No kidding: this 9 year-old can play

Participants in the qualifying sessions of the Life Master Open Pairs may have noticed an unusually young competitor playing in the event. (The give-away: while seated at the table, his feet don't quite reach the floor.) Who is this young man playing in a nationally rated event?

Meet Shivam Shah, a nine-year-old from London, England. Shivam was playing in the LM Open with his father, Nalin, an actuary.

So what did Shivam think of his first top-level event? "Oh, my first NABC event was actually the IMP Pairs in Toronto."

"Exactly how long have you been playing?" asked an opponent, somewhat taken aback.

"Four years," replied the fifth grader, who attends St. Mary's School in London.

"You were five when you started playing?" asked the opponent, now definitely taken aback.

Shivam nonchalantly confirmed his opponent's subtraction as he sorted his hand and placed a Pass card on the table.

Nalin Shah later explained that he had taught his son the game at a very early age, and that in fact, Shivam currently holds the Guinness world record for youngest competitor ever in a competitive bridge event, at 5 years, 303 days.

"Shivam showed a fascination with cards at an early age. At the age of 2½ he could line up the cards in a sequence starting from the ♣2 to the ♣A, the ♦2, etc., up to the ♠A. He and I began playing regularly at the Oshwal Bridge Club in Herts, England," said Nalin.

The youngster has attracted the attention of the press on both sides of the Atlantic, with articles featuring his story in English bridge magazines as well as mainstream outlets such as The Observer and in Alan Truscott's New York Times bridge column.

Although the father-son duo didn't make the cut for the final sessions of the LM Open, Nalin Shah is clearly delighted with his son's progress in the game.

"I'm certain that in a few years he'll be a better player than me," conceded the elder Shah.

World champs lead Open BAM

The recently crowned Bermuda Bowl champions led by Rose Meltzer led the field of qualifiers in the Open Board-a-Match teams after the first day of the two-day contest.

Meltzer, playing with Kyle Larsen, Chip Martel, Lew Stansby, Peter Weichsel and Alan Sontag, scored 38.50 to finish one board ahead of the international squad of Jack Coleman, Bob Crossley, Andrew Gromov, Alex Petrunin, Adam Zmudzinsky and Cezary Balicki.

Of the 140 teams that entered the contest, 86 made the cut to today's two-session final.

Deas squad leads Women's BAM qualifiers

The team of Lynn Deas, Beth Palmer, Randi Montin, Jill Meyers, Irina Levitina and Kerri Sanborn topped the field of 40 squads at the end of the qualifying sessions in the Women's Board-a-Match. Eighteen teams survived to play in today's two-session final.

The Deas team posted a score of 39.50, finishing four boards ahead of the squad of Petra Hamman, Joan Jackson, Mildred Breed, Shawn Quinn, Judi Radin and Sylvia Moss.

The cutoff score for the qualifiers was 27.50.

16 Teams advance in Senior KOs

In first-round action in the Senior Knockout Teams, the defending champions captained by Dick Budd (Richard De Martino, William Esberg, William Hunter, Shome Mukherjee and Bob Ryder) easily won their match 187–41.

But there were plenty of upsets on the opening day of the event. The #3 seed captained by Trudi Nugit (David Adams, Anne Simon and Michael Shuman) was shown the door by the squad of Gary Yant, Joyce Gehlhaar, Dixie Hsu, and Patricia Elms.

Other upsets included the #6 seed (Ernst), #11 (Reisig), #12 (Koley), #13 (Turner), #14 (Noble) and #16 (Bleiman).

World gold makes Kivel a Grand LM

Joe Kivel of Newport Coast CA wasn't thinking about his ACBL rank when he went to Paris to compete in the World Senior Knockout Teams championship. His goal was a world gold medal, and he and his teammates did it – they won the world championship.

Later he learned that he had won 450 World Bridge Federation masterpoints, and later still he discovered that WBF points can be translated to ACBL points on a four-for-one basis. Kivel was only seven points short of ACBL Grand Life Master, so the points he won in Paris, which translated to 112.5 ACBL points, were more than enough to make him a Grand Life Master.

We believe Kivel is the first player ever to become an ACBL Grand Life Master by winning a world championship.

Today is ABA/ACBL Day

The American Bridge Association and the American Contract Bridge League will co-host the two-session Stratified Open Pairs today at 1 and 8 p.m. Players may choose to earn either ABA or ACBL masterpoints.

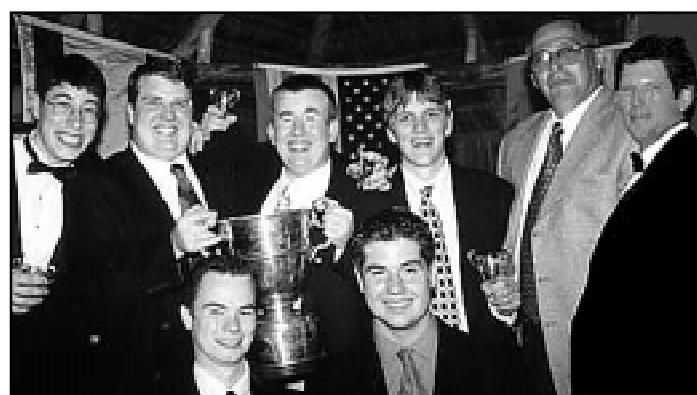

The ABA is the national organization founded in 1932 to encourage duplicate bridge among African-American players. In the early days of contract bridge, African-Americans were excluded from most major tournaments. The civil rights reforms of the Sixties induced the ACBL to change its bylaws to include persons of all races in 1967.

The ABA and the ACBL have co-hosted events at many of the recent NABCs. The two organizations are currently working together to make bridge an Olympic sport through the creation of the United States Bridge Federation.

Attendance running high

Total attendance through the first three days of the 2001 Las Vegas is 5819 tables, just under 2000 tables a day. That total does not include last night's midnight games. The 2001 Las Vegas NABC is on track to be the largest Fall NABC ever.

American's Juniors find gold in Brazil

The World Junior champions: (front) Kent Mignocchi and Brad Campbell; (back row) Joel Wooldridge, John Hurd, Joe Grue, John Kranyak, npc Bob Rosen and coach Dennis McGarry.

The United States Junior team brought home the gold medal in the 8th World Youth Bridge Championship held in Rio de Janeiro August 6–15. The squad of Kent Mignocchi, Joe Grue, Brad Campbell, Joel Wooldridge, John Hurd and John Kranyak defeated Israel in the final 262–156.

The event, sponsored by the World Bridge Federation, attracted 17 teams of players (all of whom were 25 years of age or younger) from across the globe.

The non-playing captain for the U.S. team was Bob Rosen. Dennis McGarry was the coach.

The hero and the goat

By Barry Rigal

When we played against Paul Soloway in the Life Master Open Pairs finals, the opportunity might have presented itself for a chance to be a super-hero – or a goat. We did not present Steve Catlett with the opportunity, but it would have been a tough call for him.

Board 9 ♠ 9 7 6

Dbl	Pass	5♣	6♦

I chose honesty rather than subtlety with the East cards when I cuebid in diamonds and decided to gamble that there would be no heart ruff when I bid 5♦. But I couldn't bring myself to bid 6♦. But look what happens to 6♦ on the lead of the ♥K! Would South overtake or would he play his partner for a doubleton? And would North lead low from king-small at trick one? We'll never know.

Just after I had finished writing up this hand, I met Irina Levitina. She wanted to tell me what happened at her table on this hand when she and Gail Greenberg were playing against Larry Cohen and David Berkowitz. This was the bidding:

West	North	East	South
Levitina	Cohen	Greenberg	Berkowitz
1♦ (1)	1♦ (1)	Dbl	1♥
2♦ (2)	2♦ (2)	4♦	5♦
5♦	6♦	Pass	Pass
6♦	Pass	Pass	Dbl

All Pass

(1) Precision

(2) Diamonds with fewer than three hearts

David doubled 6♦ to persuade his partner to lead a heart, and Larry led the ♥K. He had already denied holding as many as three hearts. David decided to play Larry for a singleton, so he overtook and gave his partner a ruff to defeat the contract. As he did so, he remarked that Larry was such a great player that he might have led low if he held king-small. Larry retorted, "Don't ever play me to be such an expert again!"

So much for my statement that "we'll never know!"

To non-ACBL members

Notice to members of bridge organizations outside North America:

Players from organizations other than ACBL (or those with significant bridge experience) must check with the director in charge of the event in which they wish to play to ensure that they are entered in the appropriate events, especially if those events are masterpoint-restricted.

Six club losers in a club slam

Dave Treadwell came by to tell us about a little disaster suffered by him and his partner Bobby Gookin. They got to 6♦ on this hand and suffered a six-trick set, losing a spade and six clubs.

Board 27	♠ A K 9 3 2
Dlr: South	♥ –

	♣ 9 7 4
	♠ Q 7 6
	♥ J 9 4 3
	♦ A 9 6
	♣ K Q J

Treadwell, sitting West, wound up as declarer. He sat there helpless as the defense cashed a high spade and then embarked on a crossruff of diamonds and hearts. The defense made six of their small trumps, so Treadwell suffered a 1400-point set – yes, he had been doubled.

But they won the round. They actually scored a half a point for minus 1400, then collected 12 for beating 4♦ doubled 500 on the next board.

Turn 'em off!

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.

The above is the resolution passed by the ACBL Board of Directors, meeting before the start of the 2000 Summer NABC in Anaheim. While the resolution applies only to NABCs, the Board urged that "sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are strongly encouraged to adopt this policy."

Return of the Monster

In yesterday's issue, a deal from the Sunday evening pairs games was featured that contained a hand with 30 high-card points. This was the layout:

♠ A 8	♦ K 10 7 6 3
♥ A K Q	♥ J 10
♦ A K J	♦ 10 4
♣ A K Q 6 5	♣ J 10 9 2
♠ —	♠ Q J 9 5 4 2
♥ 9 8 6 5 2	♥ 7 4 3
♦ Q 8 7 6 3 2	♦ 9 5
♣ 7 4	♣ 8 3

The top spot for North-South is 6♦, but even if they arrive in the right contract, a trump coup is the only chance to bring home the slam due to the 5–0 trump break. The East player can foil this plan by playing the spade spots accurately when declarer attacks trumps, but double-dummy, declarer can succeed by winning the opening lead in dummy and playing the ♠A at trick two.

This would be an almost impossible play to find, but a double by East might tip off declarer.

In the regional pairs game on Sunday, Ming Louie (of Fairfax VA), playing with her husband Herman, was East when she and her spouse encountered this deal. The North-South pair at their table arrived in 6NT, but finished down one after the auction 2♦–2♦(waiting); 4NT (big hand)–6♦(to play); 6NT (matchpoints addict). After the hand was over, the South player began berating North for not allowing South to declare the spade slam. After several minutes of this, Ming had finally had enough and told the South player, "Sir, I had five spades to the king-ten. You were getting doubled in 6♦."

Away from the table some time later, Herman whispered to his spouse, "Dear, 6♦ doubled is cold." Although Ming respects her husband's technical skill, she thought she had him on this one. "Prove it," she demanded, whereupon Herman correctly pointed out the play of a low spade from dummy at trick two, which is necessary to provide a critical entry to dummy later in the play to pull off the trump coup.

This proves once again that playing bridge with your spouse can be an infuriating experience.

Sometimes 3rd hand should play high

By Barry Rigel

We've already seen that sometimes third hand should not play high. Conversely, on occasion the old rules work best.

When East led a low club, the "expert" play as West is to put in the 9, preventing declarer from getting a cheap discard on the clubs if he has A-x or A-Q. But look at dummy again. What "slow" loser might declarer discard? Surely heart losers can be ruffed, and declarer seems to have four diamonds on the auction.

West did not see it this way and put in the ♣9 at trick one. Jill Levin happily took her 10 and guessed to lead a diamond to the king (East appeared to have ♦A-x on the auction). Then she led a spade to the 9, losing to the king. After East exited with a club to the king and ace, Jill crossed to the ♥A, led a spade to the jack, played the ♥A and ruffed a heart. Next came the ♦10, covered by the jack, queen and ace. That left this ending:

♦ A 5
♦ 8 5

♦ Q 10
♥ 10
♣ 9

♦ 6
♦ 9 4
♣ J

East led a club, forcing declarer to ruff, and Jill simply exited with a diamond that was ruffed by West. In my favorite two-card ending, West was without resource. He could play a trump, leaving Jill with a high diamond, or he could get out with a heart, letting Jill crossruff the last two tricks. Plus 170 was worth 51 of 64 matchpoints.

Kivel

When he called his 91-year-old mother to tell her the news, her reply was, "Have you lost any weight?"

Kivel's North American championship victory took place in the Life Master Pairs in 1995, when he was partnered by Alan Siebert.

Kivel retired a few months ago after 24 years as a stock broker – a strange occupation for a man who has a Ph.D. in nuclear chemistry. At the moment he is trying to handle the transition from working to retirement. "I'd like to do some traveling if I can get my wife Marilyn to fly."

Marilyn is one of his favorite partners. However, he plays most of his bridge with Chris Larsen, who was his partner when they won their world championship. He also enjoys games with Jon Witter and Evan Bailey.

ABA/ACBL Pairs event

The American Bridge Association and the ACBL will co-host the two-session Stratified Open Pairs tomorrow. Players will have the option of choosing ACBL or ABA masterpoints.

Opening the bidding with six diamonds

Opening lead: ♣6

Everyone at the table laughed when Nader Hanna, South, opened with 6♦. However, Hanna realized that it is often worth a trick when the strong hand isn't exposed as dummy. The defense is much more difficult. If he had opened 2♣, chances are his partner's response would have been 2♦, and now the strong hand would go on the table.

West, Jerry Clerkin, decided to make an attacking lead, which often is best against a small slam. Hanna captured the jack with his queen and rattled off six rounds of diamonds. West held on to his remaining clubs and East saved his hearts. Both East and West discarded spades.

At this point Hanna played the ♣A and another club, putting West on lead with the king. Clerkin had no good play at this point. Realizing from his partner's discards that South was void in spades, he exited with a small heart. With the heart suit breaking 3-3, the slam came home. If he had led a spade, Hanna could win, pitching a club, and then take a successful heart finesse for all 13 tricks.

West's opening lead didn't work well, but actually he was endplayed at trick one. A spade lead allows South to pitch a club and take the heart finesse. A diamond lead allows declarer to get to dummy with a trump to take the same action. With a heart lead, declarer has to read the end position correctly. If either East or West discards a club on the run of the diamonds, South has no problem.

Coming in February

It's not too early to make your plans for February, the annual Junior Month where for just $1 extra, players are eligible to win masterpoints at sectional rating.

Clubs may run as many Junior Fund game as they have sanctioned sessions. Last year's games raised $26,377 with the money going for Junior programs in the United States and Canada.

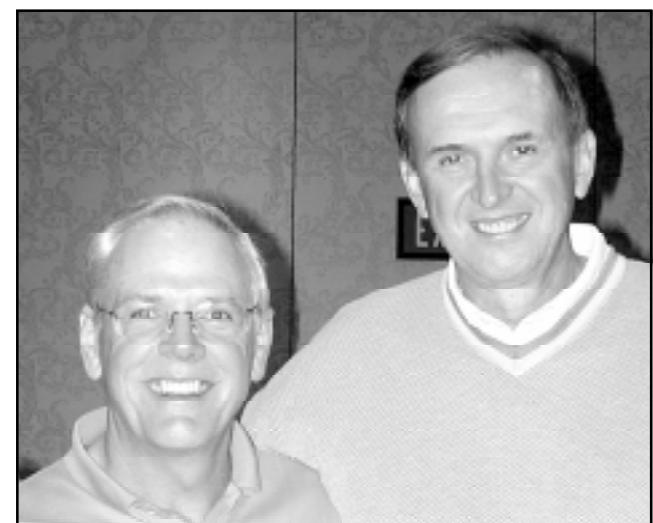

District 7 (North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and East Tennessee) has led the ACBL for the last four years in funds collected during Junior Month.

A reminder: In addition to the February games, up to four Junior Fund games may be held at your club during each of the other months. For more information, contact Charlotte Blaiss at the address listed above.

Another real deal

Junior players will have a chance to share in a $10,000 scholarship — that's the prize for the winners of a special event for Juniors at the Gallery Furniture Houston 2002 Spring NABC.

The event, sponsored by Gallery Furniture, will be limited to Junior players (aged 25 and younger). The two-session regionally rated game is scheduled for Junior Day, March 9.

Second in the Non-Life Masters: Warren Williams and Bill Filip.

A Life Master play by a non-Life Master

Max Minzner and Aaron Craig came from far behind to win the Non-Life Master Pairs title Monday. The deal they remembered best was the following:

East helped declarer a bit when he led a club, won with dummy's jack. Minzner couldn't see any way to get to his hand to take a spade finesse, so he banged down the ace — and look what fell! Now he crossed to his hand with a spade and drove out the ♣A. East switched to a diamond, but Minzner went right up with the ace. After cashing his high club and two spades, Minzner left this position:

When Minzner led another spade winner, what was West to do? He couldn't throw a heart — dummy's hearts would be good. He couldn't throw the ♦K and he couldn't ditch the ♦10. Minzner took 12 tricks as a result of the triple squeeze, which got him all 11 matchpoints on the board.

Section Top prizes

Section top winners should pick up their travel mug at the prize desk located next to the ACBL Information Desk near the entrance to the convention area of the Hilton. Take your mug to the concession stand to fill it up for a special price of $1.75.

There's another star in the Cohen family

"On a good day I'm only the third-best bridge player in my family." That's the word from Jordan Cohen of Thornhill ON, whose team, representing Canada, has reached the semifinals of the third annual OKbridge Internet World Bridge Championship. Canada will oppose the United States and defending champion Romania will oppose France in the semifinals.

Third best in a family? That doesn't sound like much – unless your family is the Beckers or the Seamons . . . or the Cohens. Jordan's dad is Ralph, many-time North American champion who has placed high representing Canada at the world level. (See a hand defended by Ralph nearby.) He also is a former CEO of the American Contract Bridge League. Billy, Jordan's younger brother, has been a powerhouse on the North American scene for many years. Other bridge-playing Cohens, include Joan, Ralph's wife; Fran, Jordan's wife, and Mitchell, Jordan's youngest brother. All are Life Masters except Mitchell, a fine card player who seldom plays the game.

Jordan has always loved bridge, but "at the 'family' stage of my life, OKbridge has allowed me to sate my passion for the game. I play primarily with Steve Cooper on OKbridge. I also play my dad ("Billyspa" on OKbridge). Being able to play regularly with my dad when we live 1000 miles apart is a plus. Dad's 'comments' on my play must of necessity be muted."

Jordan feels he's been playing bridge all his life. "I attended my first tournament when I was 8, and I caddied in my first tournament and played in my first duplicate (with my mother) when I was 12. Even though bridge was a constant in our household in Montreal, my dad never encouraged any of us to play. So I just picked it up and played with a small group of friends when I was in Grades 6 and 7. When I expressed interest, Dad gave me Sheinwold's 5 Weeks and Watson's Play of the Hand."

At first bridge was an opportunity to act grown up, stay out late, travel, etc., for Jordan. "Certainly the social aspect of the game, meeting people and making friends in what my non-playing friends call 'our little subculture' is a major attraction."

It took Jordan a long time to realize that not everyone has a mentor like his father. "After we moved to Memphis in 1972, Billy and I started to play regularly, and for years we were by far the youngest players in Memphis. I remember how happy my parents were when Billy and I won a regional in Belleville IL in 1974. We were too young to pick up our prizes – 4 bottles of wine, so Mom and Dad thanked us profusely as they collected the wine on our behalf."

"We've also played regularly as Swiss Family Cohen over the years, with Fran and/or my mom and/or my brother, Mitchell, and we've won our fair share of events."

Jordan, 45 years old, is a lawyer who has practiced corporate-commercial and real estate law in Toronto for the past 20 years. He and Fran have been married for 21 years and they have three children.

His partnership with Cooper began when he played in the school bridge club when he was in the eighth grade. "Steve was the first schoolmate I met whose passion for the game exceeded my own. We started playing together then, and within six months Steve had me playing Schenken. When Precision broke onto the scene in 1970, Steve soon had me playing that as well, although even then he kept adding his own 'refinements'. Thirty years later, we are still playing a strong club system and Steve is ever the inveterate tinkerer."

"We play almost exclusively in IMP events in the Greater Toronto area. We used to play in local IMP leagues for practice, but that has been replaced in the last four or five years by OKbridge. It gives us the time and opportunity to play when it's convenient for us. We play four or five times a week on OKbridge, usually very late at night."

Steve also began playing at an early age. "My father taught me and seven of my friends when we were 12 years old. I played a lot of tournaments until my kids were born, but I have been semi-retired since then. Family life has kept me away from the game, but OKbridge is just what the doctor ordered! I usually play after everyone is asleep, and I never have to leave my home. I play almost every night, midnight until 2 a.m."

"One innovative feature is that we still play a big club if they open 1C. Double shows 16+ HCP, and we then proceed as if we had opened 1♦. We use the 1♦ overcall as a non-forcing takeout of clubs, in effect a normal takeout double, albeit limited to 15 HCP. If we have diamonds alone, we jump to 2♦, showing a good suit and 11-15."

Cooper, 45 years old, was a lawyer for 15 years, but is now a financial planner. He and his wife Diane have been married 22 years and have 2 children. He and Diane I used to play together a bit, "but we gave that up with a view towards prolonging our marriage."

Ultimately what keeps Jordan and Steve coming back is the challenge. Jordan put it this way: "It's really true what they say, 'It is not until you know something about the game that you realize how much you don't know.' I still have a great deal to learn, but I love the problem-solving aspect of the game, the ability to enter a tournament and go head-to-head with the best in the world and be competitive."

Jordan has happy memories of his first Vanderbilt. "We drew Bob Hamman's team in the Round of 64, and on the third hand or so I endplayed him to make a game – nothing fancy. But Bob turned to me and said, 'Oh, another Cohen who knows how to play the game.' We ultimately got pummeled, but I left with a great feeling."

"Because it is such a challenge, bridge also allows me to escape and focus on the game. For a few hours I can ignore or forget about work and other day-to-day distractions and concentrate on my bridge problems. In its own way that is ultimately relaxing."

A recent hand from OKbridge play offers a good example of the Cohen-Cooper bidding style – some science, some blasting.

Jordan opened a 14+ to 17 notrump. Cooper's 2♦ response asked Jordan whether he was min or max. After his 3♣ response showing a max, Cooper bid 3♠, a slam try with spade shortness. Jordan, seeing all of his values outside of spades, showed his interest by bidding 4♠. Cooper then leaped to 6♦.

West led the trump 5, won cheaply in dummy. Cooper gave up a spade, and the trump continuation revealed trumps to be 3-2. That gave Cooper an extra chance, which he put into effect. He ruffed a spade, crossed on a diamond, ruffed a spade, crossed on a diamond, ruffed a spade, crossed on a heart, and claimed. He risked 5-1 diamonds, but brought home the slam on the dummy reversal.

Smoking policy

This is Las Vegas, so smoking regulations are very lenient in hotels and casinos. But remember that once you cross into the convention area of the Hilton, you are in ACBL country and there is no smoking in the playing areas or pre-function areas. If you are playing in any Pavilion room or the Barron or Conrad rooms, the fastest smoking access is outside on the patio. Those playing in the ballroom may want to head toward the casino for a smoking break.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time. When making an announcement, use the announcement word -- such as "transfer" -- and tap the Alert strip at the same time. A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

Solution to Quiz #3

(Problem on page 2)

♠ A 9 7 2	♦ K Q 4
♥ J 4	♦ K 10 9 2
♦ A K 10 3 2	♦ Q 8 5
♣ Q 5	♣ 10 7 6
♠ 8 6 5 3	♠ J 10
♥ Q 8 6	♥ A 7 5 3
♦ 7 6	♦ J 9 4
♣ J 4 3 2	♣ A K 9 8

The contract is 3NT by South. West leads the ♠3. Can you see any way of ensuring nine tricks regardless of the lie of the East-West cards?

Here's Kantar's answer:

The only certain way of ensuring nine tricks is to rise with the ♠A (if you duck, East might shift to an embarrassing heart and the diamond finesse might be off) and play the ♦A and a low diamond at tricks two and three.

Playing the low diamond ensures four diamond tricks, all you need to make the contract, and guards against a 5-0 diamond split. If you played the ♦A K and a low diamond, don't take credit, as a 4-1 diamond division defeats you if the player with the ♦Q is stubborn enough to duck the third round of the suit.

Notice that by winning the first spade you do not leave yourself wide open in the suit, as there is no combination of East-West spades that allows them to cash more than three spade tricks when in with the ♦Q.

Don't send a boy on a man's errand

Ralph Cohen, former CEO of the ACBL, is having a great time with his old Montreal friend, Buddy Marsh. They used to play regularly before Cohen moved to Connecticut to go to work for the ACBL. They still function well as a partnership, as this deal from the first final session of the Life Master Open Pairs shows.

Cohen's double was a bit ambitious but he made it pay off handsomely. He cashed his top diamonds and led a third. Declarer discarded a heart as Marsh ruffed. He returned a low heart, and declarer finessed successfully. He cashed the ♥A and led a third heart to ruff in hand. But Cohen ruffed in with the ace! Then he led a fourth diamond which Marsh ruffed with the queen to score a 300-point set.

Cohen was quite sure his partner had the trump queen because declarer was attempting to get to his hand, apparently to finesse in trumps. So he made sure of the extra undertrick by stepping in with his ace of trumps.

UNITED STATES BRIDGE FEDERATION (USBF)

OPEN INFORMATIONAL MEETING

Thursday, November 22 11:00 am

Conference Rooms 4 & 5

(Through the Casino, into the foyer, to your left)

Every member in good standing of the ACBL and the ABA who is a US citizen is automatically a member of this newly formed organization. Those of you interested in bridge becoming an Olympic sport and interested in representing the USA in international competition should come to this meeting. The purpose and function of the USBF will be explained.

Some discussion topics:

- * The purpose of the USBF and how and why it was formed
 - To help make Bridge an Olympic sport
 - Running all the team trials: Open, Women's, Junior, Senior
- * About your USBF Board of Directors
- * Active member dues for those who wish to play in any trials, receive subsidy or training for international play, vote for or serve on the USBF Board of Directors
- * Possible obligation of Active members playing in a USBF one-session charity event from time to time
- * Any changes in the method of US team selection?

Seniors are battling for knockout title

Players 55 and older are vying for the Senior Knockout Teams championship. All-day matches will take place until a champion is decided.

Last year's Senior Knockout Teams final featured a come-from-behind victory by the Richard Budd squad – down 28 IMPs with 16 boards to play, they outscored their opponents 78-9 to win the championship by 41 IMPs, 150-109.

Playing with Budd were Robert Ryder, William Hunter, Shome Mukherjee, Richard De Martino and Pat McDevitt. They defeated the team led by non-playing captain Marsha Sternberg (Jim Sternberg, Allan Cokin, Bernie Chazen, Chuck Burger, Richard Reisig and Robert Lipsitz).

Budd and Ryder found a good route to slam on this deal from the second quarter:

Dlr: North	♠ K Q 6 2
Vul: E-W	♥ 4
	♦ 10 9 6 5 2
	♣ 5 4 2
♠ A 10	♠ J 4
♥ A 9 8 5 2	♥ K Q J 10 7
♦ K 7 4	♦ Q
♣ A 10 3	♣ K Q 9 7 6
	♠ 9 8 7 5 3
	♥ 6 3
	♦ A J 8 3
	♣ J 8

Budd		Ryder
Pass		1♥	Pass
2NT (1)	Pass	4♣ (2)	Pass
4NT	Pass	5♦ (3)	Pass
6♥	All Pass

- (1) Forcing heart raise.
- (2) Five-card suit.
- (3) One key card.

With everything breaking reasonably, the slam came home for a 13-IMP pickup.

The Senior Knockout Teams, limited to players 55 and older, was first played at the 1994 Fall NABC in Minneapolis and won by Zeke Jabbour, Russ Arnold, Richard Hunt, Dan Morse, Chuck Said and John

A valuable overtrick

By Gene Benedict

Making 4♠ on Board 18 on this deal was the norm, but Nader Hanna found a way to score an overtrick and gain some extra matchpoints.

Board 18	♠ 10 8 5 3	♠ 4 2
Dlr: East	♥ 9	♥ A 7 6 3
Vul: N-S	♦ A 9 7 5 3	♦ Q J 6

West	North	East	South
		Pass	1♣
Dbl	1♦	1♥	1♠
Pass	3♠	Pass	4♣
All Pass
Opening lead: ♥K

West continued with the ♥J at trick two. Hanna, South, ruffed in dummy, cashed the ♣A and led a club to the king. South ruffed another heart in dummy, led a diamond to the king, cashed the ♦Q and ruffed his last heart.

Nader cashed the ♦A and ruffed a diamond with the 6. This was the three-card ending:

♠ 10	♠ 4 2
♥ —	♥ —
♦ 7 5	♦ —
♣ —	♣ 10
♠ K Q 9	♠ A J 7
♥ —	♥ —
♦ —	♦ —

Nader led the ♦7 and West rose with the queen, whereupon he was endplayed into giving Hanna a valuable overtrick.

Approved defenses to Mid-Chart methods

Players who use methods allowed under the Mid-Chart (permitted in NABC+ events, unrestricted Flight A regionally rated and any bracket of a bracketed KO which contains no team with a bracket designator of less than 1000 masterpoints) are responsible for providing an approved defense from the online ACBL Defense database to those methods.

Since this regulation just recently went into effect, copies of the approved defenses may be available at the supply tables (while supplies last). In the future, players will be responsible for downloading these defenses prior to the events in which they are to be used.

If you want to play Mid-Chart methods, download the appropriate defenses in advance.

Goodwill Message

"Only a few of us will win championships but all of us can win new friends. And, unlike the coveted silver trophies, we keep the friends without having to win them again and again."

The late Dick Frey, editor of The Bridge Bulletin, wrote these words in 1960 but they are still applicable 41 years later:

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman
National Goodwill Committee

Friday, November 23, is T-Shirt Day for the Summer 2002 Washington DC NABC.

Come buy a t-shirt at the Washington DC NABC publicity booth in the vendor lobby area and be one of the crowd!

Tough test for women: board-a-match teams

At stake in Women's Board-a-Match Teams is the Coffin Trophy, one of the oldest and most historic trophies in NABC competition. For years there was only one "National" Women's Team championship -- and that was a board-a-match event.

Donated by Charles Emmet Coffin in 1933, the trophy was contested at the Winter Nationals in the days when there were only two NABCs -- Summer and Winter. In 1963 the event was moved to the new Spring NABC where it was in play until the format was changed to knockout teams in 1976.

For the next decade, there was no national Women's Board-a-Match championship. Swiss teams had become popular and a Women's Swiss with NABC rating was established in the early Eighties. But board-a-match play for women was not dead -- it was just in hiatus for a few years.

The Coffin Trophy was revived at the Fall NABC in Atlanta in 1986 and new life was breathed into women's board-a-match play.

Many experts consider board-a-match the most exacting form of the game. Equal weight is accorded each deal and every trick is important when scoring is board-by-board.

Open BAM trophy honors Vic Mitchell

Players will be competing for the Victor Mitchell Trophy, which honors one of bridge's most colorful characters — a champion player, philosopher and mentor to the stars.

Mitchell, a Grand Life Master with more than 10,000 masterpoints, won five North American championships including the Spingold in 1956 and 1959, the Life Master Men's Pairs in 1962 and the Men's Teams in 1962 and 1963. He was inducted into the Bridge Hall of Fame in 1996.

The Open Board-a-Match Teams is a four-session event which consists of two qualifying and two final sessions. It was a men's event until 1990 when it became an open event.

Perhaps the event's high point occurred in 1977 when there were only three winners: Richard Doughty, Ron Smith and Lou Bluhm (plus these players eligible for session awards only: Bruce Ferguson, Sidney Lazard, Leslie West and Irv Kostal). Lazard was supposed to play with Doughty but after a good first set, Lazard became ill and Kostal took his place for the evening session.

Lazard was better the next day and in his seat for the first final session. Suddenly he toppled over and a call went out for paramedics. They arrived quickly and rushed Lazard to a hospital.

Meanwhile, Doughty had to find another partner and Ferguson was pressed into service. Ferguson, whose team had not qualified the previous day, was technically ineligible but was allowed to play only in the afternoon.

In the evening, Doughty recruited West -- his fourth partner in four sessions -- and the team went on to victory by a margin of two full boards.

The winners:

1946 Maynard Adams, Julius Bank, Arthur Glatt, William McGhee, Albert Weiss
1947 Jeff Glick, Arthur Goldsmith, Jack Kravatz, Alvin Landy, Sol Mogal

Rigal reviewed

Mike Hancock of Herts, England, played in a regional pair game Monday evening and encountered one of the same deals that columnist Barry Rigal wrote about in yesterday's edition. Hancock, however, seems to have found a better line of play than the declarer in Rigal's story. Here's the deal in question:

♠ 10 9	♦ K Q 7 5
♥ K J 5 4	♦ K Q 7 5
♦ K A 10 2	♣ A 10 2
♠ 4 2	♦ Q J 8 6 5
♥ A Q 10 8 6	♦ 7 2
♦ 8 4	♦ J 10 6
♣ Q J 6 4	♦ 9 8 3
♠ A K 7 3	♣ A K 7 3
♥ 9 3	♦ A 9 3 2
♦ A 9 3 2	♣ K 7 5

The declarer in Rigal's article made two overtricks in 3NT after a defensive error allowed the 11th trick through. Hancock found a way to 11 tricks without the benefit of a defensive error.

Hancock, South, opened 1NT (12–14 HCP) and West made an artificial call showing hearts and another suit. Although it seems that West should have paid 800 for this intervention, North-South arrived in the notrump game. (In Rigal's column, the hand was declared from the North, but the same critical ending was reached in both deals.)

The opening lead of a low heart ran to South's 9, and declarer continued with another heart, won by West's ace. Declarer won the diamond exit and played three more rounds of the suit ending in dummy.

The ♠10 was next, covered and ducked by declarer. East's club exit was won by the king. This was the position:

♠ 9	♦ —	♣ A 10
♥ K J	♦ —	♦ —
♦ —	♦ —	♣ Q 8 6
♣ Q J 6	♦ —	♦ —
♠ —	♦ —	♦ —
♥ Q 10	♦ —	♦ —
♦ —	♦ —	♣ 8 3
♣ —	♦ —	♣ 7 5

The ♠A K destroys the West hand, and declarer takes the rest of the tricks. Making five.

New Life Masters

Mary Ann Chestnut of Kalispell MT taught for 34 years, then decided to become a Life Master when she reitred three years ago. She came to Las Vegas needing just 5.72 gold. Playing in Bracket 4 of the Morning Knockouts, she was frustrated when she discovered her match was a tie and a four-board playoff loomed. The extra boards were hard-fought, but Mary Ann was ecstatic when her team wound up the winner by a single IMP. That was worth 5.99 golds and she became a Life Master. Here's what her partner, Bob Christie of Edmonton AB, had to say: "We expect her feet to hit the ground sometime next week."

Four members of one team in Bracket 10 of the Reel 'Em In! Knockouts became Life Masters together. They are Joon Pahk of Berkeley CA, Li-Chung Chen, Cupertino CA; Nancy Chapman, Pacifica CA and James Boey of San Francisco.

Three more who made the grade in knockout play: Patrick Cardullo, Zurich, Switzerland; June Hoye, Falls Church VA and Mark Newman of Culpeper VA.

Sandra Lippy of Warren OH made the grade in the Open Swiss Teams on Tuesday.

Ron Sills of Steamboat Springs CO earned his gold card in events in which he has been partnered by Don Petterson and Don Little, both of Steamboat Springs.

Nadine Williams of Seattle placed third in a Morning Knockout bracket, and that earned her enough points for her gold card. She was playing with Mel Spelde, also of Seattle. Her teammates were June Cassinelli and Sheila Merritt of Yuma AZ.

Mary Jane Patterson of Las Vegas won more than enough golds to become a Life Master after taking a 20-year hiatus from the game. Her partner was Rosemarie Goodwin of Lewiston ME, and their teammates were Pat and Jim Damon of Sidney ME.

Planning to go to Washington NABC?

Reservations for next summer's NABC in Washington open on January 2, but players at the Las Vegas NABC can get a head start! Stop by the MegaHousing Management desk in the Pavilion walkway area and fill out a form to request a reservation before the service opens to the bridge playing public. MegaHousing staff will be at their desk from 11:30 a.m. to game time, so stop by and fill out a reservation form.

Child Care

Child care is available from 12:30-5 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.-Midnight each day during the NABC. Contact Donna Compton in Room 360 at the Hilton for more information.

Junior Coupons

Junior players (25 and younger) may compete for only $6 per player per session -- with a Junior coupon for each player and session. Coupons are available at the ACBL Information Desk and at selling stations.

The coupons are available only to Juniors who have not yet celebrated their 26th birthday and whose membership dues or Life Master Service fee is current.

The biter gets bitten

By Barry Rigal

I'm used to finding the fun endings – but on this occasion I was on the receiving end of a frustrating position against Steve Aarons and Wayne Timms.

I led the ♦3 to the queen, king and ace. Declarer played a spade to the king and a club to the 10 and jack. I cashed the ♠A and played a diamond to the jack. Declarer ruffed the spade return low. Now he played ♣A and another club to Jill Levin, who led the fourth spade, ruffed by declarer with the queen.

Declarer ruffed a club with the 9, overruffed with the 10. So far so good for us, but now Jill was forced to return a heart to dummy's jack, leaving declarer in dummy for the trump coup! Plus 110 was worth 38 of 64 matchpoints for our opponents – not a great board, but worth it if only for the aggravation it caused us.

A satisfying result

By Barry Rigal

My favorite deal of the Life Master Open Pairs was the result of our failure to bid to the best contract. When you bid them badly, it gives you a chance in the play.

Jill Levin was North and I was South. 2♣ was Precision – six-plus clubs. Neither of us was sure if had shown 5-5 or 5-4, but I was carried away by my spade spots and wanted to find a 5-2 fit if we had one.

On the ♣K lead, the key was ensuring two diamond ruffs in dummy. It looks natural, but it is not best to ruff clubs in hand at once. Instead I won the ♠A to pitch a diamond. Then I led the ♠K which I overtook to cash three more rounds of spades to pitch all of dummy's diamond losers. East ruffed the fourth spade and returned a high heart. I won in dummy, ruffed a club, ruffed a diamond, ruffed a club, ruffed a diamond and led the ♥A for trick 10. The 5-1 heart split turned out to be irrelevant, but it made the hand more satisfying!

Open Pairs correction

A score correction changed a few placings in the final standings of the Life Master Open Pairs. Reese Milner and Geoff Hampson moved from 15th to 14th, displacing Bryan Maksymetz and Gregory Arbour. Larry Mori and Pratap Rajadhyaksha took over 39th place from Michael and Susan Gilbert. Dennis Kasle and Garey Hayden are now 41st, replacing Paul Soloway and Steve Catlett.
