Rosenberg did very well not to jump to 4♠ over 3♦. Stansby finagled a diamond control from her partner, used key card then asked for third-round control of clubs. When none was forthcoming, she was confident that 7NT could be no worse than finding spades 2-1, and so it proved.

Second in the Young LM Pairs: Joyce McMonagle and L.C. Crowe

Robert Block of Deerfield IL and William Anspach of Chicago capped three days of solid play in the Young 0-1500 Life Master Pairs with a 70% game in the second final session to win the six-session event by one board.

In second were Joyce McMonagle and L.C. Crowe of the Memphis area.

Block, an internist, and Anspach, an attorney, have been playing together for four years. It was their first victory in an NABC event.

The pair finished the qualifying round in seventh place, and were sixth after the semifinal round. A huge 69.55% in yesterday's second final session propelled them into the winner's circle.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

Second in the Collegiate Teams: Oosman Bashir, Monika Weber, Evan Morse and Shu-Chun Weng.

team of graduate students, defeated Yale University 49-34 to win the Collegiate Team Championship.

The winners are Kendrick Chow, 18, of San Francisco, studying chemical engineering; Zhuo "Jimmy" Wang, 20, of Beijing, China, studying applied mathematics; Zhiyi Huang 25, of Guangzhou, China, studying computer science, and Najia Guo, 23, of Shenzhen, China, studying economics.

Penn led by 9 IMPs at the half, picking up 6 more in the second set.

The Yale team was Shu-Chun Weng, Monika Weber, Evan Morse and Oosman Bashir.

Harvard won the playoff for third place, defeating Stanford.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Goodwill Message

Today is Goodwill Day. Members of the National Goodwill Committee and other special guests are invited to attend a reception from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Riverview Room (Marriott, 41st floor). The program will feature remembrances of the longtime chairman, Aileen Osofsky (1926-2010).

Runners-up in the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs: Norberto Bocchi and Guido Ferraro.

Two Norwegian world champions resurrecting a partnership after an extended layoff survived a poor board on a late play at the end of the von Zedtwitz Life Master Pairs to win the event.

The champions are Boye Brogeland and Erik Saelensminde, members of Norway's 2007 Bermuda Bowl champion team. Saelensminde won his first North American championship, Brogeland his second. His previous win was the Lehtar IMP Pairs in 2007.

Second place in the LM Pairs went to Norberto Bocchi, an Italian living in Spain, and Guido Ferraro of Torino, Italy.

The winners had a 15-year partnership leading up to the Bermuda Bowl win three years ago, and they decided afterwards to go separate ways. Before the Summer NABC, the last time they played together was in the Bermuda Bowl in Shanghai, China.

Brogeland is a full-time player and editor of the magazine Bridge i Norge (Bridge in Norway). He and Saelensminde, also a full-time player, posted a pair of 63% games on the second day of the three-day event to lead going into the final. Despite the poor result on the late-play board, they won by

Second in the Bruce LM Pairs: Rusty Krauss and Barry Falgout

Michael and Sylwia McNamara, who met at the bridge table and were married in Las Vegas six years ago, took the lead on the second day of the Bruce 0-5000 Life Master Pairs and held on to win.

The winners are both professional bridge teachers in the New York City area. They met at a tournament in Woodbridge NJ. They live in White Plains NY.

Defying the conventional view that husbands and wives should not play bridge together, the McNamaras function well, playing a strong 1♣ system.

"We try not to talk about the boards during the game," said Michael.

Second place in the event went to Barry Falgout of Rockville MD and Rusty Krauss of Vienna VA.

Unless otherwise noted, strat breaks for all stratified events are: A (3000+), B (750-3000), C (0-750). For strati-flighted events, A/X are 5000+/0-5000 and play in their own game; B (1500-3000), C (750-1500) and D (0-750) play in their own game.

All stratification will be based on the average for the pair or team. In any event or flight with an upper limit, no individual player's masterpoint total may exceed that upper limit.

Electronic Device Policy

The electronic device policy is revised as follows:

1. For all NABC+ rated events at NABCs: Electronic devices, including but not limited to, phones, cameras, PDAs, and others capable of sending or receiving electronic communication are excluded from the playing areas during any session of play. This does not apply to health-related equipment.

2. For all events at an NABC other than a NABC+ rated event: Except for health-related equipment, or by permission of the Director-in-Charge of the tournament, cell phones, audible pagers or similar equipment may not be operated or operable in any manner in the playing area during a session of play. Any such equipment must not be visible during the session. Sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are encouraged to adopt a similar policy.

3. These restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, play recorders (except those designated by ACBL) and kibitzers and are in force throughout any actual playing session or segment of play.

4. A violation of any of the restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above will result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team. Kibitzers violating this policy will be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.
