Dallas chair thanks all for NABC success

“It’s been a great tournament, for sure,” said Gerrie Owen, chair of the 2006 Dallas NABC.

“I want to thank all the tournament committee chairmen. They’ve done an outstanding job. In fact, Nancy Foy (ACBL’s meeting services manager) paid them a great compliment this week when she said she was bored — the committees had done such a great job, she had a lot less to do.”

Owen extended her highest thanks, however, to the players.

“Thanks to everyone who showed up. I hope you won lots of masterpoints!,” she said.

“We’ve had rave reviews about our hospitality gifts and prizes. There have been no complaints, it’s been great. We appreciate people telling us they were having a good time.”

Owen, who runs many of the tournaments in the Dallas area, also expressed her gratitude to the ACBL staff and the army of volunteers who helped.

Goodwill message

As we prepare to leave Dallas, take a moment to say “thank you” to our hosts — it’s been a spectacular spring tournament.

See you in Chicago in July.

National Goodwill Committee*

Chang triumphs in Vanderbilt final

The international squad led by Fred Chang defeated Roy Welland’s team in the final of the Vanderbilt Knockouts, 112-96.

Chang, a civil engineer who lives in Flushing NY but was originally from Taiwan, played with Londoner Gunnar Hallberg, American Seymon Deutsch, and a pair from the People’s Republic of China, Fu Zhong and Jack Zhao.

Welland included Bjorn Fallenius, Chip Martel, Lew Stansby, Adam Zmudzinski and Cezary Balicki.

The Chang team, who led by 35 at the half, watched nervously as Welland’s squad made inroads into that lead throughout the third and early fourth quarter. Welland trailed by 10 IMPs only at the start of the last set, and narrowly gained the lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Chang regained the lead through a pair of grand slams that were not bid at the other table. The second of these slams was particularly hair-raising as it required 2-2 trumps and a favorable lie of other defensive honors. Everything was right for declarer, however, and Chang surged back into control in the match.

Welland had an opportunity to come back when Chang’s squad missed a vulnerable game near the end, but the winners had no more

Milner leads Jacoby Open Swiss

The team captained by Reese Milner is leading the Jacoby Open Swiss going into today’s final. Their score was 119 Victory Points. Three teams are tied for second, each with 114 VPs.

The other members of the leading Milner team are Sam Lev, Jacek Pszczola, Steve Garner and Howard Weinstein.

The second-place teams are: Ken Cohen, James Griffin, Keith Garber and Ken Schutz; Jeff Meckstroth, Rodwell, Paul Soloway, Bob Hamman, Robert Levin and Steve Weinstein; and Richard Schwartz, Tarek Sadek, Walid Elahmady, Jan Jansma and Louk Verhees.

A total of 52 teams qualified from an original field of 103.

Deas squad leads Women’s Swiss

The Deas squad grabbed an early lead in the Machlin Women’s Swiss Teams qualifying yesterday. Advancing to the final today are 14 teams from of an original field of 26.

The leaders are Lynn Deas, npc, Kay Schulle, Daniella von Arnim, Sabine Auken, Lynn Baker, Kerri Sanborn and Karen McCallum with 119 VPs.

Betty Ann Kennedy, Peggy Sutherlin, Pam Wittes and Linda Lewis are in second place with 105. The third-place team is: Barbara Sonsini, Rhoda Walsh, Tobi Sokolow, Janice Seamon-Molson, Sue Weinstein and Cheri Bjerkan with 102.

District 2 Pair leads NAP, Flt B

Barb Lillie and Robert Neudorf of Winnipeg MB posted the top score in the qualifying round of the Golder North American Pairs, Flight B.

Lillie and Neudorf had a two-session total of 1142.50 with a 35 top, or about six and a half boards above average.

In second were Tony Haddad and Mike Doyle of Houston TX. The District 16 duo posted a score of 1102.50.

Two boards behind second place is the District 24 pair of Gary Russell and Robert Russell, both of New York City.

Of the 72 pairs that entered the event, 36 survived to today’s two-session final.

District 21 duo in front in NAP, Flt C

Mike Develin of Berkeley CA and John Barth of Santa Cruz CA are out in front in the President’s Cup North American Pairs, Flight C.

Develin and Barth have a two-board lead over the second-place pair, District 14’s Kim Carey, of Bismarck ND, and Dave Kuschel, of Minot ND.

Just three matchpoints behind are District 13’s Valdimir Reznik and Stanislaw Kolesnik, both of the Chicago area.

There were 68 pairs in Saturday’s two-session qualifier, but only 36 made the cut to today’s final round.

The things matchpoint scoring makes us do

How greedy should you be at matchpoints? B. J. Trelford and Chris Buchanan, winners of the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs, were very greedy on this deal (rotated) from the second final session, and it paid off.

In their methods, 2NT was modified Jacoby 2NT — it promised limit raise values or better with spade support. Trelford, South, liked his hand and so bid 3♥ showing heart shortness with extras. Buchanan also had extras with a good portion of his values in hearts, so he bid 3NT as an offer to play (for some pairs, 3NT in this sequence would be conventional). Trelford made the decision to pass.

Playing in either 3NT or 4♠, you have the same two losers, the ♦A K. Making plus 460 was worth 51 matchpoints on a 51 top for the winners.

Everett Boyer and Mansoor Gowani were second in the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs Friday.

Restaurant/Transportation Information

There are many restaurants in the West End including Landry's Seafood House, On the Border, Spaghetti Warehouse and The Butcher Shop. The West End is a few minutes from the Hyatt on the DART light rail system. DART rail passes can be purchased from the ticket vending machines on the platform at Union Station. Single-trip tickets are $1.25 and are valid for 90 minutes. Day passes are $2.50. Fares for seniors 65 and older are .50 for a single trip ticket and $1 for a day pass.

Eastern excellence

By Barry Rigal

It's rare to see a demolition as complete as that by the Chang team in the final set of their match against Hollman in the semifinal round of the Vanderbilt. It started when Chang's Fu Zhong and Jack Zhao scored a goal here:

Fu Zhong	Jack Zhao
♠ A 7 4 2	♠ K 9 8 3
♥ Q 7	♥ A K 4 2
♦ A K J 5 3 2	♦ Q 4
♣ 10	♣ K 8 4
1♦	1♥
1♠	2♣
2♦	2♠
3♥	3♠
4♣	4♦
4NT	5♥
6♦	Pass

2♣ was fourth-suit forcing to game.

The key to the auction was that Zhao, as East, could show spade support, then produce delayed support of diamonds (4♦), suggesting Q-x since with K-x he might have raised over 3♥.

Zhong used Roman Key Card, and could infer that where 6♠ had a trump loser (5♥ showed two key cards without the ♠Q), 6♦ might make if the spade went away on a heart or club winner in dummy. Even if the ♣A was offside a heart-spade squeeze would be sufficient.

The opponents' cards cooperated and 6♦ rolled home for a 10-IMP gain.

Zia at work

By Barry Rigal

Zia came in to tell the following story. Put yourself in Zia's seat, holding the South cards on this deal (rotated) from the second final of the IMP Pairs.

♠ K Q 6 3 2 ♥ 10 ♦ 10 ♣ A 10 9 8 7 6

As dealer, you pass and the auction goes 1♦ on your left, 1♠ from partner, pass on your right.

A lesser man might jump to 4♠ or 4♣ (fit-showing) perhaps. Zia decided to slow the auction down a little by bidding 1NT. This succeeded in slowing the auction down a lot — in fact, it ended right there.

West led a top diamond, announcing, "You won't make it," and right he was as this was the full deal:

♠ A 9 8 7 4	♠ J 10 5
♥ K 9 5 3	♥ Q 8 6 4 2

Mad scientists at work

Beneath that mild-mannered (if newly bearded) exterior of Howard Weinstein beats the heart of Count Victor Frankenstein.

Sitting opposite him at the table is no, not Frankenstein's monster, but the peaceable Steve Garner. Certainly these are not the bridge players you would expect to see ravaging the country and terrorizing its innocent citizenry.

Here, however, are the deadly duo at work, terrorizing innocent Vanderbilt opponents:

Weinstein	Garner
♠ Q J 7 5 4	♠ A K 8 3
♥ A 6	♥ K 7 5 4
♦ A K Q 6	♦ J 7 3
♣ 9 2	♣ A 6

1♠	2NT (1)
3♥ (2)	3♠
4♦ (3)	4NT
6♦ (4)	7♠

- (1) Game forcing.
- (2) Any 5-4-2-2, extra values.
- (3) Exactly 5=2=4=2.
- (4) !! See below.

The 6♦ call is really worth three exclamation points.

Weinstein and Garner have a general agreement that when they have two key cards and no voids, their responses should fit this scheme below (the queens in question are the queen of the trump suit and the queen of the known side suit):

- 5♥ = 2 + no queens
- 5♠ = 2 + lower queen
- 5NT = 2 + higher queen
- 6♣ = 2 + both queens, no kings

Weinstein decided he could extrapolate from this agreement on the fly by bidding 6♦ to show two key cards, both queens and the ♦K.

According to Weinstein it took Garner only 10 seconds to bid 7♠. I guess he knows his customer!

Airport shuttle coupon

The Yellow Checker Shuttle is offering a coupon for $4.00 off for trips to the DFW Airport. The fare with the coupon is $13.00 instead of $17.00. Coupons should be picked up (you have to call the shuttle company ahead of time) at the Information Desk on the Lower Level next to the Registration Desk.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

More tips

By Bruce Greenspan

only pair to go plus. The two bids you can't make are 2♦ or 2NT. These require at least 11 HCP.

3. 1NT. Don't be afraid of that worthless doubleton. You're not promising your partner a rose garden, merely a balanced hand with 15-17 HCP. If you don't open 1NT, whatever you rebid after partner's response will be wrong. Say you open 1♦, and partner responds 1♠. Now what? 1NT describes a hand with 12-14 HCP. A jump to 2NT requires 18 HCP. Get it over with, and if the bridge gods don't smile on you and you end up in 3NT and the opponents run five spade tricks to start, don't worry. In the long run you'll be right most of the time.

4. Lead the ♠A. This is one of the few times its right to lead an unsupported ace. The race is on. It does no harm to lead the ace. You won't be setting up the king in declarer's hand (remember, the bid denies an outside ace or king). If partner does a handstand (always a good signal), continue the suit.

5. Lead a trump. Dummy probably has a singleton spade, and declarer is going to try to ruff spades in dummy. Don't let him do it.

1. You hold
♠A Q 8 7 6 ♥A J 6 ♦A 5 4 ♣K 6.
Your right-hand opponent opens 2♠ (weak).

What is your call?

2. You hold

♠K J 8 7 6 ♥6 ♦K 9 8 7 6 ♣6 4

Partner opens 1♥ and you respond 1♠.

Now partner rebids 2♣ (at least, that is what my partner always rebids when I hold this hand).

Now what?

3. You are dealer. What is your opening bid with the following hand?

♠8 2 ♥K 3 2 ♦A Q 6 5 3 ♣A Q 3.

4. Your right-hand opponent opens a Gambling 3NT. The bid means he holds a solid seven-card minor (A K Q J x x x) and no outside ace or king. The auction is passed out.

What do you lead, holding

♠A 6 5 ♥K Q J 6 5 ♦9 8 7 6 ♣6?

5. The opponents have the following uncontested auction:

West	East
	1♠
1NT	2♣
Pass

What do you lead holding

♠6 5 3 ♥K Q 8 7 ♦K Q 5 ♣K 6 5?

Answers

1. Pass! When you have defense, play defense. How many tricks is this hand worth on offense? It may be worth five tricks, but on defense it's a monster. The trick is to pass in tempo without drooling. If partner doubles, try not to giggle as you pass. The opponents are going for a telephone number.

2. Even experts disagree on this nightmare. Some would pass 2♣. When I had this hand, I rebid 2♠ and was fortunate enough to catch partner with the ♠Q doubleton. We were the Opening lead: ♠K.

Bidding commentary: Strong eight-card suits that lack opening bid strength are normally opened at the four level, not the three level.

Lead commentary: Routine.

Play commentary: Declarer should realize that there is a strong likelihood that West started with eight spades and that East is void. Rather than have the ♠A ruffed, declarer should play low from dummy at trick one. If a spade is continued, dummy plays low again and declarer ruffs, draws trumps and eventually uses the ♠A to discard a loser. If the ♠A is played at trick one, the contract cannot be made.

Before playing from dummy at trick one, declarer should review the bidding for strength and distributional inferences, and then use those inferences to help in the play. Typically, weak two-bids show six-card suits, three-level preempts show seven-card suits, and four-level preempts show eight-card suits. Use these numbers to help you in the play.

Why do you play bridge?

The reasons people play bridge are many. When asked, players give various answers. Most often mentioned is the challenge of the game — playing bridge is a mental exercise. Many enjoy the socialization and teamwork aspects. Others cite the prestige of doing well and the feeling of accomplishment.

The Daily Bulletin asked many players here in Dallas why they play bridge. Here are some of the answers.

Roy Wellend: “Bridge is intellectually challenging, but is a social and fun game. The best thing about bridge is that the problems are always different.”

Chris Willenken: “Bridge is the only game that has a great technical component and an important social component. In chess, you have the technical aspect, but not the social. In Trivial Pursuit, you have the social, but not the technical as much. Bridge has both”

Jo Morse: “Bridge is competitive and challenging. I love it because of the people and friends I’ve made from all around the world. It’s gotten me into places I’d never have been able to go.”

Zia: “I love bridge because it’s the only game you can never be good at. It’s irresistible, and at this age, it’s better than sex.”

Lynn Deas: “Bridge is a great equalizer. You can go to a party and a 90-year-old and a teenager can talk about bridge and relate.”

Fred Hamilton: “Bridge is so complicated. It’s too complicated to ever learn how to be good.”

Gail Greenberg: “Bridge is the greatest game ever invented. It has the partnership element that is missing in many games. Communication in bridge partnerships is very important.”

Mark Bartusek: “Bridge is the most challenging game in existence. It’s more interesting and difficult than poker or games like that. I love the exercise in logic.”

George Jacobs: “Bridge is the most thought provoking thing. It stimulates you. I love the company and camaraderie. It’s never boring and never gets old. It’s in my blood and I’m addicted.”

Nell Cahn: “Bridge is my insurance against old age. It keeps me focused. The game is like putting the pieces of the puzzle together. I love the well-greased wheels of a good partnership. By the way, I’m the answer to a trivia question. My maiden name was Bridge. Of course I play.”

Jim Krekorian: “Bridge is a game where skill is rewarded. You might be the greatest actor in the world, but if you don’t get the right break, you’ll never make it. But in bridge, if you’re good, you’ll win tournaments.”

John Kranyak: “I love the challenge. It’s not just the psychology or the math, but everything involved in the world of bridge. The people are great. Bridge is the best thing that has ever happened to me.”

Jerry Helms: “Besides the mental stimulation, I love the social interaction. Not just your partner or opponents, but the atmosphere in the arena of bridge. I’ve played a long time, but it’s still exciting. I used to play football. When I sit down to play bridge, I get the same exhilaration that I used to get when I was about to receive a kickoff. It’s a sport and it’s fun.”

Chuck Said: “I love the challenge and solving the problems. It’s a mystery, like you’re working your way through a maze. I also love the camaraderie. Every time I go to a tournament, I see old friends. The social renewal is so important.”

Gene Simpson: “I love the competition. I always liked competitive things and got addicted early in life. All my friends are in bridge and my life revolves around bridge. When I moved to the (San Francisco) bay area, bridge opened doors for me.”

Judy Solodor: “Bridge is so challenging. Besides being individually challenging, you have to deal with a partner, so there is the social and psychological aspect. Bridge is my passion.”

Eric Greco: “Bridge is a combination of things. It has the strategy of chess and the psychology of poker. It has the best of both worlds.”

Daniella van Arnim: “I like the problem solving, and I like the people. When I play, I’m into my own world.”

Mike Shuman: “I love the competitive aspect and the social aspect. In bridge you can set goals and then try to achieve them.”

Amalya Kearsse: “What I love is the competition. It is one more opportunity to challenge myself. Also, I see friends at tournaments that I don’t see other places.”

Writers can play... Part 2

By Barry Rigal

Not always, of course, but sometimes writers can play. I suppose I could dress up this story by calling declarer South, but it was actually me. This deal is from the second final session of the IMP Pairs.

Dlr: East ♠ A 8 3 2
 Vul: Both ♥ A K 9 4
 ♦ 9

♠ K ♠ Q J 9 7 6 5 4

 ♣ Q J 4 2 ♣ 10

West North East South
 Pass 3♠ Pass 2♠ Dbl
 All Pass 4♥

4♥ looks like the normal contract, but the foul splits make it extremely challenging — and the contract can be defeated by force if declared by North on the double-dummy lead of the ♦Q or ♦10 and another diamond.

As South on the ♠K lead, I won the ace and decided to opt for simplicity. If I could ruff three spades in hand I’d be close to 10 tricks. I ruffed a spade at trick two “carefully” with the ♥6 and was overruffed. Back came a heart, the best defense. I put in the 9, ruffed a spade high and West started thinking. Eventually he produced — a low trump!

Now I knew he was 1=4=4=4 and my best shot was to lead a low diamond from my hand. If East won he would not be able to continue trumps. When West forgot to put in the ♦J, East had to win. He returned the ♣10. Good news!

I won and ruffed a diamond to reach this ending:

 ♥ A K
 ♣ 9 7 6

♠ — ♠ Q J 9 7
 ♥ 10 ♥ —
 ♦ A J ♦ Q 7
 ♣ Q J 4 ♣ —

 ♥ Q
 ♦ K 8
 ♣ K 8 3

Geza Ottlik would recognize this ending — it’s a backwash squeeze.

I called for dummy’s last spade and ruffed. Let’s look at West’s options. If he pitches a diamond, declarer ruffs a diamond, draws the last trump and loses one club at the end since the ♦K is good for a discard. If he pitches a club instead, declarer clears the clubs and has the timing to take the rest.

So West underruffed again, and I led a low club out of my hand. West won and was endplayed. A club lead would give up the suit, and a diamond, whether high or low, would let me score the ♦K for my 10th trick.

A useful 8

Sylvia Moss and Judy Radin won the Whitehead Women’s Pairs Friday evening, the second time the duo has captured the title in that contest.

This deal (rotated) from the first final session helped them to victory.

West banged down the ♠A and switched to the ♥7.

Radin’s plan was to ruff as many spades in dummy as possible. She won with dummy’s ace and ruffed a heart. A spade ruff was next followed by the nice play of a club to the 8 when East played low.

West won the king and returned a club to declarer’s queen. Another spade ruff brought down the queen, so Radin then played a low diamond to the jack. West could win the king, but she could win any return, draw trumps and claim.

Plus 130 was a great score.

Second in the Whitehead Women’s Pairs were Cathy Strauch and Margie Gwozdziński.

Fall NABC schedule change

The start time for the Senior Knockout at the Fall NABC in Hawaii will be 1:30 and 8:00 p.m. Please note that this has been changed from the times printed on the Hawaii schedule being handed out at this tournament.

Notice to players

Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

TOURNAMENT APPEALS

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeals results in a timely fashion, the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. However, before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook revisions may be made.

Dbl	4♣	All Pass

(1) Not Alerted. Partnership agreement is that it is a transfer to clubs, or a good 4-4-4-1 hand.

The Facts: The director was called after the 4♣ bid. The table result was 4♣ down one, E-W plus 100. The director spoke to West away from the table and he said that if 2NT had been Alerted, he would not have doubled 3NT. Away from the table, East revealed to the director that if he had been Alerted, he would have bid 3♦ over 2NT. North told the director that if 3NT had not been doubled, he would have passed. South said that if his partner had passed 3NT doubled, he would have pulled to 4♣.

The Ruling: The director determined that the failure to Alert constituted unauthorized information and that it demonstrably suggested pulling 3NT doubled to 4♣ (i.e. that South was likely not to hold the perfect hand for making 3NT opposite North's hand). Since there was a logical alternative to pulling to 4♣, North would not be allowed to do so and South had no reason to pull to 4♣ if North had a quantitative raise to 2NT. Therefore, the table result was adjusted to 3NT doubled, down four, and N-S minus 1100 and E-W plus 1100.

The Appeal: North said that he thought he was entitled to pull 3NT doubled to 4♣ because it was very unlikely that 3NT would make opposite any normal 1NT opener, especially when his top-flight opponents had doubled to tell him that 3NT would not make. South said that he would have pulled to 4♣, had North not done, so because he was practically wide open in two suits.

The Decision: There were two infractions for the committee to consider: (1) The misinformation from the failure to Alert 2NT and (2) the unauthorized information to North that allowed North to remove 3NT doubled. Before considering the first question, a sample was taken of ten of North's peers who were still in the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams. Nine of them passed 3NT doubled, saying that their source of tricks in clubs was what partner might be expecting. The committee believed that without the unauthorized information, it was a logical alternative for North to pass. That being said, South would be deprived of his chance to be brilliant by removing 3NT doubled to 4♣ had North passed. Even if he believed he might have done so, the action on the deal stopped at the infraction of the removal to 4♣ by North. From that point on, the requirements of Law 12C2 (a heart lead against 3NT doubled) would produce plus 1100 for E-W. (The committee determined that had the removal from 3NT been accepted, West's statement that if he had been properly Alerted he would not have doubled 3NT would have been considered.)

The committee awarded an Appeal Without Merit Warning to each member of the N-S pair.

The director's ruling:

Was well-stated.

Was clearly supported by law.

Clearly stated why Law 16 was applied in this case.

Explained why a logical alternative existed for the North player.

Explained why it would be improper to presume that South (who didn't know that North had clubs) would have pulled to 4♣.

The Committee: Barry Rigal, chair; Jeff Akers, Michael Huston, Bob Schwartz and Ellen Wallace.

Players consulted: Ten unnamed players still in the Vanderbilt KO Teams, who are of equivalent ability to the players involved.

(1) Announced as 12 to 14.

(2) Opening hand or better.

The Facts: 1NT was Announced as 12 to 14

HCP. North took considerable time to sort her hand (about 20 seconds) before looking up and seeing that there were three bidding cards already on the table. Thereupon she volunteered that the first double showed an opening hand or better (suit bids show less than an opening hand). Then she asked whether the 2♠ bid was natural. Then she took about 10 more seconds before she passed. South's second double was for takeout. 2♠ failed by three tricks, and a score of plus 500 for N-S. North and South each have between 2000 and 4000 masterpoints.

The Ruling: North's question about the naturalness of the non-Alerted 2♠ bid showed that she had enough values to consider bidding. The questions and the tempo constituted UI. The UI demonstrably suggested South's second double over a less successful logical alternative of pass. In accordance with laws 16 and 12C2, the director adjusted the table result to 2♠ down three, undoubled, and a score of N-S plus 150.

The Appeal: N-S candidly admitted the facts and acknowledged that Law 16 was applicable to this case. They believed, though, that there was no logical alternative to the second double. West contended that the South hand had not grown very substantially: the ♠Q was less likely to be well positioned, there were no good "spot cards" in the South hand, and South's hearts (the suit North is most likely to stretch to bid) are shorter than his other offered suits. Also, the heart suit has no honors.

The Decision: The committee found that there were both a hesitation and a question prior to North's pass, and that they suggested that North might have some interest in entering the auction. North even testified that she considered bidding 3♥. The hesitation and the question both suggest that South should keep the auction alive.

The committee spent little time determining that pass (rather than a double at his second turn) is a logical alternative for South. If West had held North's ♥A instead of the ♥3, the auction might have been identical back to South's second action. Then the double might cost N-S 14 or more IMPs. A simple consideration of the dangers of doubling a second time should indicate that pass is a logical alternative. The committee found that a substantial number of South's peers would pass at South's second opportunity. Accordingly, the committee upheld the director's decision to adjust the table result to 2♠ down three, undoubled, for scores of N-S plus 150 and E-W minus 150.

Before the hearing, the director, in screening, had fully explained to the N-S pair how Law 16, Unauthorized Information, is applied. The committee decided that after having the director explain the relevant law to them and having the director's rationale for their ruling explained to them, a pair of N-S's experience should have known not to bring this case to a committee. Therefore, the committee awarded an Appeal Without Merit Warning to each member of the N-S pair.

The Committee: Michael Huston, chair; Ed Lazarus and Tom Peters.

Spotting the solution

On this deal from the Tuesday-Wednesday Knockouts, Walter Fontaine of North Providence RI brought home a difficult-looking 3NT and discovered something interesting about the defenders' spot cards.

Partner Jim Gordon took a rosy view of the North cards on this layout and propelled the partnership to game.

	♠ J 10 5 2
	♥ J 8 4 3
	♣ 10 6 5 4 2
♠ 7 6 4		♠ A 8 3

West	North	East	South
	Gordon		Fontaine
Pass	3♣	Pass	3NT
All Pass

Fontaine decided to downgrade his 22-count due to the sterile shape. He opened 2NT which is ordinarily 20 to 21 in their methods.

3♣ was puppet Stayman, asking for a four- or five-card major, and 3NT denied either.

West led a fourth-best diamond. A club was pitched from dummy and East played the 10. Declarer won the queen and played the ♥K, noting with interest the fall of the ♥10 on his right. He then played the ♠K Q, ducked, followed by the ♥Q to East's ace.

His RHO played the ♦2, covered by the 3 and 9. (Another club was pitched from dummy.)

RHO paused to count. Since declarer had a maximum of 21 HCP, and he could see 7 more HCP between his hand and the dummy, that meant his partner had at least 12 HCP, perhaps 13. It seemed clear from the play that his partner had started with both major-suit aces, but nothing in diamonds. Therefore, West believed declarer's hand to be something like ♠K Q x ♥K Q x ♦A Q x x ♣A x x.

This would be consistent with the bidding and the play. This would mean, therefore, that his partner began with K-Q-x in clubs. So West switched to the ♣J, hoping to establish partner's ♣K Q while East still had the ♠A as an entry.

East played low on the club shift, and West was shocked to see declarer produce the queen, a card he "couldn't" hold.

Fontaine next knocked out the ♠A, and claimed nine.

Can the defense do better? Yes, but you have to go back to trick one! Leading a fourth-best diamond from K-J-9-x without another entry in the West hand is somewhat dangerous — the suit could easily block, as it did here. Perhaps leading the 9 or jack would be better in this case.

But even after the ♦4 lead, the defense can still succeed if East plays the correct spot at trick one: the 8. This is double-dummy, of course, but to see why this works, consider the other options. Playing the 10 doesn't cut it, as we have seen, because the suit will then be blocked. Even if the defenders had continued playing diamonds in the example above, the most they could have taken would have been two diamond tricks and the two major-suit aces.

Playing the 6, 5 or 2 is silly, of course, since it allows declarer to win with a low card.

So that leaves the ♦8. If declarer wins the queen and tries the ♥K, East pounces on this at trick two and fires back a low diamond. The all-important 10 remains in his hand as an entry, where it can be used to overtake West's 9 when the time is right.

This defense allows East-West to take three diamonds and two aces to defeat 3NT.

Stratified Open

Pairs action

Eric Leong and Mark Itabashi had a couple of interesting deals en route to winning Friday's Stratified Open Pairs.

On this deal, a good auction allowed them to reach an excellent diamond slam:

Dlr: South	♠ A J 7
Vul: N-S	♥ A K J 4

			Pass
2♠	Dbl	Pass	3♠

Pass	6♦	All Pass

Since South was a passed hand, he was able to bid aggressively with the singleton spade without worrying about partner getting carried away. North was more than happy to bid the slam, however, after South's second cuebid.

Plus 1390 was worth 11 out of 12 matchpoints.

This next deal (rotated) featured the opportunity for some good card reading:

Dlr: South	♠ Q J 10 5
Vul: N-S	♥ 7
	♦ J 9 8 3
	♣ K 7 4 2
♠ K		♠ 9 3 2

	Leong		Itabashi
			1♠
Dbl	Rdbl	3♥	Pass

Pass	4♠	All Pass

North's redouble was an attempt to buy the contact later in 4♠ undoubled.

The opening lead was the ♥A, followed by a club to the ace and a low diamond return.

Since East-West were leading king from ace-king, declarer placed West with the ♥A Q or ♥A J, the ♦K and the ♣J. To have sufficient values for a takeout double, therefore, declarer placed the ♠K with West, too.

After winning the ♦A, the ♠A brought down the singleton king for plus 620 and all 12 matchpoints.

Announcing your 1NT range remains a requirement in ACBL-sanctioned tournament play. Failure to Announce your 1NT range, while rarely penalized, remains a procedural infraction. Please make life easy for your opponents and your tournament directors by Announcing the high-card point range of your 1NT opening bids.

Pre-Alert/Disclosure forms

If your partnership plays special overcalls, you must fill out a pre-Alert/Disclosure form and make it available to your opponents when you play in events that allow Mid-Chart and Super-Chart conventions.

This applies to NABC+, regional or higher knockout and Flight A Swiss games. Look for the light blue forms on the table where convention cards are available

New Life Masters

Husband and wife Susan and Dale Hankins, Bakersfield CA, needed .02 gold points to become Life Masters. They won this in the Friday Morning Side Series. The couple, who have been married 46 years, met playing bridge at the Roth-Stone Bridge School in Washington, DC.

Alfredo and Deborah Ringel, Guadalajara, Mexico, won 5.90 masterpoints playing together in the Saturday Fast Pairs by placing first in Flight B. This gave them enough masterpoints to become Life Masters.

Dorothy Ivy, Dallas TX, began the week needing 3.9 gold to become a Life Master and has won that. She played in various KO Teams and won gold with Barbara Groussman, Taiki Caperton and Pat Reynolds, all from Dallas.

Two more players have achieved Life Masters ranking here in Dallas. Bill Carson, Little Switzerland NC and B. Susan Crutchfield, Burnsville NC, have earned their gold card.

The Art of Asking Questions

Law 20F: "During the auction and before the final pass, any player, at his own turn to call, may request a full explanation of the opponents' auction (questions may be asked about calls actually made or about relevant calls available but not made); replies should normally be given by the partner of a player who made a call in question."

After the final pass and throughout the play period, either defender at his own turn to play may request an explanation of opposing auction. At his or dummy's turn to play, the declarer may request an explanation of a defender's call or card play convention."

Law 16A: "After a player makes available to his partner extraneous information that may suggest a call or play, as by means of a remark, a question, a reply to a question, ...the partner may not choose from among logical alternative actions one that could demonstrably have been suggested over another by the extraneous information."

So we can ask questions, but if we are not careful about how we go about it, we may create information that partner cannot use. This fact of bridge life gives rise to some guidelines for how to properly ask questions.

It is a good practice to not ask a question about an opponent's bid unless you are considering taking some action at your turn to bid. If you have nothing to say, any questions you may have can wait until the end of the auction. If you are the opening leader, before you place your card face down on the table, you may ask an explanation of the entire auction. If you are the opening leader's partner, you have the same right once the lead is faced until you make your first play. If you are declarer, you have that right until you make your first play. After you have made your first play, you are still entitled to an explanation of the opponent's calls at your turn to play although it is too late to get a full review of the bidding.

Often, it is not necessary to ask any questions. ACBL regulations require that each member of the partnership have an identically filled-out convention card, so in many cases, it may be possible to simply look at your opponent's card to find the answer to the question you were about to ask. If the card does not fully elucidate you, you still have the right to ask questions. As an aside, directors tend to look with a jaundiced eye upon players who ask questions with the intent to prejudice the position of their opponents with regard to unauthorized information.

It is a good practice to try not to draw attention to a particular call made by the opponents during the auction if it can be avoided. For example, say that the auction has proceeded:

1♦ – Pass – 1♠ – Pass;

1NT – Pass – 2♣ – Pass;

2♠ – Pass – 3♠ – Pass;

4♠ – All Pass

2♣ was Alerted during the auction. If you just ask the meaning of 2♣, you may inadvertently give your partner information about your hand. A better course of action is simply to ask for an explanation of the entire auction before you lead or before you play to the first trick ("Please explain the auction." is a good question).

If you have reason to suspect that you have received misinformation during the auction, you need to clarify the situation as soon as you become aware of the problem. For example, if your opponent responds with 2♦ to partner's 1NT opening and there is no Announcement that the call is a transfer, but a glance at the convention card reveals that the pair is using transfers, you need to ask if you were contemplating a lead-directing double of 2♦. If you wait until the auction and/or play is concluded and then claim that you would have doubled with the correct information, you are probably not entitled to any protection. This type of situation used to be referred to as a "double shot" in that the non-offending side tried to get a good score if the opponents had a bidding misunderstanding and if that did not work out, they then claimed that they had been damaged by misinformation. The latter avenue is now closed to you.

missteps. Chang won by 16 IMPs.

Although the NABCs have been extremely diverse tournaments for years, with players from around the world attending, this is the first major NABC event won by a team including a Chinese pair.

Zhao, who lived in the Netherlands for several years before returning to his native China, said after the match, "I couldn't believe our luck!"

Luck may have played a role, but the squad relied more on their talent throughout the event to defeat powerful squads led by Michael Kamil, Richard Schwartz, Grant Baze, and Bob Hollman.

Second in the Vanderbilt Knockouts were Adam Zmudzinski, Lew Stansby, Chip Martel, Bjorn Fallenius, captain Roy Welland and Cezary Balicki.

Vanderbilt moments

By Mark Horton

The semifinals of the Vanderbilt produced two exciting matches, both of which went down to the wire. In the second semifinal, Shugart trailed Welland by 12 IMPs at the quarter, but raced into a 33-IMP lead at the half, helped by these two deals:

West led the ♠2 and declarer had no way to arrive at more than eight tricks.

Or did he?

In the other semifinal, faced with the same lead declarer won, unblocked the diamonds, came to hand with a heart and cashed the ♦Q – on which West played a heart! He noticed his mistake before the revoke was established, but now the heart was a penalty card.

Declarer exited with a spade and West won, but now had to play the penalty card. Declarer won and knocked out the ♣A, emerging with 11 tricks.

That was an expensive clerical error!

Open Room

West	North	East	South

Notice that here that rather than issue an invitation North jumped straight to game. When West led a heart, declarer was in no trouble. Plus 400 and another 10 IMPs.

What do you make of West's choice of opening lead?

One can understand his reluctance to surrender a spade trick, but unless his side could take four tricks in that suit along with a contribution from partner how could he possibly hope to defeat the contract?

A skillful declarer

By Krzysztof Passem

Cezary's Balicki strongest side is undoubtedly, declarer play. These are two examples of his skills from the Vanderbilt semifinal match against the Shugart team.

The opening lead: ♣K.

Balicki ducked a club. Next came the ♥K. Ducked again! Next, West played the ♣Q. Balicki took this with the ace, ruffed a club with the ♠2 and played the ♠9 with the intention of running it. The 1NT bid betrayed West's spade holding. The 9 was covered with the queen and the king.

Now Balicki made a crucial play: a diamond to the ace! In this way he assured the contract whatever the distribution (assuming West started with three clubs). The next trick was the ♠8, ducked all round, as East showed out. Balicki drew trumps, cashed the ♥A(!) and played the ♦Q. West took the king but had to concede the last trick to the ♦J.

At the other table the contract went two down.

3♦ showed a balanced limit raise in hearts.

The opening lead was the ♠2 (third and fifth leads). Balicki played low, West took the trick with the ace and exited with another spade.

The "obvious" way to play is: cash two hearts ending in dummy and if the queen does not drop try the club to the 10. Balicki had other views: He played the ♥A and a heart to the jack. His reasoning was:

If the jack holds, I am at home.

If it does not hold, there is another entry to dummy with the ♥7. I badly need the entry because East is marked with the ♣A. Why? West did not overcall even though he held five spades to the queen in favorable vulnerability.

If West wins the trick with queen, he may find himself in an awkward situation. Not knowing the whole distribution he may err by opening clubs (clubs in dummy look more attractive to attack than diamonds).

As it happened, the jack took the trick and now Balicki could play for safety by drawing the last trump and placing the ♣K on the table. The safety play benefited in the overtrick as this was the whole distribution:

	♠ K 7
	♥ A 7 6
	♦ Q 10 6 2
	♣ Q 8 6 3
♠ Q 10 6 5 3		♠ A 9 8 2
♥ 4		♥ Q 10 3
♦ J 9 7 4 3		♦ K 8 5
♣ J 2		♣ A 9 5
	♠ J 4
	♥ K J 9 8 5 2
	♦ A
	♣ K 10 7 4

On the other table declarer went two down after the diamond lead and misguessing the hearts and clubs.

Looking back: Dallas, 1997

Dallas last hosted the North American Bridge Championships in the spring of 1997. Some of the interesting deals from that tournament were presented earlier in the week. Here is one more.

Criss-cross squeeze quiz

The hand from one of the Open Pairs presented the opportunity for squeeze devotees to practice their technique.

Dir: South     ♠ Q 7 2
 Vul: None     ♥ J
                   ♦ A K Q 6 5 4
                   ♣ A K 5

♠ K J 6 3                     ♠ 9 8 5 4
 ♥ K 8 7                       ♥ 10 9 4 3
 ♦ 9 7                         ♦ 10 8 3
 ♣ Q 6 4 2                    ♣ 10 9

♠ A 10
 ♥ A Q 6 5 2
 ♦ J 2
 ♣ J 8 7 3

West	North	East	South
			1♥
Pass	2♦	Pass	2♥
Pass	3♦	Pass	3NT
Pass	6NT	All Pass

You get the ♦9 lead, suggesting that West has a doubleton diamond and perhaps most of the high cards (since he's making a 'safe' lead). You decide to win the jack and a second diamond, extracting West's exit card. Now you run the ♥J and West wins. At this point West has to return a heart to avoid immediate defeat.

You cash the top hearts, throwing one spade and one club. Then you cross to the ♣K to run the diamonds. This leaves this ending:

Dir: South     ♠ Q 7
 Vul: None     ♥ —
                   ♣ K

♠ K J                         ♠ 9 8
 ♥ —                         ♥ 10
 ♦ —                         ♦ —
 ♣ Q 6                        ♣ 10

♠ A
 ♥ 2
 ♣ J 8

On the last diamond, you discard a heart and West must concede, since you will set up whichever suit he discards from.

Of course West should try to make life more difficult by discarding deceptively. His best move is to come down to ♠K J 7 and bare the ♣Q early, then pitch the ♠J at the end. That way, he has a chance to persuade you to go wrong — but declarer may well see enough clubs appearing to guess right.

ZT — are we doing better?

The ACBL Board of Directors — citing a commitment to “improving acceptable player behavior at all times” — adopted Zero Tolerance as ACBL policy in 1998.

Unacceptable behavior has decreased — the goal, however, is to eliminate unacceptable behavior as much as possible.

Please report conduct that is unacceptable while keeping in mind that we must be tolerant of other people in general — and bridge players in particular. Also report conduct that is outstanding or refreshing.

Commendable behavior includes (but is not limited to):

- Being a good “host” or “guest” at the table.
- Greeting others in a friendly manner.
- Praising the bidding and/or play of the opponents.
- Having two clearly completed convention cards readily available to the opponents. This is also a regulation.

Unacceptable behavior includes (but is not limited to):

- Badgering, rudeness, insinuations, intimidation, profanity, threats or violence.
- Negative comments concerning opponents’ or partner’s play or bidding.
- Gloating over good results.
- Constant and gratuitous lessons and analyses at the table.
- Loud and disruptive arguing with a director’s ruling.

If you experience someone exhibiting discourteous behavior or being other than civil, please call a tournament director immediately. If you feel that there was a very serious breach of discipline, in addition to the resolution by the tournament director at the table, please discuss the problem directly with the Director-in-Charge of the tournament.

Should it become necessary to call a tournament director, you may simply state: “This player is interfering with my enjoyment of the game.”

The director will then attempt to determine the facts. If he establishes there was unacceptable behavior, an immediate 1/4-board disciplinary penalty (3 IMPs in team games) shall be assigned to all offenders.

This may involve any one or all four players at the table, regardless of who initiated the unacceptable behavior. If both members of a partnership are guilty, the penalties are cumulative (1/4 board each = 1/2 board or 3 IMPs each = 6 IMPs).

If it is determined that a second offense has occurred in the same event, the offender(s) shall be ejected from future competition in that event.

An offender removed from an event shall be deemed not to have played in the event, no masterpoints will be awarded and no refunds will be made.

In the case of a serious offense and in the case of multiple offenses (three) during a tournament, a disciplinary committee may determine whether the offender(s) should be allowed to play in other events at the tournament and/or whether additional sanctions may be appropriate.

While the director may issue a warning, directors are strongly encouraged to give penalties and a warning should be given only when there is no clear violation, where the facts cannot be clearly determined or there are mitigating circumstances. Offenders should receive an immediate penalty. Regardless of who may have initiated unacceptable behavior, all offenses are punishable. Retaliatory behavior is a punishable offense. Frivolous accusations will also be considered as offenses under this policy.
