Caddies have new job description

"Caddy, please!" For years, players' call for a caddy has been heard at bridge tournaments. These days? Not as much.

Caddies used to collect pickup slips with scores written on them and take them to the director. The director would enter them into his computer, and eventually determine the winners. With wireless scoring devices, caddies aren't needed to do that. The devices transfer the result for each board immediately after it's played.

"Caddies are still needed," says Caddy Director Pam Hughes. "They don't collect scoring slips, but they are still needed to do other things."

Hughes says that after the games, caddies clean up and reset the room. When an event changes from a knockout to a Swiss Teams, only one-half the boards are needed. Caddies also pack up the pre-duplicated boards, rubber band them, put in a box and get them ready to send back to ACBL Headquarters. Caddies are still needed, of course, to shuttle boards from one table to another in Swiss Team games.

Hughes explains that the two head caddies, Tony and Trevor Ames of Minnetonka MN, are National Head Caddies who've done this many times before. There are 16 other caddies who take turns working, so that about eight of them will be on duty each day. Most of them are local, some are college students.

"The caddies here are an older group of kids," says Hughes. "They are a fantastic group and are some of the best we've had -- very mature and focused."

There used to be a group of kids that traveled to each of the three NABCs. When asked what happened, Hughes says, "They grew up."

The Caddy Chair at this tournament is local coordinator Jim Radcliffe. "He recruited good kids," says Hughes. "He has jumped in and helped. I'm not used to getting so much involvement by local coordinators at the work level. He's a real sweetheart."

Hughes has been attending NABCs since 2004. Jackie Matthews, Hughes' mother, is usually the Caddy Director. She is at home recovering from surgery. Hughes says her mother has missed only three NABC tournaments since she started coming in 1983.

Borker, Jansma win Blue Ribbon Pairs

Jay Borker and Jan Jansma, lying second after the first final session, had a solid 60.83% game in the last round of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs to win by more than a board.

Second went to Jansma's countrymen from the Netherlands, Bas Drijver and Sjoert Brink. In third were Brazilians Miguel Villas-Bois and Joapaulo Campos, the leaders after the first final session.

Jansma and Borker finished with a score of 1241.51 to 1201.22 (38 top) for second.

The win was the first North American Championship for Borker, a semi-retired stock and

Jones and Levene win Mini-Blues

A 25-year partnership put together six solid sessions to claim the 2010 Mini-Blue Ribbon Pairs. The winners, Doug Levene and Mark Jones of Birmingham AL, were first after day one, slipped slightly to third after day two, but scored 63.65% in the first final session to reclaim the lead, and scored 59.49% in the second final to win by nearly three boards. Their final score of 1056.68 was 91.11 matchpoints ahead of second. Top on a board was 31.

Jones was second in the 0-5000 Spingold Knockout Teams earlier this year in New Orleans. The pair was tied for third-fourth in the same event the year before.

Stewart column dumped by Los Angeles Times

On Monday, Frank Stewart's syndicated bridge column was discontinued in the Los Angeles Times, where it has appeared for 50 years, counting the 25 years that Sheinwold wrote it prior to his collaboration with Stewart. The newspaper also cancelled its chess column, citing a marketing study that indicated a low percentage of readership for both features.

By noon that day, The Times had received nearly 100 e-mail and phone complaints about the decision on the bridge column. Stewart contacted friends Eddie Kantar and Danny Kleinman, who helped assist with the campaign.

Stewart also contacted officers of District 23 and heard from Rand Pinsky, the ACBL Board member.

At last report, the newspaper's management was reconsidering the move but had not made a final decision.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

Dear New Players—

Get another cup of coffee because, I'm sorry to say, today's column is no laughing matter. I have received two e-mails (two!) that have rendered me speechless. It's true. My Faithful Readers, I know you've never seen this happen before, so I'll let you read them yourselves. By the time you finish, I may have myself together enough to comment.

Dear Marti,

My friends and I have played bridge only in our retirement community and this is our first time playing duplicate. We saw the ads for this tournament and saw that there were special games for beginners, so we thought we'd try our luck.

Everything has been wonderful! The people have been so nice, the directors are so kind. And we've never seen anything like this! (I guess we're 'fresh off the farm.') And we're so excited! Two of us came in fourth yesterday!

Here's our problem. We've had the director called a couple times because of our bidding, and we don't know what to do.

In our group at home, none of understand notrump and we don't like it, so we just decided never to bid it. Are there rules that say you have to use notrump? We haven't had a problem at our community and can't understand why the opponents are upset with us. At home, no one uses it.

Signed,
Confused

Folks, you just can't make this stuff up. I haven't the slightest idea how to answer this. I'd be very grateful if any of you out there could help me. I'm desperate.

In the same vein, once I was visiting the Deep South, and had been invited to play at the home of a lovely, gracious woman. During the course of the evening, I doubled the opponents for penalty. There was a collective gasp from the two tables. Our hostess patted me on the arm and said, dripping honey, "Darlin', we just don't do that here, but you're from the North and we forgive you." I didn't know what to say then, either.

And then there's this second e-mail.

Dear Marti,

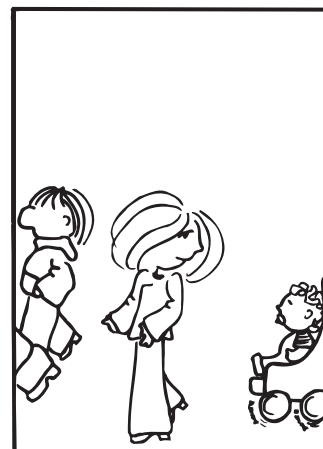

Here's something that happened at our table last night. My partner and I were passing throughout the auction. One opponent made a bid and when it was his partner's time to bid, she stared at her partner for quite a few seconds as she pulled her card out of the box. It seems to me that she passed an awful lot of information with that meaningful stare. Do you see anything wrong with that? Yes, no and why? Thanks for helping me.

Signed,
Wondering in West

This one made me speechless because I hardly knew where to begin. There are about 19 different Laws against drawing your partner's attention to a specific bid. The player was obviously telling his partner that there was something special about the bid. Who knows what, but it is egregious behavior, and that player should be taken to the woodshed for a good spanking.

The way you handle this is very simple. Repeat after me: "Director, please." Directors are trained to handle this the best way; that's why we get the big bucks (and are all prematurely gray).

I can remember one other time as a director that I was left (relatively) wordless. There was once a player who was incensed with me because I wouldn't punish opponents who passed their partner's forcing bids. He couldn't get it through his head that my job wasn't to punish people for bad bids! He never got it that when they pass each other's forcing bids, it's almost a sure thing that he would get a top! He was more interested in seeing them punished. I offered to bar them from all future games, and refuse them access to the Oreos. He thought that was fitting, and didn't seem to get it that I was kidding.

And finally, one final tip to help you get those tops. Be very nice to your opponents at the end of the round. Make them all happy, compliment their play and personalities. That way, they'll be all zippy and confident as they face other opponents, playing their best after they've played you. See? I told you I would help you.

Please let me know what I should say to our notrump-less friends. I really am at a loss. And please keep those e-mails coming. You're the greatest, and I'd have nothing to write about without you. mronemus@comcast.net

Opening lead: ♠Q.

Bidding commentary: Your jump to 3NT shows an opening bid, usually 12-16 high-card points, with at least one stop in the opponent's suit.

Play commentary: When they are in the bidding, it really helps to start by adding your HCP to partner's (26) telling you how many they have (14). As the opening bidder figures to have at least 12, East must be looking at a queen at most. East cannot have two jacks. Why? Because dummy has two jacks and West must have the ♠J.

The critical heart holdings in the West hand are the singleton and doubleton king. If West has three hearts to the king, you cannot go wrong no matter which heart you lead, and if West has four to the king, you cannot go right as long as West covers the queen. The way to cater to the stiff king or the doubleton king is to start by leading a low heart, not the queen!

If the king appears you have four heart tricks and if it does not stick in the 10 and duck a club, which can't hurt but might work out great if West has K-Q doubleton. Say nothing exciting happens in clubs, such as West winning the low club with a high honor, and they knock out your ♠A. Play a club to the ace and continue with a low heart the second time. If the king appears, win the ace, cross back to the queen and then cross to the dummy's ♦K, to cash the ♥J, your ninth trick. Play hearts the same if the suit looked like J-x-x facing A-Q-10-x.

(1) West asked North about the meaning of South's 3♠ call. North answered, "We have no agreement. I'm taking it as Michaels."

Facts: The contract was 6♣ doubled by South. South made six for a score of plus 1090 after the lead of the ♠Q. As stated above, South was told by the director that North's comment about taking the 3♠ call as Michaels was Unauthorized Information (UI). He was told to proceed with the auction. South's intent of 3♠ was for partner to bid 3NT with a spade stopper so as to "right side" the contract. If North did not bid 3NT, South planned to bid clubs.

Director's Ruling: If South's bid had been explained as South intended, North could have passed West's double. By bidding 4♥, South should assume North had long hearts and was willing to play there. It is not clear how North would show long hearts and a good hand versus long hearts and a weak hand, however, and pass was considered a logical alternative to bidding over 4♥. LAW 16B1 and the unauthorized information made it more attractive to bid on. Score adjusted to 4♥, making six for a score of North-South plus 480.

The Appeal:

The Appealing Side: South's intention when he bid 3♠ was to play 3NT if his partner could bid it, or else bid his clubs. He did not consider passing 4♥ to be a logical action versus showing his solid club suit.

The Non-Appealing Side: East stated that since

North freely bid 4♥ over the double, pass was a logical alternative to the 5♣ bid. As it is, hearts is a quite attractive suit in which to play, and if North did not have extra values (♦A and a singleton spade), North-South's best contract would have been 4♥.

The Decision: South possessed unauthorized information that North treated the 3♠ bid as Michaels and bid 4♥ expecting South to have five hearts. South is not allowed to use that UI, but must instead bid as if he heard his partner explain the 3♠ bid as "he has a good hand with a long, solid minor and wants me to bid 3NT if I have a spade stopper." After the double of 3♠, North would have no reason to bid an indifferent heart suit, so the 4♥ bid should show good hearts, and South's ♥Q 9 is quite adequate support. There is no particular reason to think that North-South have a slam, so pass is a logical alternative to the 5♣ bid. Thus, the committee adjusted the table result to 4♥, making six.

The committee discussed the merit of the appeal. Because all members of the committee quickly reached the same conclusion, they did not consider there to be much merit to the appeal. The director initially ruled that the table result of 6♣ doubled making stood before changing the result to 4♥ making six, however, so it is understandable that South thought he should be allowed to bid his solid six-card suit. Therefore, the committee did not assign an Appeal Without Merit Warning (AWMW).

The committee: Doug Doub, chairman, Dick Budd, Barry Rigal, Ed Lazarus and Tom Carmichael.

Dissenting Opinion by Tom Carmichael and Barry Rigal: We agree with the decision, but not the failure to award an Appeal Without Merit Warning (AWMW). It's time to draw a line in the sand. The right to appeal, enshrined in the Laws, does not give carte blanche to appeal because you don't like the decision. You must have a reason other than the subjective dissatisfaction with the result. If the Tournament Director (TD) tells you that there was a logical alternative to the action you took (one which was suggested by Unauthorized Information (UI)), and the committee unanimously upholds that view, you must expect to get an AWMW. In our opinion, if we are dealing with an appeal by the offending side in a UI case, the obligation is especially strong not to bring an appeal when the TDs have determined your action was tainted by UI. Inexperience is not grounds for avoiding an AWMW. If you know enough to play Life Master Pairs, or to appeal, then you can expect to be treated like everyone else.

(1) Break in tempo (BIT) of 8 to 10 seconds.

Facts: The final contract was 6♣ by North, making six after the lead of the ♦A. The score for North-South was plus 1370. Both sides agreed that there was a 8-10 second BIT after East's 5♠ bid.

The director's ruling: The director determined that there was a 8—10 second BIT by South after East's 5♠ bid. The director decided that South's BIT suggested further action. The director ruled that pass by North was not a logical alternative to bidding 6♣, but that double of 5♠ was. The director's polling of other players indicated that none passed but two players doubled 5♠. Because doubling 5♠ was a logical alternative to bidding 6♣, the director adjusted the result to 5♠ doubled, down one, for a final result of North-South plus 200.

The appeal: North-South appealed the director's ruling and North-South attended the hearing. North testified that as a result of his three low spades and the opponent's bidding, he was able to visualize a spade void in his partner's hand. South testified that her tempo was reasonable and normal given that her partner first introduced clubs at the five level.

The decision: In order to adjust the table result pursuant to Law 16B1, the director must determine that unauthorized information was available. The key issue for the committee was whether South's pause conveyed unauthorized information to partner. The committee found that South's tempo was normal for this auction. Therefore, there was no extraneous information and North was free to bid as he pleased. Accordingly, the committee allowed the table result to stand.

The committee: Richard Popper, chair, Gail Greenberg, Tom Carmichael, David Stevenson and Gerry Marshall.

North American Swiss Team action begins today

Play begins today in the six-session Keohane North American Swiss Teams, with semifinal matches on Saturday and the final matches on Sunday.

Players will be vying for the Keohane Trophy, donated by Ethel Keohane in 1973 in memory of her husband, William H. Keohane, one of the leading New England bridge personalities.

Bill Keohane (1896-1972) was a consulting engineer, bridge teacher and bridge administrator. He served as chairman of the 1970 Summer NABC in Boston and, for many years, was chairman of the New England Individual Championship.

Keohane was elected in 1972 to a one-year term as the first District Director of the newly created District 25 (New England). He died later that year, just before he was to attend his first Board meeting.

The Keohane Trophy was presented for the Open Individual Championship until it was re-designated in 1995 by the ACBL Board of Directors for the North American Swiss Teams.

 ♣ A 9 3

Both tables in our A/X Swiss Teams match overreached somewhat to 4♥. Both Wests led a normal if unfortunate ♠K, and declarer was left to make the best of it.

At the table, South won the ♠A, drew trumps and led a spade to West's queen and a thoughtful 10 from East, Alex Ornstein. That persuaded Sue Picus to shift to the ♦J, and now declarer was dead whatever he did.

At our table, declarer made the defense more challenging by ducking the first trick. Now should East follow with the ♠10 as suit preference? I guess so, but East didn't think of that, and left West to do the best she could. She tried the ♦A, but now the defense was dead. When West continued with the ♦J, South could duck, and even if the defenders shifted, declarer could use a spade and heart entry to ruff out the ♦K, so both club losers eventually went away on dummy's winners.

Double dummy in real life*By Barry Rigal*

Any winner at the bridge table will tell you that double-dummy problems have nothing to do with real life. In fact, as Martin Fleisher and Mike Kamil demonstrated in the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs qualifier (see page 7), double-dummy themes do occur at the table, albeit in simplified form.

When I saw the Fleisher-Kamil deal, I remembered that Hugh Darwen's double-dummy site has a similar theme. I'm not good enough to remember precisely whose deal it was, but (slightly modifying the clubs in the actual ending), consider this position, which arose in a composed deal. It's almost identical to the six-card ending actually reached by Fleisher and Kamil:

 ♦ Q 9
 ♣ K 10

♠ — ♠ —
 ♥ Q 10 4 ♥ —
 ♦ — ♦ J 8
 ♣ Q J 6 ♣ 9 8 7 5

 ♣ A 4 3

When declarer plays the ♣K, East unblocks the ♣7, West the ♣J. Now comes the ♣10 to the ace, East playing the 8 and West the queen. On the ♥A, West follows and East completes the unblock by playing the ♣9 to let West win the ♣6 to avoid the endplay.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, the ACBL requires that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an Announcement, use the Announcement word (such as "transfer") and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

A player who Alerts or Announces a bid must make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or Announcement has been made.

Blue Ribbon blues*By Barry Rigal*

On this deal from the second semifinal session of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, declarer had reason to wish he had opposed less-astute defenders, in this case Brian Platnick and John Diamond.

Diamond led the ♠3: 8, 4, 10. Using normal count, Platnick had shown three spades, so the play continued with a heart to the jack, which held, then a diamond to the jack and Diamond's queen. A second spade knocked out declarer's ace, followed by a losing heart finesse.

Now on the run of the spades, declarer was squeezed down to ♦K 5 and ♣J 8 7. Platnick had pitched his heart and an encouraging (he hoped) ♣4. Diamond shifted to a club after cashing his spades, and the defenders were able to endplay declarer in clubs to lead away from the ♦K. Down three

District 9 offers goodies

Complimentary coffee, decaf coffee, hot tea and orange juice are available in these two places: The station in the foyer between the Grand Ballroom and Crystal Salon G will offer orange juice 10 a.m. to noon, 1 to 3 p.m. and coffee from 10 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. The station in the Cypress Ballroom Foyer offers orange juice at 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. and coffee at the same hours plus 7:30 to 10 p.m.

After the evening game, all players are invited to enjoy snacks and entertainment at 10:30 p.m. in Crystal Salon J.

Convention card reminder

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only the Standard American Yellow Card and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6-board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted. In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations.

In the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs second semifinal, this board presented the opportunity for the Scots to score big. Barnet Shenkin was the beneficiary. He opened 1♥ as South in second seat, heard a Bergen 3♦ raise and bid 3♥ to play. The defenders led a spade, won by East, who shifted to a club. Shenkin finessed, and West won to lead a second club.

Shenkin won, drew three rounds of trumps, then cashed the ♠J and ruffed his third club in dummy. At this point, East knew South's shape, and South had seen the ♠A K and the ♥J from a passed hand, so he advanced the ♦J, and when East ducked, hoping not to give away the show in case South had the ♦K 10, Shenkin let it run for plus 140.

Gerald Haase as West passed over 1♥ and heard a raise to 4♥. This came back to him, and he doubled. North redoubled. Haase could not stand the heat, so he bid 4♠, doubled by North.

At a second table, Haase ruffed the heart lead and played a diamond to the 9 and king. When a trump came back, he won and led a club to the jack, which held. At this point, the play departed from double dummy, though declarer ended up with plus 590.

As Haase pointed out, the early club play marks South with the club length, thus North has the diamond length. If you play a second trump, the defenders may play a third and cause you some problems. If you don't, there may be a club ruff against you.

The winning line is to run the ♦10 after the ♣J wins. Whether North covers or not, declarer can simply draw the second round of trumps and play on clubs. The defenders can't stop declarer's taking three tricks in each minor.

* "Scots Wha Hae" (Scottish Gaelic for "Scots Who Have") is a patriotic song of Scotland that served for a long time as an unofficial national anthem of the country. It has been largely supplanted by "Scotland the Brave" and "Flower of Scotland."

It's complicated

By Brent Manley

On this deal from the second qualifying session of the Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, Martin Fleisher and Mike Kamil looked deeply into the deal and came up with a sensational defensive plan. The opponents were Jeff Hand and Gail Greenberg.

(1) Weak hand with spades or a game-forcing balanced hand.

Fleisher led the ♥Q, ducked all around as Kamil gave count with the 6. Now the ♠10 went to dummy's king, followed by the ♠2: Q, A, 4. The ♠9 put Fleisher back on lead (Kamil pitched the ♥9), and he exited with his fourth spade, taken in dummy with the 8 as Kamil discarded the ♥8.

Greenberg played the ♦6 from dummy, putting in the 10 when Kamil followed with the 4. Fleisher won the king and exited with the ♦5. Greenberg took the ace in dummy, leaving this position:

 ♣ A 7 4

Greenberg played the ♣K: 2, 4, 5. Then she played the ♣10 to her ace — and Fleisher unblocked his queen. Now Greenberg could not simply exit with a club — Kamil could take the setting trick by overtaking Fleisher's ♣9 with the jack to cash the ♣8.

So Greenberg cashed the ♥A, and Kamil had to pitch a club or dummy's two diamonds would be good. Seeing what was coming, he pitched the ♣J!

Greenberg could have settled for eight tricks, but there was still a chance to make 3NT if Kamil had been dealt the ♦J 9 6 2, so she exited with her low club, hoping that Kamil would have to win and lead into dummy's diamond tenace. When Fleisher produced the ♣9, he was able to claim two down.

Nickell tries for R

Nick Nickell led his squad to victories in the 2008 and 2009 Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams, and will attempt to make it three in a row in this year's event. Playing with Nickell are Ralph Katz (who replaced the late Richard Freeman, a member of the 2008 squad), Bob Hamman, Zia Mahmood, Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell.

The runners-up in 2009 were Michal Kwiecien, Alexander Smirnov, Rafal Jagniewski and Josek Piekarek.

Curt Reisinger

The event is contested for the Reisinger Trophy (the Chicago Trophy until 1965). It is a six-session open team-of-four event scored by board-a-match with two qualifying sessions, two semifinal sessions and two final sessions. It was contested as a four-session championship until 1966.

The event began in 1929 as the North American Open Team Championship and the prize was the Chicago Trophy, donated by the Auction Bridge Club of Chicago. (In 1928, the open team competition was for the Harold S. Vanderbilt Cup.)

The Chicago Trophy was replaced in 1965 by the Reisinger Memorial Trophy, donated by the Greater New York Bridge Association in memory of Curt H. Reisinger.

Reisinger (1891–1964), New York City, was a principal patron of contract bridge and the American Contract Bridge League in the early years of both.

Reisinger was a great-grandson of Anheuser and a grandson of Busch, co-founders of the brewery from which he inherited great wealth. That wealth enabled him to become a stalwart financial supporter of the game, as well as a noted philanthropist on a far larger scale.

In the years when there was often a struggle to meet the League's modest payroll, Reisinger was often called upon and never failed to help with a loan or an outright gift. His support made possible several early contract bridge tournaments, clubs and books.

Among the positions in which he served were director of the United States Bridge Association, president of the Greater New York Bridge Association and chairman of the ACBL. In 1953, Reisinger was named ACBL Honorary Member.

The Insider

The Insider has been writing his missives nightly for about 12 NABCs. He just noticed this morning that there is a certain predictability to the Daily Bulletin. The front page has the previous day's news. The back cover has the bridge schedule. The inside back cover has tomorrow's schedule. Page two lists the meetings, I/N speakers, food and entertainment. There are usually a couple of appeals cases, a whole lot of results, some ads and maybe a bracket sheet in the middle. The one thing that changes from day to day is the location of this masterpiece of literary majestic proportions. The Bulletin Boys seem to play a game of hide-the-Insider. Even those six Insider fans who can't start their day without reading the Inside information sometimes find it hard to find their peculiar addiction. Page three, page six, page ten, page thirteen — who knows where the Bulletin Boys are going to bury the Insider? Not that the Insider is complaining. He is just happy that, day after day, the Boys are willing to include his attempts at humor, irony and flights of fantasy anywhere in their tabloid — and the Insider means that in the best way possible.

Another thing that amazes the Insider is how one day a top-notch super-star player can be playing in the semi-finals of a major National Event and the next day the Insider spots them making that long, long walk down to the two-session pairs game or even a side game. The days of running up against a world champion in the afternoon single session KO are not gone from the world of bridge. Enjoy those opportunities when they come your way.

And, most amazing of all is that the S.C. has left the building, relying on Boss Baum and the rest of the ACBL staff to run the final days of the 2010 Fall NABC without his sage advice, his rapier wit and his iron-fisted, head-strong control of everything ACBL. We'll all try to muddle along without his guidance now that he has returned to Metro Horn Lake. Hawk's Landing has already noticed the reduced steak and single malt revenue. The headquarters staff in anxious to wish the S.C. well as he departs on his 159-day twice around the world cruise sailing from Tunica MS on December 12th. The Insider has been assigned seal clean-up duty until he leaves for Louisville in March. Hannah and her friends there hope you will all come and get lucky in Kentucky.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty.

In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

bond trader who lives in Greenwich CT. Jansma, a former math teacher who now plays bridge and poker full time, lives in Spijkensisse, near Rotterdam.

Borker and Jansma were second after the first final session of the Blue Ribbon last year in San Diego but ended up eighth. The partnership was formed at the suggestion of New York player Chris Willenken.

Jansma had high praise for Borker's part in the winning effort: "Jay played incredibly well."

Second place was claimed by Dean Panagopoulos of Lynn MA and Yiji Starr of Wayland MA. The Boston-area pair were leading going into the final two sessions. "Can we make this a four-session event?" joked Starr. They had an average game in the first final before rebounding with 59.68% in the second final. Their score was 965.51.

In third were John Miller of Vienna VA and Jay Kelkar of Oak Hill VA. Their score was 956.56.

Yiji Starr and Dean Panagopoulos, second in the Mini Blue Ribbons.

Electronic Device Policy

The electronic device policy is revised as follows:

1. For all NABC+ rated events at NABCs: Electronic devices, including but not limited to, phones, cameras, PDAs, and others capable of sending or receiving electronic communication are excluded from the playing areas during any session of play. This does not apply to health-related equipment.

2. For all events at an NABC other than a NABC+ rated event: Except for health-related equipment, or by permission of the Director-in-Charge of the tournament, cell phones, audible pagers or similar equipment may not be operated or operable in any manner in the playing area during a session of play. Any such equipment must not be visible during the session. Sponsoring organizations of other ACBL-sanctioned events are encouraged to adopt a similar policy.

3. These restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, play recorders (except those designated by ACBL) and kibitzers and are in force throughout any actual playing session or segment of play.

4. A violation of any of the restrictions in numbers 1 and 2 above will result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense will result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team. Kibitzers violating this policy will be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

Monitoring

At this and future North American Championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. Please summon a director if a problem occurs at the table.

This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Disaster in Denmark

Part 2

By Steve Garner

Sixteen strong pairs convened the first week of November for the inauguration of the 2010 Copenhagen Pairs Invitational. It drew an international field consisting of

(in descending geographical order) Gromov-Shanurin, Russia; Helgemo-Helness and Brogeland-Saelensminde, Norway; Bertheau-Nystrom, Sweden; Wrang-Ventin Sweden/Spain; Askgard-Bjarnarson, Auker-Christiansen and Blakset-Ron, Denmark; Auker-von Arnim, Denmark/Germany; Carroll-Hanlon, Ireland; Hallberg-Cronier, England/France; Jassem-Martens, Poland; Welland-Zia and Garner-Weinstein, USA;

Assael-Zorlu, Turkey; Bocchi-Madala, Italy/Argentina.

Scoring was based upon IMPs across the field for each 10-board match with the high and low result being thrown out. Forty IMPs would be the average score each round. Eighty IMPs a blitz. Cash prizes would be awarded the top three finishers. This is the second part of the report. Part one was in issue No. 5

Round 8 presented two play problems. The first one:

- ♠ Q 8 4 3
- ♥ 8 4 2
- ♦ A 4
- ♣ A 6 3 2
- ♠ A K J 9
- ♥ K 9 7 6
- ♦ 8 2
- ♣ K 10 8

Eight out of eight tables landed in a near – hopeless 4♠ with the ♦K lead. Howie won the diamond and led a heart to the king which held – the first bit of fortune.

He then drew trumps, which split 3-2 (the second bit of fortune) and exited with heart. East, who started with ♥A J x, won the jack, cashed the ace and shifted to the ♣Q. The opponents could have arranged for either hand to win the third heart trick, so it was clear to Howie he needed to play RHO to have started with ♣Q 9 doubleton or four to the queen.

The latter was statistically more likely, so he won the king and led his 8, claiming when West's now-singleton jack popped up. Just another miracle, and well done. Five of eight declarers managed a similar line of play to win 6 IMPs.

- ♠ K Q 9 3
- ♥ A J 10 4 3
- ♦ A 3
- ♣ K Q
- ♠ A 10 7
- ♥ 9 8
- ♦ J 8 7 6
- ♣ 10 8 7 4

Do you fancy your chances in 3NT by South after a low diamond lead? RHO wins the queen and returns the 5: 7, 2, ace. You'd have been in great shape had your diamond jack won the first trick, but it's still not hopeless, assuming you can develop the heart suit.

What are the relevant holdings? Even if hearts are 3-3 with split honors, you will require two entries to your hand, so a low spade to the 10 at trick two looks attractive to me.

However, you did notice the ♥9 8, didn't you? It's a huge holding because now you need not risk the spade finesse on most other layouts. Howie rejected the spade finesse (correctly in my view), but on this deal it was the only winning line.

Only one out of five declarers found it and making 3NT was worth 12 IMPs. Minus 200 lost 4 IMPs, minus 300 lost 6 IMPs.

The players enjoyed a brief lunch break before we continued into round nine against the Irish. We were lucky to win 3 IMPs on this deal:

- ♠ A K J 10 8 6 ♥ A Q J 7 ♦ 6 ♣ 10 4.

You open 1♠. Partner bids 2♣. The auction continues 2♥ – 2NT; 3♠ – 4♠. Do you invite slam or just drive it in?

John Carroll simply bid Blackwood, found partner with an ace and the trump queen and ended in 6♠. Partner held ♠Q 5 ♥6 2 ♦K Q 9 2 ♣A K J 9 3, so slam was very reasonable if the ♦A ace was onside and basically on a heart finesse if it wasn't. Nothing worked, but six of eight pairs bid the losing slam so it was only a small loss for the Irish.

A pre-tournament favorite showed up for round 10.

Would you bid 4♦ with Howie's hand? You certainly prefer a heart lead against a club contract, but it may involve partner if you have a decent save. Looking at my hand and thinking ahead, I was planning to bid 5♥ over Madala's presumed raise to 4♠. I certainly didn't want Bocchi to bid Blackwood. But Madala rebid 5♣ and I had second thoughts.

Did I want to push them into slam? I hated the idea of having to save in 6♥ or 7♥ if the opponents were about to play at the five level. I passed and soon lamented a missed opportunity. A 300 save would have been worth 6 IMPs and even a phantom sacrifice at the six level would have netted a few IMPs. If Bocchi had chosen to compete to 5♠, three rounds of hearts would promote a trump trick for East and give us the only plus our direction. Instead, we lost 2 IMPs for minus 640.

Shortly after that, you pick up ♠6 ♥A Q 10 6 2 ♦A J 9 3 ♣10 9 3.

At favorable vulnerability, partner opens 1♦ and RHO overcalls 1♠. You bid 2♥, and LHO jumps to 4♠. Partner continues with 5♣.

Do you or don't you? You have fine support for diamonds, but must be worried about a slow club loser. Half the field bid slam and found partner with ♠K Q ♥— ♦K Q 8 5 4 2 ♣A J 8 7 6, so it had no play.

It was unlucky to find partner with the that spade holding. Bocchi-Madala avoided the slam and we lost 6 IMPs for minus 400.

Round 11 offered a sweet hand to declare:

(1) Good heart raise.

(2) Last train.

North opened 1♥ (a common opener in their system) and soon found himself in 6♥ with the ♦K lead. How should he play? A strong line of play is based upon West holding the ♠K. He played the ♦A, pitching a club, diamond ruff, heart to the ace and another diamond ruff. Now a second trump to dummy's king. Assuming East shows out, club to the ace, club to the king and a club ruff establishing the suit. Now a trump to West who will be endplayed in spades. This line does not take into consideration 4-1 clubs or the fact that the opponents don't always have a seven-card suit for their preempts. Nystrom took a simple line, winning the opening lead and then taking an immediate club finesse through the non-preemptor. The Swedes gained 13 IMPs as they were the only pair in slam.

We held these cards the last round of the day:

It always feels like I'm about to enter No Man's Land when I compete to four of a minor. Nothing good ever seems to happen and I seldom have a hand that fits partner's. Maybe that's why I've heard Zia label it a "nothing bid."

This deal is a case in point. Generally speaking, I abhor overcalling at the two level with this type of hand: 5-3-3-2 with three-card length and slow high cards in an opponent's suit. On the plus side, I'm non-vulnerable, so I decide to dip in. Martens makes a preemptive 3♥ raise and Howie elects to raise clubs. Disaster! Trumps break 4-1 and I end minus 50 for 2 IMPs away. Bidding 4♣ with 3 low trumps seems a bit misguided to me. Will Howie have ♠ x x x x ♥ x x ♦ x x x ♣ K Q x x the next time? Surely a responsive double gives partner better options. We may backdoor our way into spades or notrump, and how bad can that be? In practice, I think I have a fairly easy pass opposite a responsive double, and we'd have been happy with the result: plus 300 on defense would have yielded 7 IMPs.

It has been another disappointing day. After many losing decisions, a few clear errors and no gifts from the opposition, we have slumped to 11th place with the cellar not that many IMPs away. Day one leaders have extended their lead: Bertheau-Nystrom – 567, Bocchi-Madala – 517, Helgemo-Helness – 513. The bright spot of the day for us will undoubtedly be our dinner with the Wellands and Zia at a restaurant called Kokkeriet, serving a modern style of French and Danish cuisine. We soon arrive and I spot a tuna mousse and a Monkfish marinated in a pumpkin and mussel juice on the menu that sound delightful, as does the salted baked celery and truffle. We are all foodies, and perhaps that is why we so enjoy the European tournament schedule. Finishing bridge play by 7:30 and following it with an interesting and relaxing dinner is truly the only civilized way to live. Typically, Zia will hold court at these dinners, and I always admonish him for being the ultimate result merchant at the bridge table. I do get a giggle or two when he accuses Howie of bidding like an old woman, and later I give him all due credit for remaining the best opening leader in the universe, second place existing on some distant planet, many light years away. It's almost midnight as we finish dinner and make our way back to the hotel.

The plaza is far less lively than the previous night, but the air is clean and crisp with a slight chill. I am certain I would have absolutely no problem living here.

Day three arrives and the final hurrah is upon us. The bridge has been a disappointment, but the camaraderie among the players has been provided true enjoyment.

There are four matches to go. We start against our recent teammates, Brogeland-Saelensminde and nothing too exiting happens until I am on lead against 6NT after this auktion:

1♦ – 1♠

2♣ – 2♥

3♣ – 3♦

3NT – 5♣

6NT – Pass

What would you lead with:

♠ 9 x x x x ♥ A x x ♦ 9 8 x ♣ Q x ?

If you believe that once your ♥A is dislodged the opponents will claim, then perhaps you should attack with ♣Q, hoping partner has the king. If you believe anything else, you should try a passive spade. At the table I stupidly led a heart, presenting declarer with his 12th trick. Anything but a heart would have worked. Where is Zia when I need him?

We continue to do nothing else wrong and receive poor field protection on a couple of deals (perhaps the field is getting tired also) for a dismal round score of 20. Three matches to go.

I would be amiss, biased and a poor sport after ragging on my poor partner throughout the confines of this report (especially since he normally makes far fewer mistakes than I do) if I neglected to include a deal my dear old friend Gerald Caravelli often referred to as "an unmitigated debacle:"

Round Thirteen vs. Gromov-Shanurin:

In my own defense (and I make no pretenses to suggest it's a good one) I will tell you my hand came perfectly sorted, just like every other round: ♠ A K ♥ A K Q 9 ♦ A K Q x ♣ J 10 9.

For years I have made a habit of picking up my hand, sorting it, counting it and then folding it back up – retaining a mental image of it during the bidding. It's a bad habit, one I undoubtedly inherited from the depths of my spotty youth (hard to break those). But on this occasion, for whatever reason, be it the lingering jet lag, a few nights of little sleep or perhaps general disinterest after being mired near the bottom of the heap throughout the Tournament, I picked up my hand and thought I surveyed a very nice balanced 23 HCP. I opened 2♣. Partner responded 2♦ (0-1 control) and I rebid 2NT (22-24), still not reviewing my hand. 3NT by partner, all pass.

LHO led the ♥4 and Howie put down ♠ x x ♥ 10 x ♦ 9 x x x x ♣ K J 7 4.

Hmm. 6♦ looks like it depends upon the club finesse. Wait a second. Crap! Now I have a 26 count. Where did that extra king come from? I ran the diamonds and came to my hand with a heart, preparing to run the ♣J.

You all come!

What? That isn't the ♣J. It's the ♠J! And the ♠10. And the ♠9. Oy! I've just turned a 5-4-4-0 26 HCP into a balanced 23. Three pairs bid 7♦, four pairs stop in six and of course, our result gets thrown out. I truly wish that was the end of the story. But for 15 years Howie has insisted we play an insane bidding sequence: 2♣ - 2♦; 4♣ as some huge 5-4-4-0 with club shortness. I've railed at him constantly to take it out of the notes because I have guaranteed it will never come up in our combined lifetimes. And now this disappointment on so many levels comes along. At least my competitors and my good-natured partner get a good chuckle. I am certain the bridge gods are still laughing.

(1) Fourth-suit forcing.

Our opponents had an accident (too little, too late, I'm afraid) and missed slam, but shockingly, so do four other pairs. Welland-Zia had what looks to me a perfectly normal auction. 6♥ is almost ironclad. Is it possible to raise to 6♥ over Zia's 5♥? Could partner have:

- ♠J x x ♥A K x x x ♦x ♣A x x x, missing the club king? I think with a minimum and 3-5-1-4 distribution, partner should raise 1♠ to 2♠, rather than rebidding 2♣. Zia's jump to 3♠ should imply extra high cards. Only Blakset-Ron get to the ironclad 6♥. Zia and one of the other Danish pairs finish in 6♠.

For the second time in the tournament the trumps split 4-1 with four to the jack onside. Again it was possible to engineer a trump coup with careful play. 1430 was worth

12 IMPs. Next, our only ghoulie of the tournament:

A very conservative 4♠ rebid by Howie. Couldn't I have three diamonds to the king and some slow club cards? Slam is clearly poor - it starts with 2-2 diamonds and then a spade guess. Half the field rested in 4♠, while the other half tried the diamond slam. Two pairs made it and two failed.

We finally face the leaders, Nystrom-Bertheau, on the penultimate round. At that point they had an insurmountable lead and there are five pairs about 100 IMPs behind them fighting it out for second place. I had high hopes on this board:

- (1) Invitational.
- (2) Rescue me.

There I was on opening lead, visions of plus 800 running through my head, but what to lead? A trump is often indicated on these misfits because a crossruff is usually the only viable option available to declarer. I was fairly certain the club ace was on my right so a club lead was certain to blow a trick, but would that trick come back? Not on this hand. Declarer won my ♣K, led ♥K and played ace and ruffed a spade. Next came the ♥Q, followed by the ♥10, pinning my partner's 9. We achieved only 200 and a very disappointing loss of 3 IMPs because four pairs played the subpar 3NT, making. A diamond lead would have produced plus 500 for us and a gain of 7 IMPs. Then our opponents bid 1NT - 3NT and you get to lead from ♠J 4 3 ♥K 9 7 ♦9 8 5 4 ♣Q 7 5.

This feels like the typical random lead problem from the Master Solver's Club. Couldn't a spade, a heart or a diamond all be right on any given occasion? Howie chose a heart. Minus 600. After the round we quickly consult the greatest opening leader in the universe. You guessed it - he led the ♠J! Partner had ♠K Q 9 6 and the ♦A. I told you there's nobody else in his league.

Last chance. We played the final round against our very dear friends Sabine and Daniela. Nothing too dramatic happens, Howie is a total handhog, declaring seven of the 10 deals and we lose by a reasonable margin. Meanwhile, the pairs in contention for second and third are creating some fireworks of their own, including this hand where Boye Brogeland pens a brand new chapter on the adventures of psychic redoubles:

- Dlr: West ♠ J 2
- Vul: E-W ♥ K Q J 5 4

Pass	3♣	All Pass

Keep in mind this was the last round. Five pairs were within striking distance of second and third place with a cash prize as incentive, so it is not shocking a few players would try to create some swings. Having little experience (or success) with psyching, I usually attempt to remain in the mainstream (Howie may disagree) but recognize that some bridge players live to dance on the edge. Psyching requires tremendous table feel and it doesn't hurt to be able to play the spots off the cards when forced to run for the exits. Brogeland is a natural, having always struck me as someone who has command of the table, taking aggressive actions and not minding the possibility of looking bad if the results turn against him. Here he took a stab, hoping to talk the opponents out of a vulnerable game. I would have bid 1♠ with Martens hand, but he passed the bidding around to his partner who bid a conservative 2♦. Had Brogeland passed, Martens would surely have converted to 2♠ and Jassem might have raised.

Double by Brogeland! He was willing to surrender 180 or 280 or 380 as long as the opponents had a vulnerable game.

Martens removed 2♦ doubled to 2♥ - a choice for Jassem to pick either spades or clubs. Jassem continued his conservative course with 2♠, which was passed around to Saelensminde, who competed with 3♣. Last chance for the Poles: Pass, pass to Martens. That seems a little strange, doesn't it?

Brogeland has made a penalty double of 2♦ and then passed 3♣? But it was too late to reevaluate, and the Poles remained totally bamboozled. The sad news for the Norwegians was that they only earned 5 IMPs. Three East-West pairs reached a spade slam that was doomed by the 5-2 diamond split. Howie and I, of course, were treated to -650 from the girls and we lost 8 IMPs.

Final standings: Bertheau-Nystrom 710, Bocchi-Madala 685, Jassem-Martens 677.

Howie and I avoided the cellar, finishing in a stellar 14th place, but I honestly have no regrets. Yes, we could have played better, but even our best would have left us far behind the leaders and results are not always of primary importance in these types of tournaments. The organizers are trying to create a competition that promotes interest in bridge, and they did a fantastic job. As players, we are simply ambassadors to the bridge community. The tournament received a lot of local press, was covered by BBO on the Internet and given a favorable review by all the participants. Kudos to everyone involved in this invitational tournament. And many thanks, Copenhagen!

Pat Janis Memorial Stratified Side Swiss Teams

Ronna Kosack tells us: Pat Janis (1937-2008) was a Bronze Life Master and the best friend and bridge partner anyone could ever want. She was a good ambassador for our game as she was always kind to her opponents as well as her partners. She is missed by her many friends in Unit 102.

Martha McGhee Bracketed KO Teams 9

Martha McGhee, a career teacher, totally immersed herself in bridge after arriving in Orlando from Maine. Her love for the game and drive to share her passion helped to create a large, solid player base for the Orlando Metropolitan Bridge Center. For 25 years, Martha has taught, directed and guided players from the 'Learn-to-Play' level to holding thousands of masterpoints. The OMBC is proud to recognize her positive impact on our club!

Gene was a man for all seasons — a Renaissance Man and a man who loved his family completely. Gene touched many lives in his law career. He served his country in the Korean War. Gene was a member of the Florida Bar for more than 50 years. He was known in his profession as an attorney's attorney. He was a member of Who's Who on American Law. He started playing bridge when five years old with his father Gene Short Sr. He was an avid bridge player who played at least five times a week. He started the Eugene and Mary Short Mentor Series for beginning players at the Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club. He was a loving husband and father. His quick wit and charm will be missed at the bridge club.
