Chilcote squad wins Senior Knockout Teams

The team captained by Mary Chilcote outscored their opponents 63-12 in the second quarter and cruised to a 174-118 victory over the squad led by Howard Hertzberg in the Senior Knockout Teams.

Two members of the Chilcote team -- Zeke Jabbour of Boca Raton FL and Russ Arnold of Miami -- won the event for the third straight time.

Chilcote, of Cleveland OH, was also playing with Billy Eisenberg, Boca Raton; Fred Hamilton, Fresno, and Tommy Sanders, Nashville.

Hertzberg, of Alpine NJ, was teamed with Robert Ryder, Caldwell NJ; Bill Esberg, Elberon NJ; Simon Kantor, Agawam MA, and Marty Baff, Beachwood OH.

The victory was the first North American championship for Chilcote, a bridge teacher and proud grandmother of eight. She came close in the Mixed Pairs in 1970, missing out on first and finishing second "because I forgot a convention."

The error was doubly frustrating because the convention she was playing was the Weiss convention (for handling opening three bids), created by Larry Weiss, who just happened to be Chilcote's partner in the Mixed Pairs.

Naturally, Chilcote was pleased at the outcome, although after six days of play she was tired. "I'm just glad it's

Moss foursome ahead in Reisinger

The four-man team captained by Mike Moss of New York had a 2.5-board lead after two qualifying sessions of the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams.

Moss and Bjorn Fallenius, also of New York, are playing with George Steiner of Seattle and Nels Erickson of Meadview AZ. They finished the day's play Friday with a score of 37.

In second with 34.5 was a California team -- Daniel and Linda Friedman and Michael Michlmayr of Orinda and Robert Munson of San Diego.

The Nick Nickell team, gunning for a fourth straight Reisinger, were 6.5 boards off the pace entering today's semifinal sessions. Nickell is playing with Richard Freeman, Eric Rodwell, Jeff Meckstroth, Bobby Wolff and Bob Hamman.

Zia out front in 1996 Player of the Year race

A win in the Open Board-a-Match Teams and a strong showing in the Blue Ribbon Pairs have propelled Zia into the lead in the 1996 Player of the Year contest.

The award goes to the player who wins the most masterpoints in nationally rated events.

Zia, of New York and Pakistan, moved ahead of David Berkowitz, the leader coming into the Fall NABC, with a total of 632.14 masterpoints.

With only the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams left to play, Berkowitz trails Zia, 1991 Player of the Year, by 11.87 masterpoints.

Zia picked up 125 MPs for winning

Elected to represent the ACBL in World Bridge Federation affairs were Joan Gerard (named to a second term) and Cecil Cook.

Gerard, Cook elected WBF representatives

Joan Gerard, representative to the Board of Directors from District 3, and Cecil Cook, representative to the Board from District 23, were elected to three-year terms as ACBL representatives to the World Bridge Federation Executive Council. The elections took place at last week's meeting of the ACBL Board of Directors.

This will be Gerard's second term with the WBF, and Cook will be serving his first term.

Gerard has had a good chance to see bridge from a number of angles because her service with the WBF. As a result, she has a very positive outlook about bridge in general and the ACBL and the WBF in particular.

"The future of bridge is bright, and world bridge has to be a major part of that future.

"The WBF is taking steps similar to those being taken by the ACBL -- setting up a pro tour, adding various special events, a tournament of champions, and so forth. The WBF is still behind the ACBL in some areas -- smoking, masterpoints, special events -- but we're catching up fast.

"For instance, the WBF is adding special events that have a broad base of interest. The first was the Transnational Mixed Teams that took place in Greece. And next year in Tunisia we are adding a Transnational Open Teams. This team event will start when the Bermuda Bowl and the Venice Cup move into the knockout phase.

"The WBF chooses its locations well -- they're always great places to go. They're chosen so that it is possible to combine a vacation with bridge."

Gerard was ACBL president in 1992 and chairman of the Board in 1993, the year she began her stint with the WBF. She also was co-chairman of the world championships that were held in her district in 1981.

Cook, who was president of the ACBL in 1994 and chairman of the Board in 1995, has a vital interest in

Griscom team leads in NA Swiss Teams

The team captained by John Griscom of Nashville led 40 teams into today's two-session semifinal of the North American Swiss Teams. Griscom, Coley McGinnis, Linda Hanson, all of Nashville; Alan Copeland, Midland TX; and Derrell and Louise Childs, Garland TX, had a 10 Victory Point lead over Larry Mori, Charlton NY; Robb Gordon, New York City; Dennis Sorensen, Gresham OR, and Mark Tolliver, Portland OR.

Only one point further back in third place were Ron and Linda Smith, Chattanooga TN; Jim Robison, Las Vegas, and Mark Perlmutter, San Francisco.

The Jack Coleman team, seeking to win this event for the third straight time, made the cut without any problem, but they are well off the pace. They are tied for 16th, 29 Victory Points behind the leaders. Coleman is from San Francisco, but the rest of the team is Canadian -- Boris Baran, St. Lazare PQ; Mark Molson, Cote St. Luc PQ; Drew Cannell, Winnipeg, and Mark Stein, Montreal.

Attendance record? Maybe!

Attendance was somewhat off yesterday, no doubt because of the Thanksgiving holiday. The total to date is 11,308.5 tables, which is only slightly ahead of San Francisco 1990, which had 11,088 tables at this point.

Will San Francisco 1996 beat 1990? It's going to be close. Tom Quinlan, the head director here, has projected a possible tie at 13,239 tables.

(1) Alerted; shows spades.

(2) Not Alerted; shows a spade control - 4♠ would have been RKCB.

The Facts: 7♥ doubled by East made seven, plus 1770 for E/W. 4NT was not Alerted and showed a spade control (by partnership agreement). N/S called the Director, and were told by that Director and a second Director that the double of 7♥ would be canceled. Sometime before the end of the afternoon session, N/S were told by a third Director that the double was not canceled, as there was no requirement to Alert 4NT, which meant that there was no infraction by E/W. The Director(s) therefore allowed the table result to stand.

The Appeal: N/S believed that they were told by the Screening Director that current ACBL regulations did not require an Alert of 4NT, and that therefore they had no case. When a fourth Director was consulted, N/S were told that they would lose their deposit if they took their case to a Committee. Nonetheless, N/S believed that appearing before a Committee was the only avenue available to them to protest the treatment they had received and to express their opinions about the new Alert regulations.

The Committee Decision: The Committee found that under current ACBL regulations the 4NT bid did not require an Alert and that there was therefore no basis for score adjustment. The Committee agreed that this seemed to fly in the face of the original purpose of the Alert procedure, which was to make the opponents aware of an "unexpected" or conventional agreement. The Committee members understood the frustration felt by the N/S pair. Although any protest was substantially without merit since the Laws (or Regulations) were specific on this issue, the Committee nevertheless elected to return E/W's deposit and bring the circumstances of this appeal to the attention of the Director-In-Charge of the tournament.

Chairperson: John Anderson

Committee Members: Bruce Reeve, Harvey Brody, Nell Cahn, Ed Lazarus

A SECOND LOOK

Appeals Case 14 raises an important issue, one that might well send the regulators back to the drawing board.

The point raised by the N/S pair in this case is well taken. The Alert procedure was not intended to place the opposing side (the side not making the call that might require an explanation) at a disadvantage. The "No-Alert" rule for bids of 3NT and beyond (after a player's first turn to bid) was intended to prevent the "involved" side from conveying unauthorized but potentially undetectable information through the use or non-use of Alerts.

In this case, there was no suitable "official" solution available to North. If he had asked for an explanation of the E/W bidding and had been given the correct information, he might well have decided not to double the slam, but in the asking, it might have been alleged by E/W that North had shown interest in a spade lead, dummy's first-shown suit. Sort of a Lightner Non-double.

While it might then be argued that E/W's "unusual" agreement had created the need for their opponents to seek clarification and that N/S should not then be saddled with responsibility for generating unauthorized information, this sort of fractious situation is not one that the sponsoring organization should wish to endorse through its regulations. Many experts believe, nonetheless, that allowing anyone to ask a question at his turn to bid is the most palatable solution to this complex problem.

The situation can be remedied, but perhaps not entirely. If we wish to retain the "No-Alert" rule because its benefits seem to outweigh its deficiencies, we could add a provision that would protect the "uninformed" side where there is no current legal obligation to do so. We could oblige the side that is about to buy the auction (they have made a bid and two passes have followed) to volunteer to provide the information that their opponents might require before they close out the auction.

In Case 14, either West or East would be obliged by Regulation to ask North if he wished an explanation of the entire sequence. If North accepts the offer, he would know without prejudice to his side that East's 4NT shows a spade control and that West's 6NT is natural. Then North would be able to double 7♥ or pass it out, but would not have to ask a potentially prejudicial question. He must not ask about any particular call, but his opponents must provide explanations of all but the strictly standard calls.

While this would be the ideal procedure for slam-zone auctions, the introduction of this procedure would not deprive a player from asking a proper question at any of his (other) turns to call.

There might still be problems earlier in the auction. A player contemplating a lead-directing double or a penalty double might wish to ask about a particular call, conveying unauthorized information when the explanation leads him to pass rather than double. Since we can't force a player to ask about all his opponents' calls, we are going to have to deal with these situations on a case-by-case basis.

Treadwell treads well

Dave Treadwell continues to be the hero of the oldest generation -- he keeps doing things right time after time. Here he took a shot at a reasonable slam, then found the way to make it on this deal from the first qualifying session of the North American Swiss Teams.

(1) Key Card Blackwood.
 (2) One key card.

The opening spade lead went to the ace and Treadwell won the spade return. He cashed two of dummy's top trumps, then left one outstanding as he called for the ♠J. East didn't cover, so Treadwell let it ride, pitching a heart. The ♠10 was covered and Treadwell ruffed it.

Next came the ♦A and the ♦K followed by a third diamond which he ruffed with the king. This was the position at this point:

 ♥ J ♥ K 10 9
 ♦ J ♦ Q
 ♣ J 5 ♣ 9

 ♥ A Q 6

Treadwell led a club to the jack on which West comfortably threw a heart. But then Treadwell called for the last trump, and West was caught. He couldn't throw the diamond so he had to bare his ♥K. Treadwell recognized what was happening -- he led the ♥J and went up with the ace, dropping the king to make his slam. That was worth 12 IMPs when his opponents stopped in 3NT at the other table.

Rotman the author

Danny Rotman, several times a North American champion, now has displayed a new talent -- he is an author. His first novel, A Game of Revenge, has just come off the press. He wrote the book in conjunction with Loren Shapiro and Richard Rogers.

It is not a bridge book -- it's about intrigue on the gameboards of Las Vegas, Los Angeles and New York. Reports from those who have read it call it a thriller from start to finish, and they say they can hardly wait for Danny's next book.

Hard charge by Berkowitz-Cohen

David Berkowitz of Old Tappan NJ and Larry Cohen of Boca Raton FL have forged a remarkable record in major pair events this year, one of the factors that contributed to Berkowitz's lead in the 1996 Player of the Year contest going into the Fall NABC.

Berkowitz and Cohen won the Open Pairs II at the Spring NABC in Philadelphia and followed with a victory in the six-session Life Master Open Pairs at the Summer NABC in Miami Beach.

They entered the 1996 Blue Ribbon Pairs as the defending champions. They started slowly, qualifying 60th after the first day of play, but they moved up steadily. They were 16th after four sessions and, going into the final 26 boards Thursday night, stood fourth in the field.

With one round to go, Berkowitz and Cohen trailed by a substantial margin but still nearly managed to pull out a win, earning 70 out of 76 matchpoints. Here's what happened:

Cohen led the ♦3 to the 5, jack and ace. West was looking at 26 high-card points between the two hands but only seven top tricks. There was a lot of work to do.

West won the ♦A and fired one back. Cohen ducked to Berkowitz's jack, and Berkowitz pushed the ♣9 through declarer's hand. West went up with the ace and played a heart to dummy's ace, followed by a low spade from dummy, hoping Berkowitz might have the ♠K without the jack and be tempted to play it.

Berkowitz was well armed in spades, however, and he inserted the 10 and got off play with another club, ducked by declarer to Cohen's 8. Cohen got out with a heart to dummy's king, and declarer tested hearts, finding that suit splitting 4-2.

Hoping to endplay Berkowitz in spades, West cashed the ♣K and floated the ♠9 to Berkowitz's jack. Unfortunately for declarer, Berkowitz still had a club and played it to Cohen's hand, which was good. Down three for plus 300 and 35.5 out of 38 matchpoints.

Berkowitz got off to the excellent lead of the ♣J, establishing two tricks in the suit immediately. Cohen had a problem, however, when East cashed four rounds of spades. Cohen could let go a club and a diamond, but when East played the fourth round of spades, Cohen was down to

♦ A K Q

and was in a quandary for his discard. Cohen was fearful of throwing a heart because if declarer had 5-4-1-3 shape, a heart pitch would allow the contract to make. Cohen didn't imagine that East would bid 3♠ with the shape he actually had, so in order to assure the defeat of the contract, Cohen discarded the ♦A. Declarer then followed with the ♥K and the ♥J. Cohen won the second heart and cashed two clubs and two diamonds, but that was it for the defense.

Plus 200 was good for another 35.5 matchpoints, and Cohen was upset that his discard might have cost him and Berkowitz the event. That was not the case. For one thing, another North-South pair had scored plus 800 on the deal, so the most Berkowitz and Cohen could have gotten was 37, another 1.5 MPs, and they were 2.9 matchpoints out of first.

Nor would a different score have affected the winners of the event. Jim Krekorian and Bob Blanchard were allowed to play -- and make -- 2♠ on the East-West cards.

Swiss Correction

There was an inaccuracy in the results printed for Wednesday's Flight A Swiss Teams. The team that finished in sixth place, winning 7.29 masterpoints, was Earl Glickstein, Gaithersburg MD; Don Probst, Fairfax VA; Martin Caley, Montreal, and Barrett Raff, Johnson City NY.

On their way

New Yorkers Jim Krekorian and Bob Blanchard, winners of the Blue Ribbon Pairs, are a regular partnership who have knuckled down to serious play over the past couple of years. Their efforts paid off with an impressive showing in one of the toughest pair events in the world. On this deal from the second final session, Krekorian made a risky call and was quite appreciative of Blanchard for holding just the right hand.

(1) Negative.

Krekorian knew he was taking a chance with a negative double on the East cards because it "promised" four spades. Krekorian was therefore a bit nervous when he heard Blanchard leap to 4♣. He grew more tense when North led a couple of high hearts, forcing Blanchard to ruff in the long trump hand. Krekorian envisioned his partner losing control if he had started with only four spades.

Blanchard showed that he is a good partner, however, by holding five spades and timing the play nicely. After ruffing the heart at trick two, Blanchard cashed the ♦A, followed by the ♠A and the ♠K. Next came the ♦K and a diamond ruff, establishing that suit. Blanchard then ruffed a heart to his hand and ran the good diamonds. The opponents took one trick each in clubs, hearts and spades.

The board occurred late in the second final session, and Krekorian knew they were having a good game. "When Bob showed up with five spades," Krekorian said, "I felt that we were OK."

Fun with a Moysian

Several different contracts were played on Board 18 of the second semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. However, few declarers were able to make a game. Ray Grace of Sherwood Park, Alberta, playing with Mark MacCarthy of San Francisco, was one of the few successful declarers -- but he did need a little help from the defense.

Grace's first break came on the opening lead -- a spade to his queen. He tried for a club trick by leading to the king, but North won the ace and shifted to a trump. Grace took his ace and led a diamond to the king and North's ace. But here North slipped -- instead of leading a second trump he returned a club.

Grace gratefully ruffed this, went to the ♦Q and ruffed another club. Next came a spade, ruffed, and the ♥K. He got out with another trump, dropping both the jack and the queen.

The defense was helpless even though everyone was out of trumps. Grace still had the top spade -- and of course dummy's clubs now were all good -- and accessible -- the ♦9 was there as an entry.

Travelers, Smith Barney sponsor senior events

The Travelers Insurance Co. and Smith Barney have sponsored several Senior events here. Today's Senior Pairs is one of those sponsored events.

This is all part of the sponsorship agreement the ACBL has forged with the Travelers Insurance Co. and Smith Barney, both leaders in their respective fields.

The last of the red umbrellas offered by Travelers was won by JoAnne Grundy of Westminster Co.

Pianist Pennario has more time for bridge

Leonard Pennario of Beverly Hills CA, premiere concert pianist, may be using his fingers more for playing cards than for playing the piano from now on. "I've retired," he said, "no more barnstorming."

Oh, he hasn't given up the piano altogether. He's got two cruises lined up on the Crystal Harmony for Atlantic crossings on which he will be the featured performer.

We asked him what it's like to be retired. "It's wonderful! I'm playing lots of bridge, going to movies, seeing friends -- you know, I'm going where I want to go instead of where I have to go."

He has played several times here with his brother, Dr. Joseph Pennario of Del Mar CA, a pediatrician. "Joe became a Life Master a few weeks ago," said Leonard. "And he did it on his own -- he didn't get any expert help like I got from Phil Leon."

Pennario's biggest moment this year came at the Grammy Awards dinner in February, when he won his first Grammy. He didn't think he had much of a chance against the other nominees -- Duke Ellington, the Beatles, John Coltrane and a jazz outfit. But when the envelope was opened, Leonard heard his name called. "It was a great thrill," said Leonard, "especially since it was so totally unexpected."

That sinking feeling

On this deal from the first final session of the Life Master Open Pairs, North's worst nightmare came true when he chanced to balance against Vivian Kilstrup of Vail CO and Haig Tchamitch (aka Hagar the Horrible) of Denver. This story might be subtitled, "Never let the opponents play 2♥."

(1) Tchamitch and Kilstrup play a 1NT opening as 10-12.

Tchamitch might have bid 3♥ instead of 2♥, but he didn't like his doubleton diamond honor and dull shape. When Kilstrup freely bid 3♥, Tchamitch decided to make the opponents pay for balancing.

Kilstrup didn't disappoint her partner. On the opening lead of a low spade, she put in dummy's queen, cashed the ace (discarding a club) and followed with the ♥A and a heart to the jack. As the dispirited opponents slumped lower in their chairs, Kilstrup played a diamond to the queen in dummy and followed with a low club.

South went up with the ace and played another trump, but Kilstrup won, played a diamond to the ace, noting the fall of the ♦J from South. Now a club to the king and the ♦10, ruffing out North's king. Plus 680 was good for nearly all the matchpoints.

There will be a meeting of the ACBL Laws Commission this morning at 10 in Pacific I, fourth floor.

Beautiful declarer play

By Barry Rigal

Marshall Miles usually manages to generate something of interest. This time in the first final of the Blue Ribbon Pairs he created a beautiful declarer-play hand.

 Dlr: North ♥ 9 4
 Vul: None ♦ 7 6 2

| All Pass | | | |

Miles had managed a coup by reaching the best partscore. He received the ♥J lead and he won the ♥A to lead the ♠A and a second spade to the jack. Next came a heart to the king and heart ruff, dropping all the outstanding hearts. A diamond to the jack and king saw West exit with a second diamond. Now declarer won in hand and led a heart, ruffed and overruffed. Finally a spade to the king endplayed West to lead clubs into the tenace for a valuable overtrick.

Miles had to read West for his 4-3-2-4 shape. If West had had a third diamond, then Miles would have had to cash the diamond to remove West's exit before playing the fourth heart.

However there was a defensive resource: West had to cash the ♠K before exiting with his second diamond. Then he cannot get endplayed with this card, and declarer is held to nine tricks.

Hope fulfilled

On this deal from the Friday Stratified Open Pairs, Arnie Frankel made a wish for his partner to hold a certain card -- and for her to play it at the right time. Bonnie Beardsley did not disappoint him.

Frankel led the ♣5 to Beardsley's ace, and Beardsley returned the ♥Q to dummy's ace. Declarer then erred by taking the spade finesse to the jack.

Frankel won the ♠Q and, in the hope that partner had the ♠9, returned a low heart, making sure that Beardsley would ruff if she had a trump. Sure enough, she pounced on the ♥9 with the ♠9 and it was curtains for North. Plus 100 was good for 11.5 out of 12 matchpoints for Frankel and Beardsley.

Big Band Beat

The final night of entertainment is here -- we have an 18-piece band and a great singer to make the going-away party spectacular.

City Swing with Gail Wilson will be entertaining from 11:30 to 1:30 tonight in Golden Gate Ballroom C. They have the great big-band sound we remember, and we have the dance floor to enjoy them properly.

We will be laying out munchies for everyone. There will be dollar beer in the lobby, and you can dance till you drop or just sit back and enjoy the sounds. Be there or be square -- there won't be any more dancing for us until we meet in Dallas.

Zero, here I come!

Mike Moss found a deceptive bid that talked the opponents out of opening a spade, and shortly afterwards Moss scored up his slam. The deal comes from the second semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Tom Trachuk, who brought the hand to us, said he was totally taken in by Moss's spade cuebid, so he led a diamond. "As quickly as that I had a zero," he said.

I/N program still booming

Through Friday evening at the Fall NABC, the Intermediate/Novice games had totaled 1077 tables.

In eight and a half days of play, 985 new players had been awarded 2034.79 masterpoints. In all, 1278 different players have participated in the I/N games.

over," she said.

Praising her supporting cast of superstars, Chilcote said, "I had great teammates who gave me the courage and confidence to do this."

The Senior KO was sponsored by the U.S. Playing Card Co., which provided trophies for the winners. Roy G. Green, chief executive officer of the ACBL, praised the sponsor and Hamish Bennett, a Bay Area player who worked hard to build up attendance in the Senior KO. The turnout this year was the largest ever.

The Chilcote team's lineup in the event was indeed impressive, with seven world championships and dozens of North American titles.

Eisenberg, a bridge pro, was an original member of the Aces, the team developed by the late Ira Corn. Eisenberg won five Bermuda Bowls with four different partners and represented the U.S. in three others. He has more than a dozen North American championships to his credit and numerous wins in European tournaments, including the prestigious London Times invitational.

Arnold, a businessman, won the Bermuda Bowl in 1981 and now has nine North American championships.

Hamilton is also a former Bermuda Bowl winner (1976) with nine major titles to his credit.

Sanders, a businessman and former ACBL President and Board Member, has represented the U.S. in international competition on many occasions and was non-playing captain of the winning Bermuda Bowl team in 1981. He has 11 North American championships, including three wins in the Vanderbilt Knockout.

Jabbour, a bridge pro, won the Barry Crane Top 500 in 1989 and is perennially among the leading masterpoint winners in ACBL tournaments.

Here is a deal which helped the Chilcote team to victory.

Slams and games of course are important in IMP matches, but partscores definitely have their place as well. That was one of the reasons why the IMP scale came into being -- so that contracts below the slam level would have more relevance. Here, Chilcote and Jabbour found a way to defeat a reasonable 2♥ contract.

rounds of trumps, but he abandoned the suit, noting that he would be in serious trouble if the defensive trumps were 4-2.

He switched to a club, winning the ace and continuing the suit to Jabbour's queen. Jabbour forced declarer in spades, and declarer knocked out Mary's ♣K as Jabbour ditched a diamond. She led a diamond to Jabbour's ace, and he got out with a diamond to the king.

Declarer was in bad trouble at this point. If he led his good club, one of the opponents would ruff in, so he had to lead a diamond and hope. He ruffed with the 10, but that wasn't good enough -- Jabbour was able to overruff with the jack. Back came another spade, and declarer had to use dummy's last trump to win the trick. That made Mary's last trump -- she had saved the 2 for last! -- good for the setting trick. □ the Open BAM, 17.14 in the Life Master Open Pairs and 70 for finishing 6th in the Blue Ribbon Pairs with Mark Molson.

Berkowitz won 41.67 in the Open BAM and 131.25 for coming in second in the Blue Ribbon, but he earned no masterpoints in the Life Master Open Pairs.

In the Reisinger, Zia is playing with his regular partner, Michael Rosenberg, and Chip Martel and Lew Stansby.

Berkowitz and Larry Cohen -- who is third in the Player of the Year race with 605.03 MPs -- are playing in the Reisinger with Gerald Sosler, Kay Schulle, John Mohan and Roger Bates.

Previous winners of the Player of the Year race:
1990 -- Bob Hamman.
1991 -- Zia.
1992 -- Jeff Meckstroth.
1993 -- Bob Hamman.
1994 -- Michael Rosenberg.
1995 -- Fred Stewart and Steve Weinstein.

New Life Masters

RICHARD PAPST of Bakersfield CA went over the top in the 0-750 Knockout Teams playing with his son Aaron. Aaron also is a relatively new Life Master -- he made the grade two months ago. Their teammates here were John Mayne of Bakersfield and Pam Stockwell of Ridgecrest CA.

EMIL SANDA won 13 gold gold points in the Wednesday Flight B Open Pairs to go over the top.

MARSHA ORLOFF made the grade by earning her last necessary golds by placing in the overalls in the Thursday evening Senior Stratified Pairs.

JOHN PAVEY of Toronto has reached the semi-finals of the Alcatraz Knockouts, and that adds up to enough points to put him over the top. His partner is Joe Major of Montreal, and his teammates are Wayne Christensen of Houston and Gloria Krusemeyer of Minnesota.

world bridge. He attended the world championship in both Albuquerque in 1994 and Beijing, China, in 1995.

"Bridge appears to be making quite a surge in many parts of the world," said Cook. "I found it most interesting that so many countries have enough interest in the game to send teams to a championship like the recent Olympiad.

"It's enlightening to note that so many other countries have instituted programs similar to those already in progress in the ACBL -- education programs, activities for Juniors, etc. All this is good for bridge.

"It's also a good sign that the WBF is moving toward more events for players just below the top rank. "The transnational events are a major step forward.

"I am looking forward to working with representatives from the rest of the world to make bridge ever more interesting and popular throughout the world." □

Vancouver 99*By Doug Cowan, tournament chairman*

The NABCs will return to the West Coast in March of 1999 when Vancouver will host another North American Bridge Championship -- the first time since 1974. The tournament dates are March 18-28.

Vancouver is an ideal location in late March, as we usually enjoy an earlier spring than most parts of Canada and the northern U.S. The area will be ablaze with spring blossoms, the weather should be pleasant.

The athletically inclined can choose between golf on our many reasonably priced public courses, or skiing on local mountains less than half an hour away, or the world-class Whistler Blackcomb facility about one and a half hours north of the city on the spectacular sea-to-sky highway.

The tournament will be held at the Vancouver Trade and Convention Center, situated on the waterfront in the heart of downtown. The headquarters hotel will be the four-star Pan Pacific, adjacent to the Convention Center. Many other hotels, restaurants, shops, etc., are within walking distance in one of the safest cities in America.

I was fortunate to be deeply involved, professionally and promotionally, in 1974. I look forward to welcoming old and new friends to the city of which I am so proud.

The road less traveled

By Barry Rigal

David Berkowitz and Larry Cohen missed out on defending their Blue Ribbon Pairs trophy by the smallest of margins. Not all their opponents were going out of their way to help them to the title. Danny and Jo Ann Sprung made Berkowitz work for his game on this deal from the second final session.

Dlr: South ♠ K Q J 7

(1) Precision: could be short.

(2) Fourth suit forcing.

Danny did well to lead a club -- the "normal" ♥Q lead makes declarer's task easy. Jo Ann won the ♣A and switched to the ♦6, ducked to Danny's jack. After some thought, Sprung played a second club -- perhaps the ♥J might have worked. Berkowitz won and drew two rounds of trumps. Then he ducked a heart, won the return and drew the last two rounds of trumps. This was the ending:

♠ J ♠ 10
♥ A 8 ♥ ---
♦ 10 7 ♦ 8
♣ --- ♣ 10 5 4
♠ --- ♠ 8
♥ Q 10 ♥ 3
♦ Q 4 3 ♦ A K 9
♣ --- ♣ ---

On the last trump, Danny was squeezed in the red suits, so Berkowitz got back to the plus 620 that everyone else had managed so much more easily.

Recycling

Recycling bins have been placed at various key spots throughout the tournament area. It would be most appreciated if you would use these bins for your waste materials.

Letters to the Editor

Deep appreciation

To the Editor:

I would like to express my deep appreciation of the excellent work being done by the ACBL.

The experience I have had so far in this NABC is indeed memorable and unforgettable.

The service the ACBL is providing the entire bridge community around the world and particularly in the United States is very commendable.

To me, it has indeed added a dimension to my quality of life -- meeting so many people of diverse cultures.

Many, many thanks.

About Appeals Case 1 . . .

To the Editor:

This concerns Appeals Case 1 from one of the early Daily Bulletins here. Why do you have to print the names?

I think it is very embarrassing and humiliating for the E-W pair, in view of what was written about them. It's not as though they were caught embezzling or giving illegal finger signals.

As one of my friends said to me, "I'm sure she would rather have lost the deposit and had a penalty assessed than see her name in print like that."

P.S. -- I am not a personal friend of any of the four players.

Jack Margid
San Francisco

The Appeals Committee has had a policy for some time of naming participants in appeals cases ONLY if the event is Flight A or higher. No names are mentioned in appeals of lower-rated games.

The event in question here was the Life Master Women's Pairs, so listing the names of the persons involved was completely in line with the Appeals Committee policy.

Never is there an intention of embarrassing or humiliating anyone. The facts of the case are stated followed by the director's ruling, the reasons for the appeal and the committee's decision. That was the case in the appeal in question -- exactly that format was followed.

Pulling the wrong card

Most of us have pulled the wrong card at some time in our bridge-playing career. When Louis Martin of Milpitas pulled a wrong card from dummy, it didn't seem as if it would make any difference. But it did! It happened in the Fast Open Pairs.

| | | |
|--------------------|-------------|-------------|
| Board 4 | ♠ J | |
| Dlr: West | ♥ A Q 9 5 3 | |
| Vul:Both | ♦ A 10 7 6 | |
| | ♣ K 8 7 | |
| ♠ A K Q 10 9 8 7 6 | | ♠ 5 3 |
| ♥ 10 | | ♥ J 7 4 |
| ♦ -- | | ♦ Q 9 5 4 2 |
| ♣ A 5 4 3 | | ♣ Q 10 9 |
| | ♠ 4 2 | |
| | ♥ K 8 6 2 | |
| | ♦ K J 8 3 | |
| | ♣ J 6 2 | |

Martin, East, was playing 4♠ after a transfer sequence, and the opening lead was the ♠2. He played the ace from dummy, North followed with the jack and Martin played the 5 (!) instead of the 3. He then cashed the ♣A and led toward the ♣Q. North won the king, cashed the ♥A and led another heart, ruffed in dummy.

Martin then claimed, saying he would cash the ♣Q, trump a diamond and then trump his last club.

But South was having no part of this. "My four of spades is bigger than your three," she said. So pulling the wrong card, even though it was a tiny one, cost Martin a valuable overtrick. He had to settle for 2.5 matchpoints on a 12 top on the board.
