Blue Ribbon Pairs champs Salvador Assael and Nafiz Zorlu.

Turks Top Blue Ribbon Pairs

A pair of players from Turkey have become the first players from that country to win a North American championship.

Salvador Assael and Nafiz Zorlu topped the field in the six-session Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs. The duo posted a final score of 2105.71 to narrowly edge Steve Landen of Rochester Hills MN and Pratap Rajadhyaksha of Powell OH, who finished with 2100.06. Landen and Rajadhyaksha won the Open Pairs at the Cincinnati NABC in 1999.

In third was the father-son partnership of Ken and John Kranyak of Bay Village OH. The Kranyaks scored 2097.38.

Assael and Zorlu have represented Turkey in international play for many years. Zorlu is a businessman who has played in six European championships and three Olympiads. He has many Turkish titles. Zorlu is also a past president of the Turkish Bridge Federation.

Assael is a retired broker who has played in five Zone 1 (Europe) championships and two Olympiads. The pair has been playing together for 17 years.

Dan Gerstman and Allan Graves, who led after the semifinal sessions, the first final session and throughout much of the second final session, ran out of gas on the last few rounds to finish fourth with 2056.99.

Levine takes Senior KO

The squad captained by Mike Levine was down 16 IMPs going into the final quarter of the Senior Knockouts against the team led by Hamish Bennett, but won the last set 44-16 to win the event.

Levine, playing with teammates Zeke Jabbour, Randy Pettit, Allan Siebert, P.O. Sundelin and Arnie Fisher, defeated the Bennett squad by a final score of 153-141. Playing with Bennett were Gene Simpson, Billy Eisenberg, Jim Robison, Chris Larsen and Joe Kivel.

The runners-up won the first quarter 51-32, but Levine was strong in the second set, pulling to within 2 IMPs. Bennett led 76-74 at the half. Bennett tacked on 14 more IMPs by the end of the third quarter to lead 125-109, but the Levine squad powered their way to victory in the last quarter, winning it by 28 IMPs to win the match by 12 IMPs.

Members of both the winning team and the runners-up have multiple NABC and world titles, especially in Senior contests. The Levine squad has won all of the major NABC Senior events several times.

An important swing occurred in the third quarter where the South players on one deal held:

Pittsburgh retirees tops in 99er Pairs

Tom Morton and Bob Quinlan, both of Pittsburgh, have been playing bridge for a long time, but they're new to duplicate. They proved yesterday that they are catching on to the special nuances of duplicate by winning the nationally rated 99er Pairs.

They had two strong games - 66% and 60% - but they needed them. Carl and Marilyn Bowman had a

Hospices receive Charity donations

The ACBL Charity Foundation presented a $100,000 check to the National Hospice Foundation at a ceremony Saturday evening. The National Hospice Foundation is ACBL's 2001 Charity of the Year.

Charity Foundation president Jayne Thomas and vice-president Virgil Anderson were on hand to present the check to NHF representative Claire Tehan.

Also, the Charity Foundation presented a $5000 check to the Nathan Adelson Hospice of Las Vegas, the charity recipient chosen by the local NABC tournament committee. Unit 373 (and District 17) Treasurer Tom Shulman was on hand to accept the check on behalf of Adelson.

Tehan, of Los Angeles CA, said, "Hospice programs provide a wide range of services for people in their end-of-life experience. Hospice, which is frequently home-based care, can provide doctors, nurses, physical therapists, pain-management specialists and trained volunteers. The emphasis is on the quality of life. Hospice specialists are expert at managing problems that develop at the end of a person's life."

Scientific? Not exactly!

There are lots of stories about Board 12 from the second semifinal session of the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, but the Benito Garozzo story is perhaps the best. Benito was sitting West with Lea Dupont as East. Jacek Pszczcola of Poland was North and his partner was Zia.

Dlr: West ♠ A K J 4
 Vul: N-S ♥ 10 7 4
 ♦ 7 3 2

♠ Q 9 7 6 3 2
 ♥ K 6 5
 ♣ 6 5

Benito, sitting West, of course opened 1♣, and Lea responded 1♥. Benito jumped to 3♣ and Lea showed her other suit. Benito not surprisingly tried 3NT despite the not-so-sure stopper in spades. Lea decided to show her strength and her distribution by leaping to 6♦. Benito wasn't too happy about this with his doubleton diamond and singleton heart, so he "corrected" to 6NT. Jacek knew he could beat that contract, so he doubled. He was right about beating 6NT - it would go down six tricks - 1400 - but he was wrong to double.

Benito figured Jacek had to have a strong spade holding to double, so he decided to cut his losses by bidding 7♣. Pszczcola led a high spade. When Benito saw the spade void in dummy, he broke into a smile as wide as the one Giorgio Belladonna had when he played the famous 7♣ hand in Bermuda in 1975 that decided the Bermuda Bowl in Italy's favor. He wrote plus 1630 on his private score.

Child Care

Child care is available from 12:30-5 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.-Midnight each day during the NABC. Contact Donna Compton in Room 360 at the Hilton for more information.

Arleen Lehman presents a $1000 check to ACBL Director of Junior Programs Charlotte Blaiss.

Junior patron Lehman keeps on giving

Arleen Lehman, of Boca Raton FL, knows and loves Junior bridge.

"I love kids, even when they beat me at the table ... and they always beat me!," said Lehman, who's been a long-time supporter of the ACBL Junior bridge program.

On Saturday evening, ACBL Director of Youth Programs Charlotte Blaiss accepted a $1000 check from Lehman, the latest in a series of generous gifts she has made to the program over the years.

Blaiss noted, "The ACBL Junior program is totally funded by Junior Fund games and donations. Gifts such as Arleen's help ACBL to provide special services to our young members."

February is Junior Month where for just $1 extra, players are eligible to win masterpoints at sectional rating. See your local club for details.

Clubs may run as many Junior Fund game as they have sanctioned sessions. Last year's games raised $26,377 with the money going for Junior programs in the United States and Canada.

Montreal World Bridge Championship Quiz

To heighten awareness of the Bridge World Championships in Montreal, Quebec, next year (Aug. 16-31), the organizers are offering a daily bridge problem with prizes for the winners during the 2001 Summer NABC.

There will be a drawing from among the names of those who answer correctly and five will win Montreal World Championship hats. Turn in your answers to the Daily Bulletin office in Conference Room 10 (upstairs). Check the Daily Bulletin for the list of winners.

Opening lead: ♥K

After winning the first trick, Bob Heitzman continued with the ♥Q. Keith Garber, South, recognized that this meant his partner had a diamond void, so he ruffed and led the ♦J. I also knew North had a diamond void, so I ducked! Now if South continues diamonds I get out for down one. But Keith played the ♠Q. I took the king, passed the ♠10 and finessed to the ♠J.

Now I had no legitimate road to down one, I thought, but I played the ♣A, ruffed a club and played the ♠A, leaving this ending:

 ♥ A 9 6 5

I exited with the ♣7. Keith won and played the ♦K! Down two and a full board swing as minus 200 lost the board. Our teammates were plus 170 in 3♥, a great result for them.

Charity

Tehan added that hospice organizations are devoted to pain-management techniques, medication and giving people a sense of control.

“Part of the National Hospice Foundation’s job is to educate the public to ask for hospice care when it’s appropriate,” Tehan said.

Shulman said, “The Nathan Adelson Hospice has been Unit 373’s primary charity for several years. We felt that we could do more to assist a charitable organization more by ‘adopting’ one and sticking with it for several years.”

reasonable afternoon session and followed with a 66% evening game to close to within three points of the winners.

Morton, a retired professor of operations management, and Quinlan, a retired vice president of a consulting firm, have been playing together since May. They use a basic Standard American system. Morton took the game up in college, but he didn’t get serious about the game until he retired. Quinlan often has played in high stakes rubber bridge games at country clubs and bridge clubs.

Morton calls Quinlan one of the greatest pessimists around. “He didn’t want to come back for the second session because we had such a bad first session. That bad session was 66%.”

Seniors KO

♠A x x x x x ♥A K x x ♦— ♣x x x.

Left-hand opponent (West) opened the bidding 1♦ and North bid 4♥. Both South players bid 6♥, but Levine was doubled. 6♥ was cold, so the double cost 7 IMPs in the tight match.

It’s your bid!

You pick up the following cards:

♠ A K Q J 7 5
♥ K Q 10 4
♦ J 9 8

The player on your left opens 1♣ and RHO responds 1♦. Your turn – what do you bid?

The deal came up in the final of the Senior Knock-outs. P.O. Sundelin of Sweden, a member of Mike Levine’s victorious team, considered 1♠, but thought the hand was too strong for a simple overcall. So he doubled. Is that what you did? If so, what is your opening lead? That’s right – your partner passes 1♦ doubled. The full deal:

Dlr: North ♠ 9 3 2
Vul: None ♥ A J 5
♦ Q 5
♣ A Q 10 8 6

♠ A K Q J 7 5	♠ 10 6 4
♥ K Q 10 4	♥ 8 7 2
♦ J 9 8	♦ 6 4 3
♣ —	♣ 5 4 3 2

♠ 8
♥ 9 6 5 3
♦ A K 10 7 2
♣ K J 9 7

Arnie Fisher didn’t want to bid either of his three-card majors, so he passed, hoping the carnage wouldn’t be too great. P.O. cashed a high spade and confidently led a second, but his confidence faded when declarer ruffed. Declarer then led a diamond toward the queen, and P.O.’s confidence started to return – partner would win the queen with either the ace or the king, and P.O.’s jack would win a trick later on. Oh no! The ♦Q held! What’s going on here? Declarer then called for another diamond and finessed, losing to P.O.’s jack.

When P.O. returned another spade, declarer ruffed and then paused. Finally he spread his hand, announcing, “Making four, I concede a heart trick.” That figures out to minus 440. Believe it or not – Levine’s team gained on this board. Their teammates bought the hand for 5♣ doubled and brought the contract home for plus 550 and 3 IMPs.

Some suggestions from the Partnership Desk

We at the Partnership Desk want to make it as easy as possible for you to find a partner. Here are some suggestions that will help us find a partner for you.

1. Fill out the information card with your first and last name, and make sure you write legibly.

2. If you are looking for a team, put WE down to show that two of you are on the card. Show the total points for the two of you.

3. We take cards for only the event/events that are being played for that day. Morning, afternoon and evening events are arranged one hour before game time. Do not come by in the morning to sign up for an afternoon or evening event. You may take a card and fill it out and bring it back to us one hour before the event starts. Please do not give us the cards or leave them on the table before that time.

4. Please do not fill out a card and give it to us, then leave to get coffee, to eat, etc. When we call your name and you are not there, we are unable to get you a partner.

5. If you find a partner for yourself in the “madding crowd,” please come and tell us so we can remove your name from the list.

A Ticklish Slam

By Barry Rigal

I was very surprised to discover how many of the field failed to find their way in a ticklish slam here. It’s Board 2 from the second semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Dlr: East ♠ K Q 6
Vul: N-S ♥ A J 4
♦ A Q 10 8
♣ A 8 7

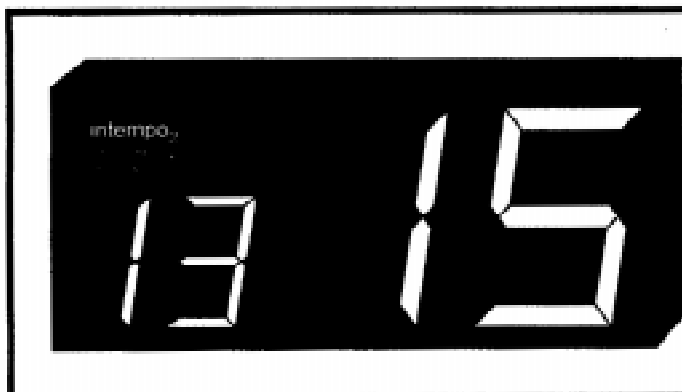

♠ 10 4	♠ 9 7 5 2
♥ 10 8 5 3	♥ 9 6 2
♦ 5	♦ J 9 7 6 3
♣ K J 10 6 4 2	♣ 3
	♠ A J 8 3
	♥ K Q 7
	♦ K 4 2
	♣ Q 9 5

You play 6NT as South on a heart lead. The right play is the ♦A and the ♦K early, learning the bad news. Then cash a top heart in dummy and take three spade tricks. When East turns up with nine pointed cards, play West to be squeezed. This is the ending:

♠ —	♠ 2
♥ A	♥ 9
♦ Q 10	♦ J 9 7
♣ A 8 7	♣ 3
♠ —	♠ J
♥ 10 8	♥ Q
♦ —	♦ 2
♣ K J 10 6	♣ Q 9 5

When you lead the last spade, West pitches a club painlessly. Throw dummy’s diamond and cross to the ♦Q, and that squeezes West. If he pitches a heart, you cash the ♥A and lead a low club, covering East’s card, and West is endplayed. If he pitches a club, play the ♣A and another club and dummy is high.

I know Zia played the hand essentially in this fashion to make the hand. We actually scored 26 of 64 matchpoints for going down one. Why did we go down? Well, the devilish person sitting East opened 1♦ against us. I doubled and West leaped to 3♣. East’s club lead broke up the tenace to set us one.

Attention Club Owners and Tournament Managers! Tired of fighting the uphill battle against slow play? A solution is in sight. The intempo<sub>2</sub> bridge timer will be on display throughout the week in the concession area. Designed and priced for club and small tournament use, it is very easy to use and has a wealth of features. Please stop by for a personal demonstration.

Solution to Quiz #7

♣ A 10 4 3

♠ K Q 10 9 3
♥ A 10 3
♦ K 4 3
♣ J 8

The contract is 4♠ by South. West leads the ♣K. West cashes the ♣Q at trick two and shifts to a trump. Trumps are 2-2. Can you spot a sure way of ensuring your contract?

Here's Kantar's solution:

You have this one in your hip pocket. Cash the ♦K (after drawing the second round of trump) and lead a diamond to the 8 if West follows with a low diamond. East wins and is endplayed. If West produces the ♦9 or ♦10 on the second round of the suit, insert the jack, and once again East is endplayed. The contract is unbeatable because of dummy's ♦8.

A high commendation

Playing in the 10 and 3 Open Pairs on Friday, we were very impressed with the director in charge of the game, Charles MacCracken.

He demonstrated a great sense of humor and approached all director calls with a gentle professionalism and pleasant demeanor.

May all directors emulate his attitude.

Goodwill honorees emphasize service

Yesterday we reported that Kay Afdahl of Virginia Beach VA and Sheena Rayner of Bermuda were named Goodwill Members of the Year. Here is what their nominators had to say about them.

Doris Riley of Unit 146 wrote about Afdahl as follows:

"Kay Afdahl moved to our area in the early Seventies. She quickly made friends in our bridge community and volunteered her services. She soon became associate editor of our newsletter, and she also worked as caddy master and assisted with hospitality at the Norfolk Regional and the Norfolk North American Championships.

"She then became tournament co-chairman and was instrumental in relocating our regional to the Virginia Beach waterfront where it has continued to thrive to this day. She helped to revive the spirit of Southern hospitality at our tournaments.

"Then she turned her attention to our local games by organizing a non-profit weekly game with liberal free plays, lavish refreshments, mini-lessons, volunteer directors, guaranteed partners and newcomer involvement. The game was a huge success. Last year the players raised more than $2000 for the benefit of Hospice Volunteers.

"Kay then embarked on a campaign to introduce bridge in the schools and taught regularly scheduled classes to students at both Norfolk State University and Old Dominion University.

"She has been at least partially responsible for a growing population of new players in our unit. She also has taught director classes, and she is always available to give assistance when asked by other club directors.

"She once served as our Unit Education Liaison and is currently District 6 Education Liaison and ABA coordinator.

"We are proud to nominate her for Goodwill Member of the Year."

John Hoskins, president of the Bermuda unit, had this to say about Sheena Rayner:

"Sheena has been active in all aspects of bridge administration in Bermuda for 14 years without any monetary reward. Among her many duties she has served as president of the Bermuda Bridge Club, president of ACBL Unit 198, regional tournament chairman and, of great significance, tournament chairperson for the Orbis World Bridge Championships in January 2000.

"This latter task involved more than 30 months of work, from the initial meetings with the Bermuda Department of Tourism to the farewell dinner. During that time Sheena generated goodwill aplenty. She attended the Bermuda Bowl/Venice Cup in Tunisia in 1997 to ensure Bermuda being chosen as the venue. She also attended the Olympiad in Lille in 1998 to further promote the Bermuda cause.

"During the entire process, Sheena greeted everyone with a smile. Every problem or complaint whether trivial or critical was tackled with fine diplomacy. At the Championships, Sheena was everywhere. Whether it was a light bulb burning out or a financially stricken team needing billets, she solved the problem. Ensuring that players were treated with the best of care and attention was her top priority.

"The kind of goodwill generated during this event spanned the globe, highlighting Bermuda's unique brand of hospitality. For these reason we feel Sheena is an excellent candidate for the Goodwill Member of the Year award."

Online and e-bridge

ACBL Online and e-bridge members will meet face-to-face today at 5 p.m. in the Le Montrachet Room (next to the entrance to the Steakhouse) in the tournament registration area.
