9 4 2

Abdou (West), playing 4♥, received a low spade lead and played dummy's jack, which held. "I could have made things easier on myself if I had ducked a club at trick two," he noted. "Then I could ruff a club in dummy. But it all worked out."

At trick two, he led the ♦Q -- low, low, king. North led another spade and Abdou won his ace. He led the ♥J, as North showed out, and ducked to South's queen.

South now shifted to a low club and Abdou couldn't afford to duck -- if North won the club, he could give South a spade ruff.

Abdou went up with the ♣A and cashed two rounds of hearts and the ♦A.

This was the four-card ending:

♣ Q 8

♠ K ♠ 8
♥ -- ♥ --
♦ 9 ♦ J 5
♣ J 7 ♣ 6

♣ K 10 9 4

When Abdou cashed the ♠K, North was truly winkled: if he pitched a diamond, the suit would run. If he threw a low club, Abdou would cash the ♦9 and throw North in with the ♣Q to collect a diamond on the end. (Note that South can't overtake the ♣Q without setting up Abdou's jack.)

Finally, if North discards the ♣Q, Abdou would overtake the ♦9 with the jack and lead up to his ♣J.

Plus 620 was worth 53.5 of 64 matchpoints.

It was Quinn's turn to shine in the play in the same session.

Quinn (East) declared 3NT after North had opened a weak 2♠. South led the ♠3, won by North's ace. A spade came back and Quinn won the king as South unblocked the queen.

Quinn cashed three rounds of clubs. When North followed to the third club, she reasoned that he was probably 6-2-2-3 and that South was probably 4-4 in the red suits.

Accordingly, she cashed two more clubs, pitching diamonds from dummy. South, who had already pitched one diamond, discarded another diamond and her last spade -- keeping all four hearts.

Now Quinn led a diamond to the jack. She played the ♦A, dropping South's king, and played a heart to her king. She cashed the ♦Q and led to dummy's hearts, which were now good.

Plus 690 was worth 44 of 64 matchpoints.

The strangest slam of the tournament

This hand actually took place in the Vanderbilt. Honest!

As South you hold

♠ K Q J 9

and you hear the following auction:

West	North	East	South
Stewart	Goldman	Weinstein	Soloway
3♦	Pass	5♦	5NT (1)
Pass	6♥ (2)	All Pass

(1) Pick a slam.

(2) Following a fairly long hesitation.

You see your left-hand opponent lead the ♦A, but that's no problem -- you have a void, so partner can ruff it. But partner asks you to discard a spade! What's going on here?

West could see no future in switching -- even though he had the ♣A -- so he led another diamond. You see partner win the king -- whew! -- that's a relief! Next he cashes the queen of trump and crosses to your ace. When he leads your ♥K, he discards a club! He bid 6♥ with only two hearts? That's right!

Next he draws the last trump with the jack and wins the rest of the tricks with his seven-card spade suit. This was his hand:

♠ A 10 6 5 4 3 2
♥ Q 8
♦ K 8 2

Bobby Goldman thought Paul Soloway was showing the two lower unbid suits when he bid 5NT! His hearts were better than his club, so he decided to bid hearts. The barrage set up by Fred Stewart and Steve Weinstein had a bizarre result -- a 4-2 slam that made instead of a 7-4 slam, which also would have made.

Of course Weinstein could have beaten the heart slam -- his ♣A would have survived if he had led it. But the bizarre action on the first trick made him think he was on the right track with diamonds.

This was the match that was decided by a single IMP -- Richard SCHWARTZ over Kit WOOLSEY. This hand came from a nightmare set for Goldman and Soloway of the Schwartz team -- they dropped 50 IMPs. Clearly it could have been much worse.

This was the full hand:

You lead the ♣10 to declarer's queen and back comes a low diamond. You put in the 10 to hold the trick. Do you cash out the clubs? Unlucky again, for this was the full hand:

♣ Q 8 7 6 5

Stewart's decision to double 3♣ at least got his side off to a lead that gave them a chance -- the contract is cold on a lead of either major suit. But to beat 3NT Stewart had to overtake his partner's ♦10 and play a spade. However, when the defense ran their club winners, they simultaneously set up declarer's ninth trick in the form of the fifth round of clubs.

The REAL Platters are here tonight

The inimitable PLATTERS (the real McCoy, not impersonators) will cap a great week of entertainment tonight right after the evening session in the Regency Ballroom.

The group that was formed in 1953 has undergone changes over the years, as you can imagine, but since 1970 there has been a constant in their makeup -- Monroe Powell. Powell replaced Sonny Turner 27 years ago as lead singer of the Platters, and he's still at it today. Through the years, Powell has maintained his own unique style but has adapted easily to the original sound of the Platters.

Reminisce with one of the all-time great groups, whose hits include Only You and The Great Pretender.

American national tournaments."

"Why not!" thought Malcolm, and he decided to check out the idea. What did he do? He called up the ACBL home page on the Internet and learned all about the upcoming tournament. There's that computer again.

"I'm sure glad I came here instead of Las Vegas," said Malcolm. "This is not quite heaven, but it's quite near it. The hospitality has been wonderful and everything is terrific. Doc and I will be back again."

"It's lovely to see the people in the flesh that I got to know through OKbridge. Their lovely faces will humanize my computer when I go home."

Malcolm and the doc have been doing OK at the bridge table, too. They've been in the overall at least half a dozen times, including one first and one second. "We've been placing in every event we play in," said Malcolm.

Bridge on Internet: intro to OKbridge

OKbridge will stage one more introductory seminar concerning OKbridge at this tournament, according to Matt Clegg. It will take place this morning at 10 at the OKbridge booth.

Included in the program will be instructions on:

- ▀ how to install the software
- ▀ how to sign up online
- ▀ how to set up an account name
- ▀ how to join a table
- ▀ how to talk on OKbridge
- ▀ how to use convention cards
- ▀ how to upload a photo

The seminar is sponsored by the Fifth Chair Foundation.

Laws Seminar set

A Laws Seminar will be held today from 9 a.m. until noon in Cascade Ballroom B.

National Tournament Director Roger Putnam will conduct the seminar. Subjects include interpretation of new laws and rulings on questions asked by participants.

Cost is $25 and a certificate will be mailed to participants.

The seminar will become a regular feature -- the "Club Director's Refresher Course" -- beginning with the Summer NABC in Albuquerque. The course is scheduled for Monday, July 28. Cost is $30 which includes a new Laws book.

Ramblings of a diseased mind

By Barry Rigal

Just before the start of the Open Pairs I discovered that I had a pro engagement and had to cancel my game with Haig Tchamitch. As I went over to tell him the "sad" news, his left-hand opponent was about to lead to a slam. The "routine" auction was as follows:

West	North	East	South
	Pass	Pass	3♣
3NT	4♣	Dbl (1)	Pass
6♠	All Pass

(1) Takeout or penalties?

North had

♥ Q J 6 4 3 2
♦ K 10 6
♣ Q 6 3

and led a mundane club. Dummy shook her head and put down

♦ 10
♥ A K 9 8 7
♦ J 9 4 2
♣ 9 6 3

Declarer won the club with the ace and crossed to the ♦10 to sluff his diamonds. Declarer had

♦ A K Q J 9 7 6 5 4
♦ Q 7 3
♣ A

Just a mundane 3NT overall of 3♣, right? Guess Haig was just trying to show me what I was missing.

Vanderbilt

to the Bermuda Bowl champion Nick Nickell's team, had won two Vanderbilt matches by a total of 4 IMPs (defeating Kit Woolsey by 1 IMP and Gerald Sosler by 3 IMPs).

That wasn't the case yesterday. SCHWARTZ led WOLFSON 47-2 after one quarter, 95-31 at the half and 154-55 after three quarters. At that point, WOLFSON withdrew.

Today's final match, which will be on vugraph, will begin at 1 p.m. and continue at 8 p.m. □

The Alert strip

It is ACBL policy to have players tap the Alert strip and say Alert out loud at the same time. When an announcement is made, once again the player should tap the Alert strip.

When using spoken bidding, players are required to announce and Alert aloud.

If there is some reluctance about complying, players should summon a tournament director rather than get into a hassle with an opponent.

Check cashing

Check cashing is available to ACBL members daily for an hour before afternoon game time (noon to 1 pm). The check cashing desk is located across from the Partnership Desk on the second floor. Checks up to $250 will be cashed, but picture identification is a must.

The Hog eats light -- decides on Cayne

The Hog was NOT in a good mood when we found him in his usual back booth at Pedro's all-night gourmet Tex-Mex diner. Cayne advanced to the final as predicted -- BUT Wolfson not only did not reach the final, he was forced to wave the "white flag" after 48 deals. Obviously Jeff's victory over Nickell took its toll on his fine team while Schwartz was buoyed by his decisive 1-IMP win over Woolsey.

So the Hog was one-for-two -- well below his usual standards.

"Today will be different," vowed the Hog as we sat down next to Mr. S. "The problem yesterday was too much French food at the Mansion. Tonight I had a simple porterhouse for three at Ruth Chris's, a few spears of asparagus with hollandaise sauce, a 1/2 order of lyonnaise potatoes -- and I shared a dessert with a Pretty Lady -- a perfect lite meal for accurate prognosticating!"

"You sound confident about today's prediction," we noted.

"CONFIDENT would be an understatement!" snorted the Hog.

#1 CAYNE versus #2 Schwartz

Congrats to these two fine teams for reaching the '97 Vanderbilt final. And it rates to be a great final. Both teams are star-studded with plenty of firepower. On the surface, it would be no surprise to see either of these teams claim the Vanderbilt Trophy in the Vugraph Theater late tonight.

Each team has one Texan -- Passell for the Cayne forces and Goldman playing for Schwartz -- giving neither side any "home field" advantage.

For some time I was undecided until I received a phone call from my favorite Uncle, the second best prognosticator in North America. My Uncle has a rule that is worth repeating. "Never bet against Wall Street when the Dow is OVER 7000!"

"So, when Edgar and my alter-ego make their final call in the stretch this evening at the commentator's table it will be: "CAYNE, in front!"

And speaking of the commentator's table, don't miss my alter-ego, Edgar (Kaplan), Zia, Eric (Rodwell), etc., on the Rama for all 64 deals of the final. Irrespective of the winners of the '97 Vanderbilt, you'll be a "winner" in the Regency Ballroom today!

A big day for Big D

More than 550 tables competed in both sessions yesterday, raising the table count to 8340.5, well above pre-tournament estimates. Dallas now is ahead of Fort Worth 1990 by 140 tables. However, Fort Worth had a very substantial Friday, so Dallas will have to be strong today to stay ahead.

Watch the Vanderbilt final on vugraph

There's nothing like being there when the final of an event like the Vanderbilt Knockouts is taking place.

And you CAN be there. The entire final will be vugraphed on the Pendergraph, starting at 1 p.m. in the Regency Ballroom. The second session will get under way at 8 p.m.

Once again Ron Andersen will be the chief commentator, and Edgar Kaplan will be at his side whenever possible. Other experts will take over one of the mikes from time to time to add color and flavor.

The final also will be transmitted instantaneously on the Internet on OKbridge.

A Catholic Mass will be said about 5:30 p.m. Saturday in Suite 362.

Goodwill Message

It's not a federal offense. It's not something that would bring shame to the offender's family.

It's a violation of bridge rules and it happens dozens of times each session. With a simple call of "director, please," the solution will be found and the game can go on.

But if you want to escalate the situation into a major crime, don't call the director -- make a ruling yourself. It's the quickest way to a post-round argument.

Enforcing the Laws, making rulings -- that's the director's job. Help him do that job.

Chairman, Goodwill Committee*
