Dinkin (npc) wins Wagar in razor-close final

Lynn Baker's team (with non-playing captain Sam Dinkin) overcame a 45-IMP deficit from the first quarter to win the final of the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams by 2 IMPs against Valerie Westheimer's squad. The final score: Dinkin 125, Westheimer 123.

Dinkin's lineup was Baker, Karen McCallum, Kerri Sanborn, Irina Levitina, Beth Palmer and Lynn Deas. The same squad won the Wagar in 2008.

Playing for Westheimer were Disa Eythorsdottir, Mildred Breed, Marinesa Letizia and Betty Ann Kennedy.

Kamel, Jacob set pace in Fast Pairs

Nagy Kamel of Plano TX and Dan Jacob of Vancouver BC posted the top score in the opening round of the NABC+ Fast Open Pairs. Kamel and Jacob scored 63.66% in the afternoon session and followed up with a 64.62% in the evening.

In second are Richard Logan of Diamondhead MS and Jay Segarra of Ocean Springs MS.

Of the 196 pairs that entered the event, 104 made the cut to today's two-session final.

Meyers has lead in Mixed BAM

The team captained by Jill Meyers took the lead after two qualifying sessions in the newly renamed Richard Freeman Mixed Board-a-Match Teams.

Meyers, playing with Lew and JoAnna Stansby and Gary Cohler, enters today's final two sessions with a carryover score of five. Tied for second with a carryover of 3.4 are teams led by Sheila Ekeblad and Les Bart.

Spingold now in semifinal round

In a day of wild deals, two of the quarterfinal matches in the Spingold Knockout Teams were settled by a total of 8 IMPs, as the squads captained by Romain Zaleski and Rose Meltzer advanced to today's semifinals.

Three TDs honored by peers, ACBL

Three tournament directors – Nancy Boyd, Matt Smith and Jean Molnar – have been recognized for exceptional contributions to the game and the organization.

Boyd and Smith were selected by their peers in the Professional Tournament Directors Association for the Tom Weeks and Fred Friendly awards, respectively. Molnar received the Jane Johnson Award for exceptional customer service among TDs.

The Tom Weeks award goes to the TD who exhibits extraordinary professionalism. The Fred Friendly Award goes to the TD who best exemplifies the spirit exhibited by the late Paul Stehley, known as Fred Friendly for his dedication to making tournaments fun for players. The selections were revealed at the PTDA meeting earlier in the week.

In announcing the winners, PTDA Commissioner of Elections Terry Lavender described Weeks winner Boyd as a "techno-weenie," a designation Boyd acknowledged as accurate.

The San Ramon CA resident said, "I am a bit of a closet geek. I know Windows quick keys and I do a lot of Excel spread sheets."

A TD since 1972, Boyd has been a full-time ACBL employee since the late Nineties.

Boyd, who plays bridge whenever her schedule permits, said her job is enjoyable in Four teams left in Mini-Spingold I

Teams captained by Jim Russell, Matt Cory, Morrie Kleinplatz and Adam Parrish will do battle today in the semifinal round of the 0-5000 Mini-Spingold I.

Russell, the original No. 1 seed, will face Cory. Kleinplatz will oppose Parrish.

Russell had an easy time against the McKenzie Myers team, winning 144-44. Kleinplatz and Parrish also cruised, defeating Marsha Platnick and Eugene Hung, respectively.

Cory trailed the Randy Thompson squad by 27 entering the fourth quarter but rallied for a 131-126 victory.

"Micro" Spingold final: Gu vs. Callaham

The squads captained by Jennifer Gu and Steve Callaham will face off in the final of the Mini-Spingold II 0-1500 KO Teams. Gu's team includes Belinda Gu, Jonathan Pines and Adam Portley. Callaham is playing with David Schulman, Patrick Corn and Megan Corn.

Gu won its semifinal match against Richard Polangin's team in three quarters, 119-52. Callaham triumphed against John Christensen's squad in the semi, 120-94.

Electronic Device Policy

The electronic device policy is revised as follows:

1. For all NABC+ rated events at NABCs: Electronic devices, including but not limited to, phones, cameras, PDAs, and others capable of sending or receiving electronic communication are excluded from the playing areas during any session of play. This does not apply to health-related equipment.

2. For all events at an NABC other than a NABC+ rated event: Except for health-related equipment, or by permission of the Director-in-Charge of the tournament, cell phones, audible pagers or similar equipment may not be operated or operable in any manner in the playing area during a session of play. Any such equipment must not be visible during the session. Sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are encouraged to adopt a similar policy.

3. These restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, play recorders (except those designated by ACBL) and kibitzers and are in force throughout any actual playing session or segment of play.

4. A violation of any of the restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above will result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team. Kibitzers violating this policy will be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

On the lead of the ♣K, Bryan Maksymetz won the ace and immediately cashed the ♥A and ♥K, finding East with two trump tricks. He then ran the diamonds. East could ruff in but had no club to lead. He played back a spade, but Maksymetz rose with the ace and played a fourth diamond to pitch dummy's spade. East could ruff with his last trumps but all declarer had to lose from there was a club.

At the other table, a fine declarer chose a different route.

He won the club and led a heart, intending to insert the 7, but East split his 10-9 and South won to lead a low club from hand.

West thoughtfully won the ♣Q and followed with the ♣J and East could not set the game either by discarding diamonds or by ruffing the third club high and playing a spade through.

Declarer can't cash enough diamonds to get the spades away in time. East gets in and plays spade, and declarer loses two trumps and one trick in each black suit.

A name to remember

By Barry Rigal

The name Platnick has become more famous in the world of bridge since Brian was part of the U.S. team that narrowly missed qualifying for the Bermuda Bowl this summer (they will have another chance next year).

Brian comes from a bridge-playing family. Mother Marsha and brother David played in the 0-5000 Spingold and produced the following gem.

Marsha asked Brian how much he would need to double a slam. "Would you think that A K Q in spades diamonds and hearts would suffice?" Brian thought it might, but he was wrong. See for yourself (spots approximate):

When not to pull trumps

By Leslie Shafer

There are only two inviolable rules in bridge: 1) If you can follow suit, you must, and 2) if your partner offers you a breath mint, you must take it. What about high card from the short side? Using Jacoby transfers? Needing at least 8 points before you can use Stayman? I'd rather call all these rules you're learning strong suggestions. There's not one rule in bridge that I don't have the right to break as long as I have a reason (as opposed to the laws of bridge, which I can't violate). There are exceptions to almost every rule.

Beginners learn that drawing trumps is one of their highest priorities. But there are exceptions. I'm going to list the top four reasons why you would not pull trumps immediately.

1) You need to ruff losers in the dummy. When I see shortness (doubleton, singleton or void) in the dummy, I tend to want to ruff my losers first and pull trumps later. I get extra trump tricks by ruffing in the short trump side (usually the dummy). If I pull trumps first, there usually won't be enough left in dummy to ruff my losers. (After a Jacoby transfer, declarer's hand is the short trump side, so that's where you'd look for ruffing opportunities.)

2) You need to crossruff. When there is short suit in dummy and a different short suit in declarer's hand, I'd probably want to trump back and forth and score my trumps separately (one at a time). If I were to pull trumps, I'd use two trumps on every trick. If you do decide to crossruff, it is important to cash your side-suit tricks early. You are not pulling trumps, so the opponents will still have a few trumps towards the end of the play. If you attempt to cash your side ♣A and ♣K at the end of the deal, most likely the opponents will be able to ruff them.

3) You have too many quick losers: Look at the following deal:

♠ 10 7 2	♠ K Q J 5
♥ Q J 9 3	♥ 4 2
♦ Q 7	♦ 10 6 4 2
♣ K Q 4 3	♣ A 6 5
♠ 9 4 3	♠ A 8 6
♥ A 5	♥ K 10 8 7 6
♦ J 9 5 3	♦ A K 8
♣ J 10 9 7	♣ 8 2

West leads the ♣J against South's 4♥.

The ♣J is led to dummy's ♣Q and East's ♣A. East shifts to the ♠K, which declarer wins with the ace. There are now two quick spade losers, one sure trump loser and you've already lost a club trick. If you lead trump, the opponents will take their ♥A and cash two spade tricks. Down one! Ask yourself: "If I try to pull trumps and they get the lead, can they hurt me?" If the answer is yes, then don't start on trumps. Rather, find a way to get rid of at least one of your spade losers before pulling trumps. Play the diamonds instead: ♦Q, ♦K, ♦A. On the ♦A, throw a spade from dummy and - poof! - a spade loser disappears. Once that is done, you can play trump (letting the opponents take their ♥A because they can now only cash one spade).

4. You need the trump suit to provide entries to dummy. Suppose you need to lead a side suit from the dummy to take two finesses and the only high cards in the dummy are in the trump suit! If you pull trumps first, you may not be able to get back to dummy enough times to finesse in your side suit. Use the dummy's trumps as entries to take those finesses. After you have taken the finesse you can finish drawing trumps.

Opening lead: ♠K.

Bidding commentary: Neither West nor East has a weak two-bid opening at this vulnerability, not to mention that West only has a five-card suit (plus a three-suited hand - both flaws), and North has an anemic suit, not to mention he can stand a lead in two other suits (two more flaws).

Play commentary: Win the ♠A at trick one as there is a good chance that the suit is blocked if North has 10-x or J-x. Also, there is no point in holding up when the needed heart finesse heads into the hand with the spade length. In fact, it can be counterproductive.

Further play commentary: Basically, you need four heart tricks to make this contract, which means finding East with the ♥K. The proper card to lead originally is the 9.

If it holds, continue with the jack, underplaying the 10 and eventually taking four heart tricks.

If you start with the jack and it holds, you will not be able to pick up four or more to the king because you will be forced to win the second heart lead in your hand, with no way to get back to dummy.

Defensive commentary: As East, if the ♥J is led from dummy, do not cover.

Partner is either void or has a singleton. That singleton could be the queen! Don't ask.

Further commentary: If the hearts were Q-9-x facing A-J-10-x, the proper card to lead originally is the 9. Two "nine is fine" card combinations to tuck away.

Rara avis: The Winkle

Mike Cappelletti of Winter Park FL reported a neat ending on this deal (rotated) from Wednesday's regional open pairs. Cappelletti was playing with Loretta Rivers of Monroe LA.

It's clear from the auction that very strong coffee was being served in the playing area.

The opening lead was a standard ♣10. East overtook with the jack and tried the ♣K, ruffed by declarer with the ♠8 in case West started with a singleton.

Cappelletti took stock. From the bidding and the play to the first two tricks, it certainly seemed as if East held the high clubs. The failure of West to lead a heart honor on the opening lead suggested either the layout in the diagram or perhaps K-J-x-x opposite Q-x. Either way, Cappelletti strongly suspected East had a doubleton heart honor. The spade position was less clear, but a 4-1 or 3-2 break — West holding the length — would be consistent with the penalty double. On the off chance that East held the singleton ♠Q, therefore, Cappelletti tried the ♠K at trick three: West ducked and declarer was gratified to see the queen drop. The ♠J was also ducked, but West won the next round of trumps with the ace (East pitching clubs), and tried the ♥K.

Declarer won the ace, drew West's remaining trump with the 9, pitching a diamond from dummy, as East released his next-to-last club. The ♦Q was next, followed by a diamond to the ace (declarer noting the fall of the 10 on his left) and a club ruff. This was the three-card ending:

♥ 9		♥ J
♦ K 9		♦ J 6
♣ —		♣ —
♠ —		♠ —
♥ Q 5 4		♥ J
♦ —		♦ J 6
♣ —		♣ —
♠ —		♠ —
♥ 10 8 2		♥ —
♣ —		♣ —

The play to the last few tricks had convinced Cappelletti he knew the entire layout; his view was proved correct when he exited with a low heart. The defense had no answer to this. If West rose with the queen, declarer's hearts would be good. If West allowed East to win the trick, East would be endplayed in diamonds. A great example of a winkle!

Making four doubled for plus 590 and all the matchpoints.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

The defenders lead a fourth-highest ♠2 and continue the suit. You pitch a heart from dummy, and the defenders lead a third spade. What do you discard from dummy, and how do you plan the play?

You have excellent chances in each minor but it's tough to get any additional chances from the hearts because you have to discard twice from dummy. If you pitch two hearts from the board you can't exploit a 3-3 split. If you pitch a club from dummy and cross to the ♣K to lead a heart up, the defenders will win the ♥K and play back a club to kill the dummy.

At one table, declarer simply tested diamonds by leading the top two from hand, then a third, falling back on the club split or a squeeze. No dice.

L'Ecuyer found an extra chance. This was the full deal:

Nick tested clubs first, then cashed the long spade to extract a heart from West, and played three rounds of diamonds. West could cash his long diamond but was endplayed to concede two hearts at the end.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

The auction was the same at Bill's table and where his teammates — Sid Brownstein and John Swanson — were defending.

Both East's took the ♠Q with the ace and, for better or worse, shifted to the ♣J. Both declarers rose with the ♣A. How should declarer continue?

The winning line is elegant and remarkably uncomplicated if you can spot it: Draw trumps, pitching the ♣2 on a top spade then ruffing out the spade, and run trumps to reach this ending:

♠ —		♠ J
♥ —		♥ —
♦ K 9 4		♦ Q 2
♣ 9 7		♣ 10 6
♠ —		♠ —
♥ —		♥ 8
♦ A J 10		♦ 8 5
♣ K 8		♣ Q 4

When you lead the last trump, West cannot mislead you about the ending. If he pitches a diamond, declarer discards a club from dummy and leads a diamond up. West must duck and is endplayed in diamonds to lead clubs.

If West pitches a club, declarer discards a diamond from the dummy and ducks a club to the now-bare king. He must score a diamond and a club in the ending.

Note that it does not help West to make the imaginative discard of the ♦A in the ending. Declarer pitches a diamond from dummy and East is squeezed. If he pitches his spade or a diamond, declarer plays two rounds of diamonds. If he pitches his club, declarer leads the ♣Q to pin the 10 and establish his ♣9 for the 10th winner.

P.S. Neither declarer found this line.

Notice to players

Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

even through the third quarter, when the score was 102-91. The exciting fourth quarter saw the lead change hands several times, before a critical deal very late in the set in which a Dinkin pair reached a making 3NT at one table while the Westheimer counterparts bid to a non-making 5♦ at the other. This swung the lead in Dinkin's favor by a handful of IMPs. The remaining boards were flat, and Dinkin claimed the win.

TDs

part because "no day is every the same, and in general the people are really nice."

Besides playing bridge, Boyd said, she enjoys watching "bad TV."

Smith, who lives in Victoria BC, has been a TD for 27 years and a full-time ACBL employee since 1995. He was promoted to national tournament director in 2000.

Equally popular with players and his peers, Smith he "loves directing," and really enjoys the people he works with. "That's what keeps me coming back."

Lavender said Smith was a natural choice for the Fred Friendly Award because "he is always willing to share humor and expertise. I would want to be a director like Matt Smith."

The popular TD showed his sense of humor in accepting the award, joking, "Thank God I won it before (TD Gary) Zeiger!"

Molnar, of Chula Vista CA in the San Diego area, was picked for the Jane Johnson Award for "extraordinary customer service," a companion to the identically named award given to a member of the Headquarters staff.

Molnar, a bridge player from the age of 12, started directing in the early Nineties at the suggestion of the manager of the club where she played - Adventures in Bridge.

She was hired to work at tournaments by Tom Quinlan in 1995 and became a full-time employee six years ago. Molnar works mostly out West.

"I love directing," she said. "I get to work with so many fabulous people. It's exciting and fun."

As for the customer service aspect of her job, Molnar said, "One of the biggest parts of our job is making sure people have fun."

Strul team, Meltzer scored a game swing on the final board to come from behind with a 102-95 victory. Zaleski trailed 95-63 at the half against George Jacobs before rallying to take an 11-IMP lead after three sets. They held on for a 126-125 win.

The other two matches were routs, as John Diamond took out Dennis Dawson 167-81 and James Cayne eliminated Martin de Knijff (npc) 164-111.

Today's semifinal matchups are Diamond versus Cayne and Meltzer versus Zaleski.

Jill Levin is Grand LM

Jill Levin, one of ACBL's top players and a four-time world champion, is now a Grand Life Master, having surpassed 10,000 masterpoints in an illustrious career. The Lake Ariel PA resident is a World Grand Master in World Bridge Federation rankings. She has nine North American championships to her credit.

A two-time winner of the Venice Cup (world women's teams), she has also been a member of the winning squads in the McConnell Cup (world women's knockout teams) and the National Women's Teams (formerly the Olympiad Women's Teams). She and her husband, Robert Levin, finished second in the World Mixed Pairs in Verona, Italy, in 2006.

Masterpoint disclaimer

Scores as reported in the Daily Bulletin are subject to change because of score changes or corrections.

The masterpoint awards as shown are, therefore, also subject to change.

The NABC Insider

The Insider was hanging around the third floor yesterday watching as the ACBL Marketing team and an army of volunteers were preparing for the start of the third annual Youth NABC. The energy, efficiency and enthusiasm were incredible. They had a goal of putting together a great experience for all the participants in the event. They had a plan that they were putting into place. They had the knowledge and the skills. But most of all they had a passion for what they were doing. They want to share that passion with a new generation of players. Checking back later in the day, it was obvious that their plan had been executed, their goal achieved. Thank you to everyone involved in this project. Two more days of Youth NABC continue today and tomorrow. Stop by and witness their success and a passion for the game shared by several generations.

Speaking of passion, the Insider has met several new friends at the Marriott or, rather, renewed several old friendships. Mike, the man at the Canal Street entrance, has been at this hotel for 36 years. He is serious about his job, but has a real sense of pleasure in welcoming guests to his hotel. Gloria in banquets goes Mike one better. Well, three better, actually, as she has been serving guests in her hotel for 39 years. Keith at the bellstand takes care of guests to his hotel with humor and energy. All the folks at the cash concessions have a smile and a good word for the guests at their hotel. The Insider has enjoyed working with all these talented, professional hosts as they make every effort to make guests to their hotel feel welcome and special.

The Insider always owes a debt to the Bulletin Boys for providing space for this column. Few, if any hands, are ever discussed here. Bridge strategy is only mentioned if especially strange and twisted. All the hallmarks of professional newspaper production (at which the Bulletin Boys excel) are ignored. But still they let the Insider go on. Thanks to all of them for their long hours, hard work and their passion for the game they cover. (The S.C. did express one complaint as the Boys left out a "d" in one item on a new Life Master and the new LM wanted to claim the new "gold car" she had earned. The S.C. declined to deliver the new set of wheels.)

Players who become Life Master in New Orleans (or those who cross other masterpoint milestones) should report to the Daily Bulletin office in the Audubon Room on the 5th floor of the Marriott.

Youth NABC gets off to a fast start

Morning Cardroom Pairs winners Spencer Dyen and Nick Laugen.

There's something really invigorating about a room full of young people – some of them really young – gathered to play bridge. On opening day of the third Youth NABC, no Energizer Bunnies were needed.

Youngsters were registering, buying entries, trying to guess the Mystery Bridge Hand, filling out convention cards, renewing acquaintances from previous tournaments and just generally racing around the Mardi Gras Ballroom at the Marriott.

It was just what the organizers were hoping for.

About 100 young people registered in advance for the three-day tournament, and there were about a dozen walkups.

Tournament Chair Dana Norton said, "It went really well, and the volunteers have been absolutely wonderful." Norton singled out Volunteer Chair Suzanne Cliffe and Partnership Chair Eileen Bagnetto.

As for the players, they were raring to go well before the first card was turned.

Camille Gros, 10, of Altamonte Springs FL in the Orlando area, has been playing about two years. She learned in a class for gifted students at Bear Lake Elementary School.

Camille's mother, Anita, heartily approves of her daughter's interest in a card game. "I think it's great," she said. "She has fun with it and it's very educational. They have tournaments at school. It's a great process."

Camille added, "I like to count up my points, and I like it when I win."

Three young players from the Pensacola FL area – Sarah Carl, 13, and Blakeley Baker, 11 and Kate Manning, 11 – arrived together for their second Youth NABC after playing in the first one in Atlanta. They learned the game at a bridge camp run by Carla Burke, Kate's grandmother.

Said Sarah, "I like math, so it's a fun card game for me." Added Kate, "It's fun to sit at the table and know what you're doing."

Lance LeCesne, 18, of Houston has been playing bridge for 11 years and has logged time at the tables in five NABCs. He learned from his grandfather, Errol LeCesne, a retired teacher. His partner for Thursday was his brother, Jon, 13, who has been playing for two years. Jon said he enjoys bridge because "I like to think about it."

Back for a third time at the Youth NABC are eight members of the Wexel clan of Lilburn GA – mother Laurie plus Ruth, Jacob, Analise, Peter, Mary, Isaac and Youth Pairs winners David Soukup and Hakan Berk.

Phoebe.

Laurie Wexel said the children learned the game through Atlanta Junior Bridge, and they play regularly in club games in the Atlanta area as well as taking lessons.

Laurie Wexel, mother of 14, said she brought only half of her offspring to New Orleans. "I would have had the older children playing if I had known about this earlier," she said.

Wexel said all her children are home-schooled and she much prefers that they participate in thinking games like bridge rather than watching television or playing video games.

Daughter Ruth said she has enjoyed the Youth NABCs because "I like meeting new people."

Two other young players from Atlanta – Khari King and Chris Brown, both 13 – said a friend's grandmother taught them to play. "We go to her house every Saturday to practice," King said.

The two have been playing for about three years. Chris is a fan of duplicate because he has discovered that, even with bad cards, "if you use your brain you can still win."

Khari added, "I like bridge because it challenges you."

Sarah Carl and Brandon Cavalier won the Cardroom Pairs Thursday afternoon.

Youth Teams winners: Tage Kelkar, Aidan Kedzierski, Oren Kriegel and Amanda Pham.

Don't miss the 9 a.m. talk by Louis Sachar, author of The Cardturner, a novel about young people playing bridge. Details on next page.

Bridge players are like animals?

Who is more flexible, a young bridge player or a ferret? Who can crawl faster, a snake or a boy?

If there was an Olympic contest pitting animals versus humans, who would win? That was the question the ZOOMobile from the local Audubon Institute asked when they came to the NABC yesterday.

The ZOOMobile staff amused and informed bridge players after Thursday's game. Audience participation was encouraged, and bridge players asked questions, picked up bugs from the floor with tongs, jumped like a frog and were entertaining and entertained.

After the demonstration, young bridge players lined up to touch and pet the animals.

The Olympics ended in a 3--3 tie, so the youngsters were left wondering about the answer to the original question.

Bridge players touch a skink held by a zoo attendant. The ZOOMobile from the local Audubon Institute brought animals to the NABC yesterday.

Friday, July 30 and Saturday, July 31

10:00 am-noon

Location: Mardi Gras Ballroom, Salon E

Bridge for Parents – Start to Play

This class is designed for new players or players that haven't played in many years that want to learn something about the "new" bridge. Learn the basics concepts of the game, value of suits and cards and basic hand evaluation. You will learn how an auction proceeds, what a "trump" contract is, as well as notrump. You will also learn what to bid and how high to bid. There will be example hands to practice illustrating what is covered each day.

The instructor, Suzanne Cliffe, teaches many beginners and intermediate players at the bridge club in New Orleans. She also directs games designed specifically to introduce players to duplicate bridge.

Bridge for Parents – Advance Your Game

These lessons are for parents that know the basics of the game and want to improve their skills. Using a PowerPoint presentation, the focus will be on planning the play, the play of the hand in both no trump and suit contracts, and hand reevaluation after each bid. Drawing trumps and when to delay drawing trumps will be covered as well.

The instructor, Jennie Sauviac, is a Gold Life Master, an ACBL Sectional Director and certified bridge teacher and cruise director.

World champion Debbie Rosenberg with her son, Kevin, right, and Jeff Schwartz.

Playing "bridge" with cards from the bidding box: David Soukup, Arlington VA; Ben Kristensen, Duluth MN; Hakan Berk, Potomac MD, and Burke Snowden, Fort Collins CO.

Tournament Directors Dianne Barton-Paine and Nancy Watkins

Irene Williams of Elk Point SD and Ruth Kristensen of Duluth MN fill out their convention cards.

Two for the price of one

By Phillip Alder

One of the "unknown" gems of the planet is Croatia. The food is good, the wine is excellent (and cheap!), and the locals are friendly.

The 10th European Youth Pairs was played in Opatija from July 15 to 17, a picturesque town in the northwest corner of the country, on the Adriatic and about 90 minutes drive from Venice. There were three series: juniors (under 26), girls (under 26), and youngsters (under 20). The winners – Junior: Dinos Doxiadis and Vassilis Vroutis from Greece;

Girls: Magdalena Holeksa and Isabela Weinhold from Poland, Youngsters: Daniel Gullberg and Johan Karlsson from Sweden (Daniel is not related to European champion Tommy Gullberg).

This was an interesting deal from the first day:

Dir: West ♠ 7 3
 Vul: N-S ♥ A 7 4
 ♦ 7 5 4 3 2
 ♣ 9 8 2

 ♥ K J 10 8 5 3
 ♦ A 6
 ♣ A 10 5 4

West	North	East	South
2♠	Pass	Pass	2NT
Pass	Pass	Pass

Your partner leads the ♦J. After winning with the ♦A, what would you do next?

Doxiadis and Vroutis were doing well halfway through the final session, but then had several bad boards in a row. But they moved ahead in the penultimate round. On the first board they made 3♥ when their opponents misdefended to gain 19 matchpoints out of 28. Then came this deal:

Dir: South ♠ J 8 3 2
 Vul: E-W ♥ 9 8
 ♦ 6 2
 ♣ K J 9 8 5

♠ A Q 9
 ♥ J 10 7
 ♦ A 5 3
 ♣ 7 4 3 2

 ♥ Q 6 5 3
 ♦ J 9 8 7
 ♣ A Q 10 6

♠ K 10 7 6 4
 ♥ A K 4 2
 ♦ K Q 10 4

West	North	East	South
	Vroutis		Doxiadis
Pass	3♣ (1)	Dbl	1♠
Dbl	Pass	Pass	4♠

(1) 6-9 points with four spades.

West led the ♣4, second-highest from three or four low cards: jack, queen, ruff.

Now Doxiadis played the ♦K. West won with his ace and led another club: 8, 10, ruff. South cashed his top hearts, ruffed a heart in the dummy and bravely played a diamond to his 10. When the finesse worked, declarer cashed his ♦Q to give this position:

♠ J 8 3
 ♣ K 9

♠ A Q 9

 ♥ Q
 ♣ A 6

♠ K 10 7

South ruffed a diamond (West discarding a club) and ruffed a club for his ninth trick. Then Doxiadis led his last heart to ensure one more trump trick for his contract.

Plus 590 was worth 22 matchpoints out of 28 and the title.

Life Master news

Alison Andrews of San Antonio TX is now a Silver Life Master, having gone past 1000 masterpoints in the Wednesday-Thursday Knockout Teams. Andrews played with Sandy Smith and Len and Linda Blake, all of Birmingham AL.

Max Glick of Ann Arbor MI became a Life Master in the Thursday afternoon side game playing with Zach Scherr, also of Ann Arbor.

Ed Cappell of Thibodeaux LA is now a Gold Life Master, as he surpassed 2500 masterpoints playing in a side game on Thursday.

This was the full deal on the defense problem:

♠ 7 3	♠ 9
♥ A 7 4	♥ K J 10 8 5 3
♦ 7 5 4 3 2	♦ A 6
♣ 9 8 2	♣ A 10 5 4
♠ Q 10 8 6 4 2	♠ A K J 5
♥ Q	♥ 9 6 3
♦ J 10 9	♦ K Q 8
♣ Q J 6	♣ K 7 3

Sitting East was Graeme Robertson from England, playing with Ben Paske. Robertson placed declarer with ♦K Q x, and if he did have that holding, he was threatening to take four diamond tricks – but only if dummy had an entry card after the ♦K and ♦Q had been unblocked.

So, after winning the first trick with the ♦A (yes, he might well have ducked), Robertson shifted to the heart king.

This worked better than Robertson could have expected when partner turned out to have the singleton ♥Q. Declarer could not do better than take dummy's ♥A and play a club toward his king to escape for down two. But that still gave East-West 55.57 matchpoints out of 70.

Perhaps you think that was an easy play to find. But note two things. First, the ♥K lead would have worked if declarer had ♥Q x. Only if South had ♥Q x x would it not have helped. And the ♥K was a rarity – a card that simultaneously produced two coups.

First, it was a Merrimac Coup because it dislodged dummy's entry card. And second, it was a Crocodile Coup because it swallowed partner's singleton queen. Two for the price of one.

Unless otherwise noted, strat breaks for all stratified events are: A (3000+), B (750-3000), C (0-750). For strati-flighted events, A/X are 5000+/0-5000 and play in their own game; B (1500-3000), C (750-1500) and D (0-750) play in their own game.
 All stratification will be based on the average for the pair or team. In any event or flight with an upper limit, no individual player's masterpoint total may exceed that upper limit.
